The Daily Evening Visitor

Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

NOTICE.

The proprietors of the VISITOR are always anxious and willing to accommodate their patrons as far as it can be done without detriment to the interests of the paper, or injustice to our friends. Our space is limited, and in order to make the columns attractive, the matter should be as varied as possible. The numerous nominations for official preference, thus early in the campaign, will prove too heavy on our columns for gratuitous insertion, and, hence, we feel under the necessity of adopting a scale of rates for the insertion of such cards, or communications. Hereafter a charge of twenty-five cents an inch (eight lines) or less, will be made for such insertions.

In and Around the City.

Soon be midsummer.

Richmond can now justly lay claim to the title of "The Monumental City."

Not a great many country people in the city today. They are too busy with the crops.

Hon J C Scarborough had a fine mess of squashes today from vines in his garden on South Bloodworth St.

The Raleigh visitors to Richmond are returning, and all give glowing accounts of what they saw and heard.

Col Thos S Kenan, clerk of Supreme court, returned from Richmond, yesterday.

Mr S F Telfair, the gentlemanly private secretary of Gov Fowle, returned from Richmond yesterday afternoon.

The Southerner urges the people of Tarboro to give the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday school a rousing reception next Tuesday—and they will.

The ladies of Richmond were unanimous in the sentiment that North Carolina had the handsomest Governor present at the late ceremonies.

Rev Dr P H Hoge, of Wilmington, will deliver a lecture tonight at 8 o'clock before the Y M C A of the Agricultural and Mechanical College. The public are cordially invited.

A party of young ladies, chaperoned by Miss Octavia Winder, spent today at the beautiful summer residence of Major Winder, at Millbrook. It is a most charming retreat.

The arsenal building in the southwest corner of the capitol square, should either be painted, or torn down. The latter process would be more agreeable to the public.

Let every justice of the peace in Wake county be at his post next Monday. There are important duties to perform, and the people expect that they will be well carried out.

A match game of base ball was played yesterday afternoon between the Shanghai and A & M College Teams, resulting in a victory for the Shanghai's by a score of 8 to 6.

Mrs Jonas Chapel died day before yesterday. It will be remembered that she was one of the family who were poisoned at Oaks farm from eating western clear rib sides. The remainder of the family are improving, but some are quite sick yet.

Received today a nice lot of bananas, $1.25 to $1.50 per bunch. 25c per doz, at D T Johnson's. Phone 28.

New Advertisement.

See advertisement of the Bee Hive. Read the advertisement of Messrs T H Briggs & Sons, and keep off the flies.

Memorial Day at Richmond.

Yesterday the graves of the Confederate Dead in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, were decorated. It is estimated that forty thousand persons were present. Gov McKinney presided and Governor Fowle delivered an address.

Handsome Testimonial.

Last night, Mr C H Lewellen, Captain of the Degree Staff of Manteo Lodge, was presented by members of said lodge, with a most fitting testimonial in the shape of a beautiful watch chain and charm as a tribute of the high esteem in which he is held by his associates for his untiring energy and zeal in the cause.

The VISITOR congratulates Mr Lewellen, and can assure the lodge that their confidence and esteem could not be bestowed on a more worthy gentleman.

Returned.

The Governors Guard returned yesterday afternoon from Richmond full of enthusiasm and praise for the kind reception they met with at the hands of the people of the capital of the "Old Dominion." Especially are the "boys" delighted with the treatment they received from Richmond's fair daughters, who seemed to take particular pride in the representation from the "Old North State." The "boys" are here, but from what we can learn some of them came back without their hearts.

Wake Forest.

The Commencement exercises of Wake Forest College will be held June 9th-12th. The following is the programme:

Monday the 9th is Class Day.

On Tuesday the 10th, the alumni address will be delivered by Hon J J Davis, at 8:15 p. m.

On Wednesday, at 11 a. m, the address to the literary societies will be delivered by Rev Thos Dixon, Jr, of New York. At 8:15 p m, the baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev Dr W W Landrum, of Virginia.

The graduating class will deliver orations on Thursday, beginning at 11 a. m.

The philomathesian marshals are: S M Brunson, chief; W A Osborne and G A Sowell.

The euzelian marshals are: Hubert Royster, chief; W Mitchell and B W Spillman.

Music for the week will be provided by Voelker's band.

Lecture.

The lecture to be given by Rev Thos Dixon, Jr, on the 10th June, is under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Raleigh Baptist Tabernacle Church, the proceeds of which after paying expenses are to be devoted to the building of a parsonage, which the ladies have in view. Tickets are now on sale—the price of which is 50 cents; 25 cents for gallery, no extra charge for reserved seats. The seats on north side of hall can be procured at Alfred Williams & Co's book store; on south side of hall at Lee Johnson & Co's. Tickets will also be placed in hands of several of the young ladies of this society, who will solicit a purchase and we trust they may be as wonderfully successful as this occasion and purpose merits.

The religious services heretofore carried on at Athletic Park have been removed to the A M E Zion Church. All invited to attend. Services will be conducted by the pastor tomorrow morning at 11, and in the evening at 8 o'clock. Sunday school at 9 a. m.

If you want to save money in buying sugar cured hams, California hams, boneless hams, breakfast strips and other kinds of meat, or anything else in the grocery line, go to C O Ball's, No 11, East Hargett street.

Peace Institute.

Commencement opened last night at Peace Institute by exercises of the class of 1890. The following programme was rendered in most admirable style:

President of the Class—Miss Gena Rowland.

Essay—Per Gradus, Miss Mary C Rouse.

Due—Fantasia, Epstein, Miss Maude Fleming and Netta Hardison.

Class Poem—Miss Zoa Lee Rigsbee.

Statistics of Class—Miss S Lempe Betts.

Piano Solo—Rhapsodie No 8, Liszt, Miss Lillian Covington.

Class Prophecy—Miss Lon McIver.

Vocal Solo—The Days That Are No More, Blumenthal; Miss Daisy Branson.

History of Class and Valedictory—Miss Margaret Smith.

Class Song—As sung by the Class.

At the conclusion of the exercises, the principal, Mr J B Burwell was presented with a handsome lamp as a testimonial of regard.

Miss Burwell, of Charlotte, presented a souvenir to each of her classmates.

A New Enterprise

The "Raleigh Spring Bed Company" is the title of a new enterprise just started in this city, the headquarters of which are in the Dodd building, corner of Martin and Wilmington streets, on the second floor. The company is composed of Raleigh gentlemen, with sufficient capital to make the enterprise a complete success in every particular. The Spring Beds are of most beautiful design and of the latest patent. They are made by a Wake county man and all the employees are from this city and vicinity. The beds are of the folding pattern, the springs being of tempered steel. These beds will be sold at reduced prices to all leaving their orders during the next thirty days. We can assure our people that the workmanship and quality of these beds are unsurpassed in all particulars and will more than compare favorably with similar work brought here from other sections of the country.

We most sincerely hope that our people will, in this matter, as in others of equal merit, give the preference to our own manufactures.

The gentlemen composing the Raleigh Spring Bed Company are among our best business men, and they are determined that nothing shall be left undone to render the business a most complete success in every way. They extend a most earnest welcome to the public to call and examine the work turned out, being satisfied that all who do so, will be abundantly satisfied.

In Memoriam.

At a meeting of the trustees of the St Augustine Normal School and Collegiate Institute, held on the 28th inst., the following minute was unanimously adopted:

In the Providence of God our former friend, co-laborer and treasurer, Col Wm E Anderson, has been called from our midst to the rest of the Paradise of God, and, although we feel that the change is one of unspeakable blessedness to him, having entered into that "rest that remaineth for the people of God" after many years of duty so faithfully done for God and his fellow-man, still we claim the sacred privilege of putting on record this imperfect expression of the deep sense of the great loss that we have sustained both as a body and as individuals. Our departed brother and associate was a wise adviser a diligent laborer and a faithful steward of every trust committed to him. And while we thank God for his goodness in giving to this community such an example and to the church so faithful and earnest a son, we hereby record our sincere and heartfelt sorrow at his departure from our midst, and extend our tender sympathies to his bereaved family.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

Besides the general business going on, we are having three specially interesting sales in three departments Dress goods, at never before heard of prices, tan colored low shoes at less than cost of manufacture; and last but by no means least, our great sales of ladies' muslin underwear. And we call your attention to the fact that as these lines of underwear are closed they cannot, this year, be duplicated, as we lose money to sell them to you. These garments are all now fresh goods in perfect order.

W H & R S TUCKER & Co.

Lemons and coconuts, fresh and good, at C O Ball's.

Don't Read This

Without going to Norris & Carter's and see the unprecedented bargains that are being offered daily; 50c, 65c and 75c embroidered white flouncings. These are as good as some you have paid 75c, 90c and $1 for; white mulls at half what they formerly brought; beautiful challies at only 6c; corsets, gloves and hosiery at less than New York prices; evening shades in woolen dress goods at a saving of 25c on each yard; cambric and muslin corset covers at only 19c; $1 corset covers at only 50c; parasols at 50c on the dollar; hand sewed shoes at $3.50, $3.75 and $4, reduced from $4.50, $5.00 and $6.50; see the 11 1/2 white goods at NORRIS & CARTER'S.

Wilson and Mason's fresh crackers, just received, at C O Ball's.

Use Peacock Baking Powders, for sale by C O Ball.

Buckles and Slides.

We have them in the greatest profusion; all styles, oxidized, silver, plain, pearl, etc, etc. The demand for these ornaments seems to be on the increase every day and to meet this demand we have bought a large line and the prices will be very low. We can furnish you either a buckle or slide to match any goods you buy. We can also sell you a handsome dress for 25 per cent less than you can purchase the same goods in the city, or in other words, we sell you a dress for the same we paid for it. At any other store you would have to pay a profit of at least 25 per cent. Thus you see we give you a clear saving of 25 cents in every dollar you spend for dress goods alone. If we have as fine goods as you can find anywhere and the styles suit you and the price is one fourth lower than you can find, you ought to buy from us. That's a natural conclusion ain't it? Well we can do all of the above and naturally we expect a large share of your patronage, at SWINDELL'S.
