In and Around the City.

The heated term is on us in earnest, Degree Team of Manteo Lodge will bear in mind meeting called at six o'clock Monday afternoon at Odd Fellows Hall
 Mr H McEachen, Sheriff of Robeson county, brought three convicts to the penitentiary today from said county.
 We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the North Carolina music festival to be given at Charlotte June 13th, and 14th next.
 Messrs Rogers & Carroll, No 204 E Martin street, have a nice lot of fresh groceries on hand. Their nice new delivery is at all times in waiting to deliver them at your door. Call on them.
 We have received a copy of a special trade edition of the Statesville Landmark, gotten up under the auspices of the Statesville Chamber of Commerce in Celebration of its first anniversary. It is one of the most complete issues of the kind ever gotten up in North Carolina.

The twin turtle and two headed terrapin which Messrs Whiting Bros, have had on exhibition at their clothing emporium for some time are both dead, but they have placed them in alcohol, where they show as well if not better than they did while living. Go round and see them. They are opening up quite a lot of new goods today; hats in abundance.

The Governor today reprieved Jordan Pritchard, of Granville county, who was sentenced to have been hung June 6th, until June 27th an application having been filed with the Governor, praying the commutation of his sentence. The Governor reprieved Pritchard for the purpose of giving the citizens of Granville county an opportunity to show cause why the sentence should be commuted.

Tastes Differ.

We learn that one of the peculiarities of the proprietors of a prominent Fayetteville street grocery house is to serve sliced pineapples with salt instead of granulated sugar. Strange fancy indeed.

The Bryan Murder.

Owing to the absence of witnesses, the proceedings of the coroners jury were not resumed yesterday afternoon as expected. The investigation was adjourned until Monday morning next at 10 o'clock.

All Over 20c.

We will sell our entire line of summer dress goods that cost over 20 cts per yard at cost. This does not include white goods of any kind but only woolen goods of all kinds. We mean business; we are going to sell them at exact cost; we are not going to make an assignment but we want to move the last piece of summer woolen goods at once. We have a large stock to select from and you will probably see something in our stock that will suit you better than at any other store in the city. We have put on sale 5,000 yards of figured lawns at only 8 cents per yard; we have put our challies at 5c per yard. In fact, for the summer months we have made a sweeping reduction through our entire stock. Clothing of all kinds comes under the same head. No humbug, but a genuine sale. Do yourself the justice of coming to see us at SWINDELL'S.

IN MEMORIAM.

Minutes from the meeting of the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Home Insurance Company held May 23rd, 1890.

WHEREAS, By the dispensation of an All-Wise Providence, our friend and fellow director, Col Wm E Anderson, has been removed from our midst and from the labors of active, useful life, and recognizing the great loss we sustain, in common with so many organizations with which he has been so actively connected, we desire to place on record our estimation of our friend as a Christian gentleman, as a man of unswerving integrity, of sound discretion and judgment, as a faithful and wise counselor, possessing great self control, and to a remarkable degree the qualification of amiability and gentleness, feeling the loss of such a man so keenly; we therefore Resolve 1st. To spread this minute upon the record book of the company and to devote a page of the same to his memory.

 2nd. That a copy of the same be sent to his family, to whom we tender our heartfelt sympathy in this (their great) bereavement.
 3rd. That a copy of the same be given to the press of the city with a request for its publication.

Copy from the minutes of the Board of Directors of the Citizens National Bank:

Resolutions of respect for the memory of Wm E Anderson, late President of the Citizens National Bank of Raleigh.

We, the Directors of the Citizens National Bank of Raleigh, N C, moved by a profound sorrow of our loss and that of the bank in the death, on the 21st inst, of William E Anderson, who had been our associate so long and the President of the bank since its organization nearly twenty years ago, and of whose excellent qualities of head and heart we had become cognizant by daily official and personal intercourse do with hearty sorrow, but with hands bowed in submission to that head which so often takes the most worthy first, do adopt the following resolutions:

FIRST, That the bank by the removal of President Anderson from this scene of his labors, has lost an officer whose financial ability was of high order, whose integrity was unswerving, whose devotion to duty was constant and never failing, even to the moment when he fell unconscious at his desk to linger for a few hours and die with his harness on, and whose courtesy to all who had business dealings with him or with the bank was such that they and, through them, nearly the whole community regarded him with the kindness of personal friendship.

SECOND, That to each of us and to every officer and employee of the bank his absence will be a source of great and lasting regret as that of a dear friend, and that his pleasing face, his kindly greeting, his cheerful conversation, often at once playful and instructive, his tender consideration for the rights and feelings of others, his fullness of that charity which "suffereth long and is kind," and his unreserved, almost affectionate manner with us in our daily association, will be ever pleasant memories to each and all of us.

THIRD, That we devote a page of our journal to these proceedings, and direct that a copy of these be sent to the widow of our deceased friend, with assurances of our deepest sympathy with her in her great affliction.

A Handsome Present.

At Seaton Gales Lodge, I O O F, on Thursday night last, Past Grand Master, Joseph G Brown, who is now the representative of the Grand Lodge to Sovereign Grand Lodge of the world, was presented with a handsome Grand Representatives Regalia by the members of Seaton Gales Lodge. The Regalia was one of the most handsome ever seen in the city.

Early Closing.

The petition for early closing is now in circulation and is being rapidly signed. When it is presented, we hope every one of our merchants will sign it. Close your stores at 7 o'clock p m and give the clerks some time for recreation and rest, as well as rest and recreation for proprietors. We are sure all will be benefited.

Personal Mention.

W C Bledsoe, of Barton's Creek, was in the city today and reports the condition of crops as very good except wheat and oats, which are very poor indeed. The farmers are in good spirits, &c.

Miss Ida A Snelling left last evening to attend the commencement exercises of Greensboro Female College. She will be absent for some three weeks visiting her schoolmates and friends.

E L Fleming, of the firm of I N Proctor & Co, has gone to Richmond and will remain till after the unveiling of the Lee monument on the 29th.

E B Barbee, Esq, left this morning to visit his family who are spending the summer in Richmond, Va.

Frank Bragg was sent to St John's Hospital on yesterday. He was very sick, and today he is no better.

We are sorry to learn that the condition of Willie Broughton, son of Jos T Broughton, at Garner, was not so favorable this morning.

The condition of Jordan Womble, Sr, is somewhat improved, although it is such now as not to give his many friends much ground for hope of his speedy recovery.

Dr Nowitsky, of Indian tea fame, is in the city looking hale and hearty.

Mr Samuel Merrill, formerly of Raleigh but now of Columbia, S C, is in the city visiting his daughter, Mrs J R Ball, on South Person street.

Mrs N D Lamb returned from Winston yesterday afternoon where she has been spending the past two weeks.

James M Britt is in the city visiting his father, corner Blount and Davie streets.

H A Womble, of Randleman, is in the city.

A First Class Establishment.

Among the many business houses in the city, can be mentioned in the foremost rank the celebrated undertaking establishment of L C Bagwell, corner of Martin and Blount streets. There is no house of the kind in North Carolina that can surpass this in all the arrangements necessary for a proper interment of the dead. Not only does Mr Bagwell's fame permeate the city, it has reached the surrounding country from whence he is receiving the most liberal patronage. This is reasonable, because people will go where they can be best accommodated. A visit to this establishment will strike the beholder with wonder. Here can be seen beautiful caskets, burial robes, gloves and all the necessary burial apparel. One of the finest hearses in the State is ready at all times and bodies are properly embalmed when desired. There is no duty of a more mournful, but at the same time of a more commendable character than the proper burial of the dead, and it devolves upon the living to see that the sacred duty is performed in the best manner. The rapidly increasing patronage of Mr Bagwell's house is the best evidence that he is giving the most complete satisfaction. All he desires is, that those having to care for deceased friends will call and see him. Even if there be no occasion for immediate services, there will be in the course of nature. Call and examine the stock.

No signs yet of work on the new depot. Can't the matter be pushed up?
