Senator Vance and wife will be at the Soldiers' Home Festival tonight.

The Ladies are working with all the energy possible to make the Soldiers' Home Festival a grand success. Let the people turn out in large numbers and help out.

We regret the error in the communication of Rev Dr J J Hall, of yesterday. We are glad the doctor today has corrected us; we hope this will be satisfactory.

Julian S Carr, Esq, president of the State Confederate Association has issued a card calling upon the citizens of Durham to come to the Soldiers' Home Fair. This is in full keeping with Jule Carr's great big heart.

In common with our people generally those connected with the EVENING VISITOR desire to participate in the celebration of Independence Day. There will therefore be no paper issued from this office tomorrow afternoon.

Lonnie Winston, daughter of Mrs L A Winston, died at Greensboro yesterday and will be brought to Raleigh tomorrow on early train. The burial services will be held at Oakwood Cemetery tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are invited.

The ladies of the Soldiers' Home Festival will furnish dinner for the Knights of Pythias and several other orders and companies tomorrow, and request the public to contribute as liberally as possible of chickens, hams, bread, cakes, pickles, etc. Please send to Nash Square by 10 o'clock. Every one should lend a helping hand to aid in this good cause.

OUR ZEB COMING.

Mayor Thompson received the following dispatch this morning:

RICHMOND, Va, July 3, 1890.

Mrs Vance and I will arrive this afternoon. Z B VANCE.

Post Office Notice.

Personal Mention.

Miss Maude Young returned today from a three week's visit to friends in Louisburg and Middleburg.

Mrs Jos Kreth left this morning on the 1:45 train for Baltimore to visit her daughter.

Rev J A Spright left the city today for Norfolk, Va.

Master Kit Rand arrived in the city yesterday evening. He is visiting his uncle, Mr E B Barbee, Esq.

L J Lebarbe arrived in the city today, and will take in the 4th to morrow.

Sunrise Prayer Meeting.

There will be a prayer meeting at sunrise at Central Methodist Church tomorrow. Let all the members of the congregation be present who can. The committee in charge of the 4th of July celebration request the churches to hold sunrise prayer meetings, and it is eminently proper that we should meet on the anniversary of our nation's birth, and render thanks to our father's God, as well as to our God, for His great goodness to us as a nation. L L NASH.

Our Devil's Speech.

Here we are assembled on the glorious day on which our eagle first flopped his majestic wings. A few years ago we were in the throes of desperation. The wheels of our government had stopped, the machinery was deranged, the rudder was unshipped, the boiler had burst, thunder was afloat and the river was rising. Our glorious ship of State that had been floating down the stream of time was on the point of being disastrously stranded and its harmony seriously disturbed like a bobtailed gander in a whirlpool. Finally we had to root hog or die, and here we are rushing at two forty speed towards a grand magnificent destiny. The small boy with all the American proclivities of his nature is speeding on to man's chief glory, and will finally enter on eternal liberty to all—thank you, gentlemen for your attention.

An Interesting Letter.

We have been given the privilege of reading a letter from Rev C E Gower, of Lincoln, to Rev Mr Spaight, of the Biblical Recorder, of date June 30th, 1890. Mr Gower says: "Brother J A Hoyle came in Sunday morning and helped me some. I preached Saturday night, Sunday morning and night. Had good congregations and gracious meetings. Col Davidson (the man who sold you your railroad ticket) lost his wife, the mother of eight children. The son of the other depot agent got his leg broken next morning. A telegram received here about that time, announced the killing of Mr Clarence Henderson, in McCombs, Miss, a young man highly esteemed in this place. His corpse is expected here tomorrow. Rumor says that a young man near here has just had his arm broken and a livery stable man in Gastonia had his neck broken last Saturday evening. Some new accidents or sudden deaths are reported almost every day, but there is very little sickness in Lincoln. Mr Gower says he is well, busy and happy in his new home, which is a source of much satisfaction to his many friends in Raleigh and elsewhere.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

Programme for the Grand Celebration Tomorrow.

At 10 o'clock in the morning there will begin a general parade, starting at the Centennial Graded School.

The exercises of the day will be held at a stand at the South gate of the Capitol square.

There will be an opening prayer, and a Fourth of July address will be delivered. The Declaration of Independence will be read by A D Jones, Esq.

The following are invited to occupy seats on the platform: The State officers, City officers, Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Superior Court.

The afternoon will be devoted to amusements for all. These will be on Fayetteville street, from 1 to 3 o'clock, and will comprise foot races, races by three legged men, climbing the greasy pole &c. There will also be races and exhibition drills by the colored firemen.

At 4 o'clock the white fire department will give exhibition drills and there will be a test of the water works. At 5:30 o'clock the match game of baseball, Oxford against Raleigh, at Athletic Park.

The day's pleasures will be ended by a magnificent display of fireworks at the south gate of the capitol square which will begin at 8:30 o'clock sharp.

The grand fair in aid of the Soldiers' Home will be held in Nash square during the entire time and until midnight by the Ladies' Memorial Association. At 2 o'clock an old fashioned Fourth of July dinner will be served there, with the finest barbecue as one of the specialties.

The pastors of all the churches are specially requested to hold prayer meetings at sunrise and to have the bells rang at that hour. The owners of all factories are requested to cause their whistles to blow and bells to be rung at sunrise.

A Card.

To the Editor of the VISITOR.

In your paper last evening a typographical mistake made me say something very different from what I did say. Instead of reading, "not that it expressed our opinion," it should have read, "not that it expressed AN opinion upon dancing." As I did not understand Mr Broughton's article passing judgment upon dancing, but objecting to its connection with such general and public occasions which ought to receive the hearty support of all classes.

Allow me further to say that I consider the object undertaken by the ladies of Raleigh so worthy a one, that I would not suggest, that because there is to be dancing, any one should decline giving the most liberal financial support, while regretting that the dancing feature should be included. J J HALL.
