LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

Now for the Norfolk excursion. Splendid seasons and everybody happy—or should be.

The "glorious fourth" is rapidly approaching.

Fix up a balloon ascension for the night of the fourth of July.

All the pupils at the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind have gone home.

Go to the fancy dress exhibition to night and help out St. John's Hospital.

One township in Cabarrus county has monument $465 to a Confederate monument.

Good music and singing at the Wilmington street mission to-night, all are invited to come.

The hot weather has thrown a damper on fishing parties. Most too uncomfortable to set all day on a pond waiting for a "nibble."

Let us have the National declaration and the Charlotte declaration both read on the fourth. We can take our choice.

Now let us hear from the Railroads. If they give us cheap rates we will have a rattling celebration on the fourth of July.

The young people are conducting a meeting at the Central Methodist church. They are very interesting and all should attend.

The fourth of July committee are doing splendid. They can get all the money they want. Let us hear from the railroads. The matter is now in their hands.

The fancy dress exhibition for the benefit of St Johns Hospital will take place tonight at Metropolitan Hall. A large attendance is expected.

Ed Chambers Smith, Esq, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, has issued a call for primary meetings to be held in the different townships of the county on Saturday, June 21st, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention to take place June 28th.

Fire Works.

Mr M Bowes has been designated as manager of the fire works proposed to take place on the fourth of July and Moore square selected as the place. Mr Bowes is a first rate choice and Moore square is about the best place for the display.

Hillsboro Road.

It is announced on seemingly good authority, that work on the Hillsboro road will commence in about three weeks. It will be McAdamized and graded. Two stone crushers will be used. After this it will be a good time to consider the matter of the street car extension in that direction.

Excursion to Norfolk.

The usual summer excursion will be run this year, but, we are pleased to state, it has been arranged so as not to conflict with the celebration of the fourth of July in this city. The train will leave Raleigh June 30th and return July 2d. Capt Chevasse, who is so well known and so universally esteemed will be in charge, and full details will be given in a few days.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

BEGINNING AT $5.00 PER ROLL!—China Mattings and Japanese Mattings in fancy patterns and plain white and checks; reduced prices on some of them. We are having our best season on straw mattings—but now as the season is so far advanced we have made reductions in certain lines.

WAKE FOREST COMMENCEMENT.

A Great Gathering and Most Interesting Exercises.

This is commencement week at Wake Forest and never has there been a time when there was such an outpouring of people or more interesting ceremonies. Yesterday was what may be termed as the "big day," being the occasion of the delivery of the annual address by North Carolina's great young orator, Rev Thos Dixon, Jr. There was a very large attendance from Raleigh, and the crowd from all sections of the State was greater than ever known before. All the places of entertainment are taxed to their utmost to properly accommodate them, but, such is the interest manifested in the occasion that personal comforts are of secondary consideration.

The exercises yesterday commenced at 10:30 o'clock, and as the chapel bell sounded, a great stream of people filled the assembly hall to its utmost capacity. In the meantime Voeklers' band discoursed the sweetest strains of music. Governor Fowle was given an ovation as he entered, and soon afterwards, Rev Thos Dixon appeared amid a burst of applause. He was escorted to the stand by a marshal from each of the societies and was warmly welcomed by Dr C E Taylor, president of the College.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev Dr J W Carter, of Raleigh, who expressed gratitude for the past work of the College and prophesied a grand future for the institution.

Dr C E Taylor, president of the College then introduced Rev Thos Dixon in the happiest style. He said: In 1883 I attended a lecture given in New York by an orator of national reputation.

On the way home the lecture and the great oratorical powers of the lecturer were the subject of conversation. In talking about it I said then that there was a young man at Wake Forest College whose intellect and oratorical powers, I thought, were equal to those of the brilliant orator we had just heard. My friend doubted the statement and thought my judgment must be warped by my partiality. Today there are ten thousand people who freely acknowledge and not from partial reasons, that one of the greatest men and orators of this country is Rev Thos Dixon.

Mr Dixon then commenced his address, comments upon which will be found in the editorial column of the VISITOR today.

Last night the baccalaureate sermon was preached to a tremendous audience by Rev Dr W W Landrum, of Virginia. It was a most landable effort and was received with every mark of appreciation. There are quite a number of applicants for the position of Professor of the chair of physics rendered vacant by the resignation of Prof W H H Michael, but the selection has been postponed until July.

The late Rev Dr J S Purefoy bequeathed a sum of money to the College to establish an infirmary. This matter was before the board of trustees, but they did not seem to think that there was any pressing necessity for the infirmary, and the matter was laid over for future consideration.

The graduating class acquitted themselves today with the highest credit receiving the highest praise on all sides. The social gathering in the halls tonight promises to be unusually brilliant in all respects and a most enjoyable time can with confidence be anticipated. In a word Wake Forest College has surpassed itself in its complete triumphs this year both as regard the intellectual feast offered and in the eclat that has attended the exercises. Mr Dixon left this morning and will lecture in Goldsboro tonight.

It is refreshing to note that the general report, as gathered from gentlemen from all sections of North Carolina in attendance at the college confirms the bright prospects of our farmers. Everybody seems hopeful for a brighter day for the "Old North State."

GOV. FOWLE'S OPINION

At the conclusion of Mr Dixon's address there were calls for Governor Fowle.

He was on the rostrum and was led to the front by President Taylor.

He gracefully alluded to his admiration and partiality for Wake Forest. He said he felt like he wanted to thank God for what he had seen and heard today. He referred to the great speech just made by Mr Dixon, and declared that it was the greatest and grandest address he had ever heard from that stage, and he had heard speakers whose fame as intellectual men and orators was co extensive with this broad country. "Oh! my friends," he exclaimed, pathetically and earnestly, "if the principles which have just been set forth by your speaker could be put into practice all over this State, what a grand old commonwealth it would be. How many times do you suppose the Governor of the State would be called upon to call out the militia to quell riots. How many times would people assemble themselves in mobs, mask themselves and lay in wait to lynch their fellow man. It would never be, my friends—no; never, never never! I feel now that I but echo the sentiments of this large audience and of the people of this who's State when I say, God Bless Tom Dixon."

Acknowledgment.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to accept the hospitalities of the Commonwealth Club of Durham, during the session of the State Press Convention July 23d to 25th.

The Encampment.

Colonel F A Olds has just returned from Wrightsville, where he has been looking after arrangements for the coming encampment. The Colonel says the prospects are that the encampment this year will be a great success in all respects. There will be more companies than usual in camp, and all the arrangements are on a better footing than ever before.

Married.

Yesterday afternoon Mr Elgar Rembert and Miss Christine Saunders both of Sumter, S C, were united in marriage in the parlor at St Mary's School, Rev Bennett Smedes, officiating.

There is a bit of romance attending the marriage. It seems that the young lady when in her teens, gave the kindest attentions to Mr Rembert during a severe attack of pneumonia. As a matter of gratitude, Mr Rembert had her educated at St Mary's and a friendship arose between them which ripened into love. This resulted in the marriage. The happy couple have the best wishes of the VISITOR for their future happiness.

Personal Mention.

Bishop Lyman, has gone to Old Point, Va, to spend a short time.

Gen W P Roberts, former State Auditor, is in the city.

Col L L Polk and daughters, have returned to the city from Washington, D C.

Mrs Etta Jones, is quite sick at her residence on West street.

Mr Joseph Clements, of Waco, Texas, formerly of Wake county, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr H A Wyche, and wife nee Miss Etta Troy, are in the city visiting the family of Mrs C C McDonald.

Miss Bessie S Leak and Miss Mary Walker, of Burlington, Alamance Co, are visiting Mrs. Charles Root.

After Information.

"I say, teacher."

"Well?"

"Wasn't the fall of Adam a case of Eve's dropping too?"

Complimentary.

The Greensboro North State thus compliments one of our esteemed citizens:

Colonel Paul Faison is frequently in Greensboro, passing to and fro looking after the convicts and the contractors who have them employed.

It is to be said in high praise of Colonel Faison that he has by his energy and attention made the penitentiary self sustaining. He has not used a cent of the appropriation this year. He has a thousand convicts hired out and looks after them with as much, if not more, attention as if they were in his private business.

Such a man is hard to get in a public office.

Norris & Carter.

Those who are not attending the great closing out sales at Norris & Carter's are missing the greatest opportunity to save money. Many lines of goods are being closed out at 50 per cent less than New York cost. Dress goods at $1 per yard, being closed out at 50c per yard. Ladies cambric and muslin underwear being closed out regardless of cost. Corset covers at 19c; hosiery, corsets, white goods, laces, embroideries and notions of every description at prices that will astonish you. Don't fail to visit these sales as the goods must be sold regardless of cost.

NORRIS & CARTER.

Money Saved is Money Made.

This is a fact in all the different phases of life; for instance, in the mercantile line; if the lowest market value of nice all wool challies is 25 cents per yard, and it requires 15 yards for a dress, it cost you $3.75. Now if we sell you 15 yards of the very same brand, made at the same mills, at 18 cents per yard your dress only cost you $2.70, showing a clear saving of $1.05 which amount you have made fairly and squarely just as much so as if you had made it in any of the legitimate vocations of life. While the majority of our ladies have no occupation, yet they can in this way save many dollars, and in the long run make as many dollars by saving in proportion as the husband by his vocation. We have many things, an examination of which will show you a saving equal to the one mentioned above. We can without doubt give you in twelve months purchases a clear saving of 15 per cent over any house you have ever dealt with. We have made big reductions in all lines for summer months, at SWINDELL'S.

During the progress of a fire in Bondout, N Y, yesterday that gutted a three story brick building, the lower portion of which was occupied as a saloon, a five-months-old child of Isaac Lankasky was suffocated by smoke.
