In and Around the City.

Year half gone.
Oh! for a cool wave.
Fourth of July all the talk.
Political conventions are all the rage.
Yesterday was a scorcher, and no mistake.
The excursion for Norfolk left this morning with a considerable crowd.
It is just too hot for anything in the work line.
"Oh for a lodge in some vast wilderness; some boundless contiguity of shade."
In Justice Barbee's court Saturday evening Joseph H McAllister was sent to jail in default of bond.
People are coming from every section of the State—we mean to the grand 4th of July celebration.
Our old friend Adams offers big bargains in N C bacon, chickens, eggs and butter in today's paper. Read his ad.
Read the advertisement of Messrs Beverly & Horton. They are offering splendid coffee as a specialty and a prize of china ware with it. Call and see them.
The tennis tournament at the Soldiers' Home festival will be one of the greatest features of the occasion. Players will be here from Chapel Hill, Bingham's School, Durham and other points.
The ladies memorial Association earnestly request that all the business houses will close tomorrow evening, so that all may have an opportunity to attend the opening exercises of the Soldiers' Home fair.
We have been authorized to say that owing to the intense heat prevailing here for the past week or so, it has been impossible for the ladies to call on but few of our citizens for contributions to the lawn party for the Soldiers' Home. It is requested that all who can do so will send the contributions to Nash Square tomorrow or Wednesday.
At Central M E Church, South, yesterday, Rev Dr Black preached two good sermons, it being the occasion of the 3d quarterly conference. The extreme heat kept some of the congregation at home, but the services were well attended.
Dr Nash preached the funeral of Mr Nick Lassiter at Soapstone church yesterday to a very large congregation.
We call your attention to Yancey & Stronach's "add," in today's issue. They are offering all kinds of vehicles at a cost, and they certainly have a very large stock, more than any one would have any idea of them selling in two years, but the inducements they are offering the people will cause them to sell a good many. Give them a call and examine their stock of vehicles and harness.
Attention, Governors Guard!
You are ordered to meet in your armory tonight at 8:30 o'clock for drill. Every member is expected to be present. By order of the Captain.
S W HEWIS,
First Sergeant.

Won the Medal.
We are delighted to state that Winnie Brown, of this city, daughter of Mr Nat L Brown, won the Demorest Medal at the contest in Cary last Saturday. This is a most worthy bestowal and reflects the greatest credit upon the young lady who is only about 15 years old. We most sincerely congratulate her and hope she may reach the highest ladder in her studies.

The First of the Season.
S W Whiting, Esq, of the firm of Whiting Bros, had for dinner yesterday delicious ripe grapes and the best flavored cantaloupes. Both were raised in his garden on West Lane street. Who can beat this!

Stockholders' Meeting.
A meeting of the stockholders of the Raleigh Cotton Mills will be held at the Mayor's office Tuesday, July 10th, at 8 o'clock p m. By order of the Board of Directors.
J S WYNNE,
Secretary.

Died.
At the residence of her husband, on South Blount Street, this morning at 10 o'clock, Mrs Cora L Childress, wife of Mr T W Childress, aged 21 years. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn their loss.
The funeral will take place from the Third Baptist Church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances of the family invited to attend.

Fourth of July Excursion.
The Richmond and Danville Railroad will run an excursion train from Goldsboro to Raleigh and return July 4th, for the accommodation of parties attending the grand 4th of July celebration.
Train will leave Goldsboro at 7:45 a m, and arrive at Raleigh 9:38 a m. Returning, leave Raleigh 10 p m, arrive at Goldsboro 11:47 p m.
This will enable parties to spend the day in Raleigh and see the pyrotechnic display at night.

Special Rates.
The Richmond and Danville Railroad will sell parties attending the Democratic Judicial convention, at Greensboro, N C, tickets to that point and return at the following rates from points named. Tickets on sale July 6th to 8th inclusive good returning until and including July 11th.
Raleigh, $4.30
Durham, 2.95
Henderson, 5.20
Rates from intermediate points in same proportion.

Exchange of Courts.
Gov Fowle has authorized an exchange of courts by which Judge Connor will hold the term of Alexander court beginning, July 28th in place of Judge Brown who will hold the term of Pamlico county, commencing Nov 17th. Judge Armfield will hold the term of Catawba county July 14th. Judge Brown will hold the fall term of Duplin, beginning November 24th.

Death of Judge Wm. Shipp.
We deeply regret to announce the death of this gentleman which took place at his home in Charlotte on Saturday last, after quite a lingering illness.
Judge Shipp has filled several positions of honor and trust. In 1860, he was elected Attorney General of North Carolina. In 1881, he was appointed by Governor Jarvis as Judge of the Superior court, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Schenck, and has been on the bench ever since. His loss will be deeply felt both as an official and a citizen.

State Dental Association.
This body has completed its labors and adjourned to meet at Durham, on the first Tuesday in May 1891. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
Dr H C Herring, President, Concord; Dr J E Wyche, 1st Vice President, Kinston; Dr C A Ronnin, Jr, Secretary, Reidsville; Dr J W Hunter, Treasurer, Salem; Dr J H Durham, Essayist, Wilmington.
Drs E L Hunter and J H Durham were re-elected to membership on the State Examining Board for the term of three years.
Dr S H Hilliard was appointed Supervisor of Clinics for the ensuing year.

Attention, Confederate Veterans
The members of Junius Daniel Camp and all other Confederate Veterans are requested to meet at Metropolitan hall Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock sharp, to attend in a body the opening exercises of "The Soldiers' Home Fair."
B F PARK,
President.
J C BIRDSONG,
Secretary.

Soldiers' Home Festival Notes.
Everything is progressing most favorably for the Festival on Nash Square, for the benefit of the Confederate Soldiers' Home. Beautiful and most comfortable awnings are put up through the Square and there will be electric lights, and Chinese lanterns in abundance. In the Northeast part of the square the dancing pavilion has been arranged, and everything in readiness for the "fantastic toe" enjoyment. The Tennis Court has been admirably arranged and will be one of the most interesting features of the occasion.
Dughi's bird show consists of two hundred splendid specimens, and will add immensely to the attraction.
The concert hall in the southern section of the square near the Tennis Court has been placed in splendid condition for concerts, etc, and there are awnings for specialties in great numbers. Rustic lemonade stands have been provided, also rustic ice cream and milk shake stands.
Messrs Stronach and Olds, of the committee are receiving many replies to the numerous invitations sent out, signifying acceptance. These gentlemen are untiring in their efforts and success will undoubtedly be the reward. A very large crowd is expected to be here from many sections of the State.

Crop Bulletin.
The 10th weather crop bulletin of the North Carolina Station and Weather Service, for the week ending Friday, July 27th, is of much interest. We give the following for the central district, as reported by correspondents.
Raleigh, Wake county—On: very light shower during week. Rain needed. Cotton large and fine. Wildberries very abundant. Grapes in excellent condition. Smithfield, Johnston county—Crops doing well, but need rain, gardens especially. Highest temperature 97 degrees, lowest 63.
Selma, Johnston county—There has been no rain save a few local showers. Cotton doing as well as I ever knew it. Corn also looking well. Some days very warm. Ayersville, Stokes county—Tobacco and corn growing finely. Sorghum cane extra. Oats above the average. Pelham, Caswell county—Very hot on 22nd, 104 in the shade. Thunder clouds, lightning terrific. Hail in some places, considerable damage. Tobacco doing finely. Vegetables abundant. Clayton, Johnston county—Cotton is in good condition and blooming rapidly. The reporter (J D Dodd) had cotton blossoms on Friday, June 20th; several others reported them 22nd. This is six days earlier than last season. Salem, Forsyth county—Temperature above average, but with good rains has been favorable to crops. Jonesboro, Moore county—Weather perfect for all crops, which are in good condition. Wake Forest, Wake county—Prospects for all crops just splendid. Thermometer in the nineties. Warrenton, Warren county—General crop outlook in this section never better. Forestville, Wake county—Light rains on 24th. Crops all doing well. First cotton blossoms on 23rd. Farmers carrying cheerful faces. Macon, Warren county—All crops are looking well. Tobacco seems to be forward and in fine condition. Kittrell, Vance county—Exceptionally favorable season for tillage and growth of all crops. Prospects remarkably good.

Personal Mention.
Mr John R Ray is quite sick at his residence on Fayetteville street.
Rev J L Foster left today for Burlington, Alamance county, having received a telegram announcing that his brother, Mr Geo Foster, is very sick. He may be absent for several days.
Rev O L Stringfield, who has for the past two weeks been visiting New York and other northern cities, returned to this city yesterday evening. He reports as having had a most pleasant and profitable trip.

Our bargain and undervalue counter.—We have today displayed at this counter, a line of white, ecru and cream laces, at such low prices that you wonder why we can do it. Another bargain is a line of challees at only 24c per yard; this is just about half value for these goods. In this department we will also give you prices on glass ware, that will open your eyes. This lot of glass ware is not a few odd pieces, but a complete assortment. We want the room this kind of stock is taking up, and the prices they are now marked at, will soon clear us of what we have. Bear in mind that to go to Tucker's is to save money.

Glen Shirts, Laundered.
A few more of this celebrated brand left which we continue to sell at 75c; there are none better, they cost $1.25 per dozen and retailed for $1.25 each; C & C 4 ply linen collars, usual retail price 20c, now only 12 1/2c; boys' fine linen collars only 5c; feather weight Nainsook Shirts, custom made that costs 38c and retailed at 50c, now reduced to 35c. All of the above are rare bargains and worth your immediate attention for such goods at such prices are seldom found.
NORRIS & CARTER'S.
The 4th of July.
This year will be the day after the 3d. Don't forget or get the date mixed up. It's important to know the exact date for there is going to be lots of amusing and interesting things to see. The Big Racket Store will be here Don't forget that, if you want to buy anything now or on the 4th or after the 4th the place to buy it is the Big Racket Store. You can find just what you want there. You can buy what you want cheaper there than anywhere else in the city. If you don't live in Raleigh, when you come here go around and look at the Big Racket Store; it's right much of a circus and will interest you greatly. After looking at it if you like it have it wrapped up and carry it home with you, it will be a great benefit to you. It will learn you how to buy and sell goods cheaper than others do. If you don't want the whole thing, buy part of it; it will be cheap at SWINDELL'S.
