Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

NOTICE.

The proprietors of the VISITOR are always anxious and willing to accommodate their patrons as far as it can be done without detriment to the interests of the paper, or injustice to our friends. Our space is limited, and in order to make the columns attractive, the matter should be as varied as possible. The numerous nominations for official preference, thus early in the campaign, will prove too heavy on our columns for gratuitous insertion, and, hence, we feel under the necessity of adopting a scale of rates for the insertion of such cards, or communications. Hereafter a charge of twenty-five cents an inch (eight lines) or less, will be made for such insertions.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

Sultry.

The excursionists all returned happy.

No cause to grumble about crops now.

We have received the North Carolina Teacher for May. It is as usual a most interesting number.

The President of Peace Institute will bring thirty Virginia girls here next session.

Hon. George W. Sanderlin State Auditor, delivered the Literary address at Salem Female Academy today.

It is reported that Secretary of the Interior Noble and Commissioner of Pensions Raum will soon resign their respective offices to accept flattering offers from private corporations.

The Lawn Party that was to have been given Thursday evening for the benefit of the Brooklyn church has been postponed on account of the illness of Mrs. Henry Porter.

It was to the regret of every one on yesterday, when the excursion train for Tarborough moved off leaving, Mr. Robert Wicker and family behind after they had put their basket of provisions on board the train. Such is life. We will get left sometimes.

The closing of the commencement exercises of Peace Institute came off last night which reflected great credit upon the faculty as well as the young ladies. The College is doing a good work. May it continue to grow and prosper in the years to come. Most of the young ladies left this afternoon for their homes.

Capt W. S. Harris returned to the city yesterday evening from a business trip to Louisburg, through the country and says the farms upon the route are in a better condition than he has ever seen them and a better stand, and that he believes, thus far, the crops have been cultivated with less expense than ever before.

Closing Exercises of Wakefield Classical and Mathematical High School.

The closing exercises of this most excellent school takes place next Friday, June 6th, at 10, a. m., and 8, p. m. The success of this school and the high character of the entertainments given, is a sufficient guarantee of what the public may expect. It is twenty miles, North east from the city, and one of the best roads in the country leading to it. We can assure all who may attend, a most enjoyable occasion, and that they will be repaid, for the community is composed of a generous, whole hearted people, who take just pride in the school in their midst.

The Excursion Yesterday—A Delightful Time and a Safe Return.

For several weeks past, the excursion of the Baptist Tabernacle Sunday School to Tarboro has been the great theme of conversation, and was looked for with the greatest interest. In accordance with arrangements the train, consisting of eleven coaches left the Union depot yesterday morning at 7 o'clock sharp. While most of the coaches were filled, there was no inconvenience experienced, as such had been the precaution, that all were provided for, with convenience and comfort. Two of the coaches were locked to accommodate those who should join the excursion on the way.

On the route many additions were made and the train arrived in Tarboro filled with as joyful a crowd of innocent amusement seekers as can well be imagined. The destination being reached, the excursionists were cordially welcomed in a neat speech from Rev Mr Hundley, pastor of the Baptist Church, at Tarboro. And, by the way, it can here be asserted with propriety, that he is one of the cleverest as he is one of the most popular gentlemen to be found anywhere. The speech of welcome was responded to by Rev J J Hall, pastor of the Tabernacle Church in this city, in a splendid and appropriate manner, thanking the good people of Tarboro for their kind reception. Mayor Thompson followed Rev Mr Hall, in a speech abounding in just tributes to the people of Tarboro, for their devotion to every duty incumbent upon them, and alluding in the most complimentary terms to the spirit of enterprise and energy seen on all sides, by the development of manufacturing establishments. The speech of the mayor was a characteristic one and delivered in most eloquent style.

S S Nash, Esq, responded on behalf of Mayor Clark, to the speech of Mayor Thompson, after which N B Broughton, Esq, the admirable and greatly beloved superintendent of the Tabernacle Sunday-school made a most appropriate address, in which he laid down "the order of the day," stating that each and all could now proceed to enjoy themselves in such manner as their inclinations might suggest. These remarks were happily received and most promptly acted upon, and the cravings of hunger were looked after. Amid the beautiful shade which abounded on every side there was such a spread of all the good things of life as to tempt the most fastidious epicure, and well were they discussed by all present. Lunch being over the crowd passed the time in roaming over the beautiful town, and enjoying the kind words and greetings of its hospitable people.

Mayor Clark was not and used every effort in his power to make the excursionists feel perfectly at home. While he did not indulge, usually, in public speaking, laying no claims to oratory, it was the unanimous verdict of all present, that he cannot be excelled in the generosity which goes to make up the "big hearted" gentleman. He made all feel that they were among most cordial friends, and did much to bind the chords of friendship into a lasting tie. In fact, he was profuse in his kindness, turning over his horse and buggy for the special use of Rev Mr Hall during the day.

We met up with and made the acquaintance of many, numbered among whom may be mentioned Mr Powell, editor of the Southerner, who did the journalistic courtesies by every act of kindness in his power. Col John W Cotten extended us many cordial favors as did also Mr Sharp, one of the foremost business men of the town.

Indeed it can be truly said that all the people with whom we came in contact earnestly endeavored to make the trip of the excursionists in every way agreeable and pleasant, and well did they succeed.

After a day spent in what may be termed unalloyed enjoyment, the excursionists boarded the train about 4 o'clock "homeward bound," and arrived in Raleigh at 8:30, after one of the most delightful trips we have ever participated in.

Mr R H Bradley, chairman of the committee of arrangements, with whom was associated Messrs J M Broughton and T B Moseley, deserve special credit for their untiring zeal and earnest work in making such a complete success of the occasion. To these gentlemen can be added a large number of the school whose unremitting exertions went far towards crowning the day with all the eclat that could possibly have been expected.

Thus has ended one of those social events that go so far towards binding us together in the bonds of friendship. It will be an occasion long to be remembered, and will be the theme of many a reminiscence in the family circle. It will be long before the "trip to Tarboro" fades from the memory of those who participated. It was indeed a most welcome respite from the cares of daily life, and one that we sincerely hope may be often repeated as the years roll by. We learn that the excursion was a financial success; a statement which, of course, will add much to the gratification of the occasion.

We cannot accord too much praise to Capt W H Newell, of the Atlantic Coast Line, and Capt P J Brown, of the R & D R R, who acted as conductors. They discharged their duties in a manner that won the admiration of all.

A Delightful Party.

The Lawn Party on Post Office Green given by the King's Daughters—Lend a Hand Circle—was such a success last night that it will be continued tonight. Let everybody come. An abundant supply of ice cream will be on hand, oranges and other fruits. Come prepared to take some home to your children.

Memorial Association.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Memorial Association, was held Monday evening at the residence of Mrs J B Batchelor.

Resolutions concerning the death of Col W E Anderson were passed. Mr W C Stronach was chosen Treasurer. Messrs Peele Cowan and Ayer were continued as a committee to raise funds for the purpose of marking the graves of the Confederate dead removed from Arlington.

Personal Mention.

Mrs M. J. Ramsay has returned from Roanoke Va. accompanied by her sister Mrs. A. Pauli who will spend some time in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash left this morning to attend the commencement exercises of Littleton Female College and also a meeting of the Board of Trustees of which he is a member.
