LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements.
Raleigh Spring Bed Co—Notice
W H & R S Tucker & Co—Just Arrived.

In and Around the City.

Another splendid rain.
Boom up the 4th of July.
All quiet in police circles today.
Go to Wake Forest Commencement and have a good time.

The market is abundantly supplied with all kinds of vegetables.

The Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City is fast filling up with guests for the season.

What about an excursion to Norfolk? We hear of no announcement about it.

Raleigh should have a first class band, but just how to get one seems to be the difficulty.

Nothing of much public interest in the departments at the Capitol today.

Read the announcement of Messrs W H & R S Tucker & Co. They are foremost in low prices.

Work on West Martin Street is progressing rapidly and it will soon be one of the prettiest thoroughfares in the city.

The Oak City and National Base Ball clubs (both colored) will play a game at Athletic Park, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The contest it is expected will be a close one.

T E Phillips, Grand Patriarch, of this State, will institute Litchford Encampment, I O O F, at Odd Fellows Hall tonight. All charter members should be on hand promptly at 8 o'clock.

Peace Institute and the Agricultural and Mechanical College will both have special exhibits on the lower floor of the Teachers Assembly building during the session at Morehead City.

Commencement exercises are in progress at St Mary's School. The concert will take place tonight, but the attendance is limited to only those holding tickets of invitation. The art gallery will also be open to night for the inspection of visitors.

It is suggested that our excellent Governor ask the next General Assembly for a small appropriation towards an arsenal. This will be a good plan to get rid of the old, unsightly building in the Southwest corner of the Capitol Square.

Josephus Daniels, Esq, the accomplished editor of the State Chronicle, has been selected to deliver a memorial address, on the life and services of the late Professor Mangum, at the next commencement at Chapel Hill. The selection is a most admirable one in all respects.

There is talk of an excursion to Richmond, Va, at an early day, via Durham, Oxford and Keyville. This will be a most delightful trip to the Capital of the Old Dominion, and, will, no doubt be taken advantage of by many, if the fare is put at a low rate.

The books for listing taxes are now opened at the court house. In order to avoid a rush, it would be well to list promptly. In case there is failure to list, the penalty is quite heavy. Go and list your property at once. Messrs W D Haywood and Mills H Brown will attend to you all right.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Raleigh Spring Bed Company. They are putting up the best and neatest spring beds in this country. It should be remembered that all who give orders before the 1st of July will get them much cheaper than after that time. Call and see for yourselves at their headquarters over Jones & Powell's store on Wilmington street.

Lots of people getting ready for the mountains and sea-shore. The stay-at-home crowd will soon be lonely.

The camp grounds at Wrightsville are being put in order for the encampment of the State Guard which, it is expected will be a grander success than ever this season.

Now that we have nearly all the other modern improvements, give us some public baths. How the people would appreciate them just about now, can well be imagined.

Maj R W York, of this county, has been invited to deliver an address on the battle of Sharpsburg, with special reference to the part taken by the 6th regiment of which he was a gallant member.

Cheering accounts continue to be received at the agricultural department from all points of the State relative to the crops. The South seems to be on a boom in all respects. We have left hard times behind us.

St Johns Hospital.

A very interesting entertainment will be given at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night for the benefit of St Johns Hospital. It will include most of the fancy dances, with music of the most delightful kind. The object is a most laudable one and we hope it will be well patronized.

Our Summer Resorts.

It is most cheering to note that our mountain and seaside resorts are anticipating a heavy attendance during the summer, as the applications for accommodations are more numerous than usual. This is an excellent sign and shows that our people are at last, appreciating the fact that we have places in North Carolina, equally as conducive to health and pleasure, as elsewhere. Let us aid in building up our own resorts. Keep all the money we can at home. Our folks need it.

Encouraging.

Messrs A B Stronach and James Boylan, of the citizens committee, report that the outlook for a creditable celebration the coming forth of July is good, but that no efforts will be spared to increase the subscriptions already in sight. Much will depend upon the action of the railroads in the way of cheap rates, but it is hoped that this will be all right. Let our people enter with unanimity into the matter and we will have the best celebration we have had for many years.

Attention! Old Confederates.

HEADQUARTERS CAMP DANIEL, RALEIGH, N C, June 10, '90.

COMRADES:—Your earnest efforts are expected to raise a fund with which to meet the funeral expenses of our late comrade, Western R Rogers, who died at St John's Hospital June 9th. He was a laboring man, maimed in the battle of the Wilderness, and died leaving five children, three of whom are very young. Give what you can of our own means, but ask freely of those for whose sake he lost his arm, and with it the capacity to render such charity as we now ask needlessly. B F PARK, President Veterans' Association. J C BIRDSONG, Sec'y.

June.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Durham Sun, thus paints the beauties of the month of June all of which we endorse:

This is the time of year when young men and women put on rose-tinted glasses and look at the beautiful world with pride, and wonder and admiration. Some have left their schools—graduated—and now visions in plenty of political careers, avenues that will bring fame, fortune, honor and success. Others are in the midst of commencements, attended by proud fathers, fond mothers, light-hearted sisters and blushing sweethearts. Altogether June is a grand month.

Hillsboro Road.

Is it not about time that work was commenced on the Hillsboro road if it is to be repaired before the fair? Now is a good time to begin operation. It should be remembered, that this is the main outlet from the city to the fair grounds and hence the necessity of having it kept in good order. We hope our supervisor of roads will not delay the matter longer than absolutely necessary.

"Playing the Fool."

A very large and appreciative audience attended at Metropolitan Hall last night, to hear the Rev Thos Dixon deliver his celebrated lecture, "Playing the Fool." All agree that it was indeed an intellectual treat of the highest order, abounding in the highest style of oratory interspersed with wit and humor. The lecture occupied a little over an hour, during which time the audience can be said to have been held "spell bound." The distinguished speaker divided his subject into the following classes:

1. Original—All Round Steel Blade Fools.
2. Wooden headed Fools.
4. One eyed Fools.
4. Cross eyed Fools (those who have a distorted vision)
5. The King Fools—the fools en masse.
6. Fools for the Fun of It.
7. Mule headed Fools.
8. Fools We Love—(those who are in love.)

Mr Dixon was introduced by Governor Fowle who spoke in the highest praise of the distinguished North Carolinian

Mr Dixon left this morning for Wake Forest College, where he delivers the annual address.

Drake's Magazine.

"Tattooing at a Fine Art" in the June Drake's Magazine, is a very interesting account of the practice among the South Sea Islanders of profusely decorating their bodies with permanent color. The article is finely illustrated. "Shorty Brown's Sunday School" is a humorous illustrated sketch of life in a mining camp by Thos P Montfort. Charles Howard Shinn sends a fine character study in "Plume of Shasta, His Mine." A very funny thing in this number is C N Hood's "The Deaf Customer in a Shoe Store." Amy Elizabeth Leigh's poem, "My Neighbor's Garden" speaks good sentiment. Edward S Fowler contributes a capital article on "Sights in Havana"—illustrated by F C Drake. Lieut H D Smith's "In Peril" is a story of naval adventure told in his most exciting vein. "Jottings" are resumed this month with renewed terseness and force. "Quacks" represent all that is best in original native humor, illustrated and otherwise. $1.00 per year. DRAKE'S MAGAZINE, 11 Frankfort St., New York.

A Queer Enactment.

Who in this day and generation would believe that at any time in North Carolina, a state of slavery would have been preferred, by even the most ignorant colored person, to a condition of liberty. But, so it seems, as appears from an act of the General Assembly, passed at the session of 1858-59. As something of a curiosity we give it in full as follows: "A Bill for the Relief of Emily Hooper, of Liberia.

"Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that Emily Hooper, a negro and a citizen of the Republic of Liberia, be and she is hereby permitted voluntarily to return into a state of slavery, as the slave of her former owner, Miss Sallie Mallett, of Chapel Hill, and that this act be in force from and after the ratification thereof." (Ratified 2nd of February, 1859.)

Don't fail to visit these sales as the goods must be sold regardless of cost. NORRIS & CARTER.

We Are a One Idea'd Fool.

Judging by Mr Dixon's standard of what constitutes or makes the different kinds of fools, we have decided that we are of that class called one-eyed fools, or a person with only one idea. Mr Dixon tells us that this class of fools are dangerous, because he has but one idea and he devotes his whole time and energy to the promotion and advancement of this one thought. He has some definite object in life; some ultimate mark to reach and no obstacle or difficulty that can be overcome by human agency will deter him in his purpose. We say that we are this class of fools, and our one idea is now and has always been to lead the great army on the mercantile battle field in superiority of fabric, and in giving the greatest possible value for the least possible out-lay of money. How well we have succeeded in playing the fool on this line in Raleigh, we leave the people to say. We have always sold the best goods for less money than others do and are doing it today; then if we are fool enough to sell you goods cheaper than any one else, you would be a fool not to profit by it would'nt you?
