In and Around the City.

Still hot.

The fourth is an event of the past. The crowd has left us alone in our glory.

See notice of J P H Adams, Register of Deeds.

The watermelon trade yesterday was simply enormous.

The Wake County Alliance held a long meeting in the court house yesterday.

The sunrise prayer meetings were generally well attended yesterday morning.

Lots of Durham people here yesterday, as well as from other sections of the State.

C R Spikes was committed to jail yesterday by Justice Barbee for assault attempt to commit rape.

Alex Barnett was committed to jail yesterday by the mayor for an affray—use of deadly weapon.

The beautiful speech of Gov Fowle yesterday is the subject of much commendation. It was a splendid specimen of patriotism and oratory.

Senator Vance was visibly affected yesterday, when alluding to the long time he resided in Raleigh. He said our city felt like his home.

Did you see those beautiful blocks of ice placed at the corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets yesterday by Messrs Leach & Andrews? Did you notice the bouquets of beautiful flowers enclosed in them?

Rev W P Fife will stop over in Raleigh Monday night on his way to Canada and will conduct services at the Union Mission. All his friends and the public invited to be present. Services will begin at 8 o'clock.

Gov Fowle has appointed the following directors of the North Carolina Railroad: J L Morehead, A Burwell, R W Thomas, T F Kluttz, M A Augier, W H Pace, B Cameron, D Mac Rae, Armistead Jones, Esq., was appointed State's proxy.

A little colored girl about five years old was picked up on our streets this morning about 2 o'clock by our police. She could give no account of herself whatever. After some considerable enquiry it was ascertained that the parents lived near Neuse in this county. A relative came for her.

Don't forget the grand excursion to Winston Salem, July 15th. Leaves Raleigh 6:28 a.m., arrive at Winston Salem 10:14; returning leave Winston 6:20 p.m., arrive at Raleigh 10:37 p.m.; special cars for ladies. Go by all means, electric street cars and mountain scenery, one of the prettiest and liveliest towns in the State. The best of order will prevail.

Fine Melons.

M A Parker received on yesterday a car load of the finest melons yet received in this city. They are for sale today and tonight at J R Ferrell & Co., Grausman & Rosenthal, Barbee & Pope, Mann & Co., Terrell & Mosely, A E Jordan, J C Marcom, E V Denton, Crowder & Rand, also at Jones & Powell's ice house.

W H & R S Tucker & Co.

A Supplemental lot of those 1400 Dress Lawns at 10c. They are special values.

Inhuman Conduct.

On yesterday while the last sad rights were being performed over the remains of a little boy in the southeastern portion of the city, his inhuman father was too drunk to be present. This is too bad for a Christian community like ours

Mayor's Court.

His Honor A A Thompson presiding: Two parties for being drunk and down were arraigned; His Honor taking into consideration that it was the effect of being over patriotic on the 4th of July, they were reprimanded and discharged. One party for being drunk and disorderly was fined $1 and costs.

Closed.

The Soldiers' Home Festival closed last night. We deeply regret that the rainy weather to some extent, interfered with the entertainment, but, nevertheless the net receipts, we are reliably informed have been between $600 and $700. This is a most creditable showing under the circumstances and the highest praise is due to the noble ladies and others who took part in the entertainment.

Congressional Convention.

The following is the number of votes to which each county is entitled in this the 4th Congressional District at the Congressional Convention to be held at Durham, July 24th.

Alamance 35, Chatham 50, Durham 36, Franklin 44, Johnston 60, Nash 43, Orange 32, Wake 92. Total 392.

One hundred and ninety seven votes are necessary to a choice.

To-morrow, Sunday afternoon, at Metropolitan Hall at 5 p. m., Rev Dr J J Hall, will preach a sermon to the Odd Fellows of Raleigh. Of course the public generally are earnestly invited to attend the services. While the intrinsic virtues of this great brotherhood cannot be thoroughly known by the outside world, enough is known to readily conclude that the order is a power for good in the land.

Statistics tell us that $10,000 per day is expended for the relief of the distressed, the care of the sick, burying of the dead and educating the orphans of our land; still this is but a little of the intrinsic virtues of this noble institution.

The order is making rapid strides in our city as well as elsewhere and what a glorious country we would have if our men and women all would worthily live under the mandates of the three links.

Dr Hall being a well versed member of the order will no doubt do the subject justice on to-morrow afternoon.

Personal Mention.

Rev Dr N B Cobb passed through the city today on his way to Warren Plains. He paid us a very pleasant call and we were pleased to see him looking so well.

Joseph McAllister was released from jail day before yesterday under bond.

Mr. Joel D. Whitaker, of Fort Payne, Ala., is in the city visiting friends.

Rev J L Foster returned last evening from Burlington and reports his brother improving, but still very feeble.

We were glad to see in the city yesterday our esteemed friend, Dr J M Worth, of Randolph county former Treasurer of North Carolina. The Dr while looking some older, is in better health than we had expected to see him. We hope a long lease of life is yet before him.

We are glad to learn that the Hon Julian S Carr will commence to reside in the city of Raleigh about the first of the year 1893. He was here yesterday looking around.

Prof Eugene Branson returned from Morehead yesterday evening and will spend a few days with his parents in this city, after which he has an engagement in Greenville, S C From there he will visit Inter-State Normal School at Asheville where he is under an engagement to deliver a course of his lectures on Training and Methods.

H L Watson Esq., arrived in the city on July the 3rd and is the guest of Hon J C Scarborough, on South Bloodworth street. Mr Watson is the Treasurer of the Thomasville Orphanage. He says the unusual amount of sickness they have had there is passing away, and that at present very few are sick.

C B Edwards Esq., and his brothers J F and Walter E Edwards left for Morehead City today.

Miss Sallie Richardson, of Mark's Creek township, who has been visiting Miss Amanda Harris, on east Martin street, left for her home this morning.

Miss Robena Atkinson, one of Selma's most accomplished and lovdaughters is visiting the family of Dr. J. B. Dunn, 124 Hillsboro street.

Rev N S Jones returned home yesterday from an extended and delightful trip to Morehead, Southport and Wrightsville. He reports a grand time, sailing, fishing, turtle hunting &c; says it's big fun to find a huge turtle nesting on the beach, and have him take you for a ride back to old ocean. If you want some solid fun go turtleing some moonlight night on the beach.

Prof E McK Goodwin, elect president of Wake County Alliance instead of Mr Upchurch as stated in morning papers.

Labor Statistics.

We are under obligations to Hon J C Scarborough, commissioner, for a copy of the third annual report of labor statistics for the year 1889. The report, in accordance with the statute is made to his Excellency, Daniel G Fowle, Governor of North Carolina, Commissioner Scarborough says these reports have had a wide circulation in the various States of the Union and in Europe, and calls are now on file from various quarters for the present report. The subjects embraced are as follows:

Agricultural Statistics, Public Roads Reports and Views of Physicians, Financial, Moral and Educational condition of laboring people, Reports and views of physicians, Reports of mechanics and other laborers. The Commissioner says, as the General Assembly is not in session, he defers suggestions on the state of the bureau until the report of 1890.

It is evident that the report is the result of much care and untiring industry, for which Commissioner Scarborough will be entitled to the thanks of the people of North Carolina. He has proven a most efficient and valuable officer.
