The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XII.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1890.

NO. 34

The Daily Evening Visitor

Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

NOTICE.

The proprietors of the VISITOR are always anxious and willing to accommodate their patrons as far as it can be done without detriment to the interests of the paper, or injustice to our friends. Our space is limited, and in order to make the columns attractive, the matter should be as varied as possible. The numerous nominations for official preference, thus early in the campaign, will prove too heavy on our columns for gratuitous insertion, and, hence, we feel under the necessity of adopting a scale of rates for the insertion of such cards, or communications. Hereafter a charge of twenty five cents an inch (eight lines) or less, will be made for such insertions.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Whiting Bros—Seasonable Goods.

In and Around the City.

Crops look beautiful. Very little news stirring. Commencements all the rage. Capitol square is now a lovely place. Hurry up the benches in Nash square.

Lieut Gov Holt is presiding in the absence of Gov Fowle.

The different Railroads in the State are recalling the ministers permits for half rates. What does it mean?

Work is progressing finely on the Governor's Mansion. It will no doubt be ready for occupancy by the fall.

Let everybody boom up the fourth of July—it will soon be here.

The graves of the Federal dead at the National cemetery will be decorated this afternoon at 6 o'clock.

Why not have the street crossings raised now, while the weather is good? It will be great and much needed improvement.

What shall I do with this seedy coat? Shoot it and go to Whiting Bros., and select one of those seasonable ones and keep comfortable.

Families leaving the city during the summer for recreation or health should, by all means order the VISITOR, sent to them. It will be a source of great enjoyment to hear the news from home.

We are requested to call the attention of the members of Manteo Lodge, No 8, to the special meeting to be held tonight at 8 o'clock. The members are urged to be present promptly at the hour named.

Don't forget the grand excursion and basket picnic of the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday School to Tarboro next Tuesday. Procure your tickets at once from Terrell & Moseley, No 203 Fayetteville Street. It will be a grand occasion. The train will leave the Union depot promptly at 6:45 o'clock, a. m. $1.50 round trip.

The people of Tarboro are making every preparation to receive and make the visit of the Tabernacle Sunday School to their town next Tuesday, a most pleasant and agreeable one in all respects. Let every body go; there is no prettier place or more hospitable people in North Carolina.

For ice cream for Sunday dinner order from A Dughi, any time not later than 10 o'clock Saturday night. He will have on hand Vanilla, Chocolate, Chocolate Nut Cream, Strawberry, Sherbert, Snow Flake, Boston Crystal Cream, Pine Apple, Banana, French Cream, Crystalized Cream and Roman Punch.

One convict from Buncombe county was received at the penitentiary yesterday evening.

The Commencement ceremonies at Chapel Hill this year will be of more than ordinary interest and will attract a large crowd.

Is it not about time that the Hillsboro road was being worked? It should be put in good order before the fair and their is lots' of work to do.

By reason of serious sickness in the family of the pastor, Elder J D Dranghn, Mt Airy, N C., there will be no services in the Primitive Baptist Church, Raleigh, next Sunday.

Miss Belle Smith, recently appointed resident physician at the Woman's Prison in Sherborn, Mass, is but twenty three years old. She has been practicing medicine for 2 years.

The summer house in Pullen Park will soon be completed, thus rendering that delightful retreat still more attractive. Nothing needed now but an extension of the street car line to the place.

George Francis Train completed his trip around the world Saturday evening, arriving at Tacoma, Washington at 7 o'clock. The time from start to finish was 67 days, 13 hours, 3 minutes and 8 seconds.

All discussion concerning the extension of the Albemarle and Raleigh Railroad, seems to have stopped, and it seems to be the impression, that the terminus will remain in the woods for an indefinite period, unless there is a waking up on the subject. Can't our Chamber of Commerce do something in the premises?

A visit to the new cotton factory will amply repay all who desire to see the busy preparations going on and look at the arrangements of the building in all its details. It will not be long before the hum of industry will be heard in that quarter.

A friend remarked today, that by the aid of the advertisements in the VISITOR, he was managing to do a very good business even at this dull season of the year. And our friend is right. Dull times above all others should prompt our merchants to use printers ink freely. There is nothing like it—especially in the EVENING VISITOR.

Order of Tonti.

Supreme Secretary, D H Kenney, of Philadelphia, will make a tour through the Southern States in the interest of the "Order of Tonti" this Spring. There is a flourishing lodge established in this city and arrangements are being effected to have Mr. Kenney to give a public lecture here in the course of two or three weeks on that subject.

This order is in a flourishing condition paying out nearly $25,000.00 to its beneficiaries and adding nearly $15,000.00 every month to its reserved fund. It is founded on principles similar to that of the Iron Hall of Philadelphia and offers good investments. Sick and accident insurance at small cost. It is a capital opportunity for the laboring man to lay up for the future.

A Hospitable People.

Dr J B Dunn called on us today, having just returned from the meeting of the State Medical Society at Oxford, which adjourned yesterday evening. Dr Dunn says the session was a most successful, pleasant and profitable one in every way; that the citizens of our sister town, Oxford, cannot be excelled in true, genuine hospitality; that they received them with open arms, and entertained them royally, would not let any member go to a hotel, and kept carriages at the command of the members to drive where they would. Oxford is a grand old hospitable town. May she live and enjoy the great popularity she has won, and to her abundant prosperity be added a hundred fold.

A Raleigh Boy Abroad

A R D Johnson, son of our fellow citizen, Mr D T Johnson, is attending the business college, at Poughkeepsie, State of New York. His father has just received a letter from him in which he says that he got 100 on his examination, which is high est. To give an idea of college life he says: "We eat breakfast about 7:45 and get to school about 8 o'clock. At 12 o'clock we stop to dinner until 1:30 p. m. School then takes in, and if there is no special work, we get out by 4 o'clock. Saturday mornings we have a lecture by one of the faculty on some topic and also a lecture after 12 o'clock. I went to the Baptist Church last Sunday, of which Rev Dr Harvey is pastor and expect to attend that church while here." We are glad to learn that he is getting on all right, and we hope he may return to Raleigh fully equipped for a useful business life.

A Good Address.

Maj Eugene G Harrell delivered the literary address before the Holly Springs High School on yesterday. Quite a number of gentlemen from this city were in attendance. The Major's speech was much complimented by the large audience, which is proof of his power as a speaker and that the cause of education has a strong hold upon the hearts of our people.

Eight cotton factories, sixteen banks and various other enterprises have been started in South Carolina within a year. Corporations chartered between October, 1888, and October, 1889, number eighty two, with an aggregate capital of over $41,000,000.

The editor sat on his three legged chair, An inverted goods box was his table,

And he asked his patrons if they had to spare, Any cash, and they thought themselves able.

To pay up the dues that had stood for so long? Why said they "we'll pay you to-morrow."

If your paper you stop, though I know it is wrong I will surely my good neighbor's borrow.
