

Give a Kind Word.

EBEN E. REXFORD.
Do you know a heart that hungers
For a word of love and cheer?
There are many such about us;
It may be that one is near.
Look around you. If you find it
Speak the word that's needed so,
And your own heart may be strengthened
By the help that you bestow.

It may be that some one falters
On the brink of sin and wrong,
And a word from you might save him—
Help to make the tempted strong.
Look about you, O my brother,
What a sin is yours and mine
If we see that help is needed
And we give no friendly sign.

Never think kind words are wasted,
Bread on waters cast are they.
And it may be we shall find them
Coming back to us, some day.
Coming back when sorely needed,
In a time of sore distress,
So my friend, let's give them freely;
Gift and giver God will bless.

Keeping Moses Down.

New York Sun.
The colored people in a small town in Georgia had gathered at their church to hold funeral services over the remains of a woman who had died a couple of days before, and the ceremonies were about to begin when the bereaved husband, who was a large, corpulent man, beckoned to one of the men standing in the vestibule to follow him to the horse shed in the rear of the church. When they had arrived there the bereaved turned on him with:
"See heah, Moses, I wants an on-derstandin' wid yo' befo' dis funeral goes any furdur."
"What is it, Julius?" asked the other.
"Las' week, when be buried Henry Carter's wife, yo' was right at han'. Yo' crowded yo'self up in de front. When de weepin' begun yo' set yo'-self to wuk an' moaned an' tuk on until Henry had 't no show 'tall. Some o' de white folks reckoned yo' was de bereaved yo'self."
"I dun couldn't help it, Julius."
"Yo' couldn't. Well, now, let me give yo' a pinter. Lucinda was my wife an' nobody else's. She libed wid me an' died wid me, an' I'ze got to foot all de 'spen'es. Now den, when de sadness begins I'ze number one from start to finish. I'm de bereaved, while yo' is only an outsider who feels sad 'cause I'ze left all alone in dis cold world. Yo' has got to keep shet. If yo' go to taking on like yo' did last week I'ze gwine to forgit my great loss jist long 'nuff to turn around an' gin yo' such a lift under de ear dat yo'll reckon yo' is de subjeck of de funeral. Do yo' h'ar me, Moses?"
"I does."
"Den cum along, and recommem-ber what I'ze bin sayin'. Better take a seat in de back row an' hole yo'self down, fur at the verry first whoop of sorrow I'ae gwine to light on yo' wid a fo'ce of fo'teen hoss power!"

THE OLD NORTH STATE.

Warrenton Gazette: The fruit crop is a failure. — The crop prospect seems to be good.

Tarboro Southerner: Henry Nash is bragging about his cow which a day or so ago gave forty two pounds of milk.

Durham Globe: There are fifteen prisoners in jail for the county to feed. This is a larger number than has been in the prison at one time since 1885

Goldsboro Argus: The shipment of truck over the several railroads from this section is heavier this season than ever before, and the prices continue good.

Statesville Landmark: The distillery and fixtures of Mr W Y Hair, near Elmwood, with one barrel of whiskey which was ready to be warehoused, were destroyed by fire one night last week.

Louisburg Times: During the thunder storm on Saturday night last, the store house of Mr A D Ellis, about nine miles north of Louisburg, was struck by lightning, and burned to the ground before it could be extinguished. We learn that only a small quantity of goods were saved. There was no insurance on either goods or house. His loss is about $3,000.
