The Daily Evening Visitor

Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

NOTICE.

The proprietors of the VISITOR are always anxious and willing to accommodate their patrons as far as it can be done without detriment to the interests of the paper, or injustice to our friends. Our space is limited, and in order to make the columns attractive, the matter should be as varied as possible. The numerous nominations for official preference, thus early in the campaign, will prove too heavy on our columns for gratuitous insertion, and, hence, we feel under the necessity of adopting a scale of rates for the insertion of such cards, or communications. Hereafter a charge of twenty five cents an inch (eight lines) or less, will be made for such insertions.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

Full moon.
Beautiful nights.
Federal Court in session.
Won't it be lonesome when all the schools close?
See notice of J Booker Hutchins, Administrator.
How about the Fourth of July? The time is fast approaching.
A large crowd left on the excursion to Tarboro this morning.
Oxford is to have an Odd Fellows Temple costing $10,000. Raleigh is to have a new hotel—some of these days.
Old bonds to the amount of $40,000 were exchanged for new 4 per cent consols at the State Treasury yesterday.
Gov Fowle has issued commissions to Col A B Andrews and Col Thos B Keogh, as commissioners to the World's Fair at Chicago.
The Board of County Commissioners were again in regular session today, but transacted no important business other than of a routine character.
An excursion to Richmond, via Durham and Oxford would no doubt be a paying investment, and a most pleasant occasion, provided the fare is put at reasonable rates.
There will be a Demorest contest for the silver medal at Edenton Street S S room, on Friday evening, June 6th, at 8:30 o'clock. The public are cordially invited to attend.
The official board are requested to meet with the building committee of Central M E Church tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the church.
R C REDFORD,
Ch'n Building Committee.
The members of the degree staff of Seaton Gales Lodge are requested to meet tonight at 8:30 o'clock sharp, at the Knights of Pythias Hall, over Lee, Johnson & Co's drug store. By order of the Captain.
Prayer meeting tonight at the Christian church at 8 o'clock, after which the 2d quarterly conference of the church will be held. Business of importance to transact and all members are requested to be present.
There is a general endorsement by our people of the action of the county commissioners yesterday in reducing the poll and property tax. The failure of the crops last year was a great drawback to the farmers, but with the fair prospects now before them and a reduced tax, they can pull through all right.
The bodies of two brothers named Raymond were found in a mangled condition on the railroad tracks at Attica, Mich.

Accident.

We regret to state that our fellow citizen, Mr J C S Lumsden met with quite a painful accident yesterday afternoon about 7 o'clock. He was on his delivery wagon and while making a sudden turn at the corner of Mr C M Busbee's residence was thrown to the ground, receiving a severe jar on his right shoulder. We are glad to say that his injuries are not serious.

Death of Capt W A Darden.

The following telegram was received here last night:
GATESVILLE, N C, June 2, 1890.
To E C Beddingfield, Secretary of State Alliance, Raleigh, N C.
Capt W A Darden died suddenly here today. Communicate with friends and advise us about remains. [Signed] W P ROBERTS.

Graduates.

We have been kindly furnished with the following list of graduates from North Carolina, at the Peabody Normal College, in Nashville, Tennessee:
Joseph E J Warren, Bachelor of Arts, Rosedale; William F Davis, Boonville; John R Johnson, Jackson Hill; John T Paris, Statesville; Mary H Smith, Scotland Neck, Licentiate of Instruction.

Lost.

Rachael Crowder, (colored) residing at 301, West street has lost her son, Jacob. He left home last Friday night and has not since returned. He is eight years old and small for his age. Had on when he left an old calico waist, blue knee pants, no hat. He is very black, with hair, low on forehead. Any information of his whereabouts will be thankfully received by his mother.

Trinity College

Although, through the force of circumstances, Raleigh did not succeed in procuring the establishment of this institution in our midst, yet, everything relating to its prospects are of interest to the great body of our people.

Mr S L Leary, of Charlotte, who secured the award for the design of the building, has submitted his plans, according to which the college building will cost $125,000. It will be a very imposing structure and conveniently arranged in every particular. It will be, undoubtedly the handsomest college building in North Carolina.

In addition to the main building there will be an annex for the Y M C A, a building for professors, a gymnasium, chemical, laboratory, physical laboratory, Bible house, swimming baths, athletic track, etc. The main building will be of stone and pressed brick, and will be three stories with basement. Work will be commenced in two weeks.

An Impressive Scene.

The Tabernacle Church was filled morning and evening on Sunday. In the morning a scene was witnessed that will not soon be forgotten by those who were present. Before giving out the second hymn, Mr Hall said: "A few days ago there was unveiled in the city of Richmond a monument to perpetuate the name of one who is especially dear to every southern heart, one who by his military skill and grandly Christian character has gained the admiration of the civilized world. You know of whom I speak—General Robert E Lee. He had a favorite hymn. It will be sung in many a church today; let us all sing it here:
"How firm a Foundation ye Saints of the Lord."
And as the good old hymn was sung by that immense audience tears were seen coursing down many a face, lips quivered and many an old soldier present thought of the days gone by. It was indeed an impressive occasion.

Seven school children were bitten by a mad dog at St Joseph, Ill.

The Funding Act.

It is of the utmost importance to those owning bonds of the State of North Carolina, denominated the "old issue," or construction bonds to keep in mind the fact that the funding act will expire on the 1st of July next. It should be remembered that the State has heretofore extended the time in which the old bonds can be exchanged for the new 4 per cent consols, and, it may be, that the coming legislature will refuse any further extension. There is no State in the South that made more liberal offers to compromise all just debts than North Carolina, and it is fair to presume that no further concessions can, or will be made on the bonds, yet outstanding. Bondholders need not cherish the "flattering unctio" that anything can be gained by delay. North Carolina has done all in the premises that could be expected and all that the people will ratify.

We hope that before the 1st of July, every outstanding bond will be returned to the treasury so that no difficulty may be encountered by bondholders in the future, and the State may be relieved of any further trouble in the matter.

Peace Institute.

The commencement exercises at this most excellent institution are now in progress. Last night there was a very large crowd in attendance and a most delightful programme was rendered.

Tonight the annual concert will take place, under the direction of Professor Bauman, which is sufficient to ensure a most complete success. The following medals have been awarded:

Everitt medal, Miss May Rouse.
Latin medal, Miss Lou M'Iver.
French medal, Miss Daisy Branson.
English Essay medal, Miss Carrie Mullens.
Primrose medal for proficiency and improvement in Penmanship, Miss Mary Timberlake.
Proficiency in Penmanship Miss Helen Uzzell.
Medal for Department and Scholarship, Miss Willie Brown Graves and Miss Kate Lawrence.

Personal Mention.

Attorney General Davidson has returned to the city.
A B Marshburn, Esq, of Eagle Rock, one of Wake county's most progressive citizens, paid us a pleasant visit yesterday afternoon.

Miss Lena Beale, of Suffolk, Va who has been teaching music in Graham College this year, is spending a few days with Mrs J P Barrett of this city.

Mr Elisha Everett, of Nansemond county, Va, died Monday night after a long sickness. He was the father of Mrs J P Barrett, of this city. Rev J P Barrett left at 11:45 today to attend the funeral services which will be held tomorrow. Owing to sickness of their little child Mrs Barrett will not attend the funeral.

Charles Beers, of Camden, N J, is charged by Miss Maggie Rogers with obtaining $2,000 under a promise to marry her.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A large stock of gentlemen's white shirts, outing shirts, collars, cuffs, silk handkerchiefs, fine clothing, etc, to be closed out at D S Waitt's, 213 Fayetteville street.

I Despise the Word Economy.

This expression was made by a beautiful young woman on one occasion in company. Her admirer heard it. Then he made this expression: "I love that girl but I would not marry her if every hair on her head was strung with a diamond." A good display of common sense and economy is a good advertisement for a young lady. Now, then, if you go to Swindell's and get a parasol and save a dollar, and get a dress and save a dollar, get a pair of shoes and save a dollar, there is three dollars saved (a day's wages for your future husband). Young ladies, do you think you are not watched? Do you think your business sense is not noticed? Do you think the young man who wants to make you his wife cares not whether you have good business sense? Display your good judgment and hard horse sense. Buy your dry goods from Swindell's because it will pay you.

Hot Weather

Means lighter wearing apparel. You will find at Norris & Carter's a full and complete line of light weight dress fabrics, such as batists, nuns veilings, albatrosses in colors and evening shades. The most interesting feature of these goods is the half prices at which they are being sold. New styles in gingham and challies at remarkably low prices. White goods and all over flouncings at about two thirds what they cost you at other places. See the 50 and 65c full depth, flouncings. Gauze vests for gents, ladies, misses and children's at a great bargain. Parasols at half values. Ladies silk mits at 15c, and all silk gloves at 35c and 40c, reduced from 65 and 75c. Bargains in all lines at
