LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements. Chas. D. Upchurch—Notice.

In and Around the City.

No break yet in the heat. Paint it—the market house. Farmers now say that a gentle rain is needed. Watermelons getting plentiful and cheaper.

See legal notice of Chas. D. Upchurch, Clerk of the Superior Court. The thermometer is climbing Higher up the golden stair; If there is any hotter country, Shall we know each other there?

Oh, Mr. Mayor: You are the special member of the market house committee. Please don't forget to recommend a coat of paint for the building. They will take your advice about it. It has been settled that the Soldiers' Home Festival will be repeated in October next, during our State Fair. From now out, let everybody that has the welfare of the disabled ex-Confederate Soldiers at heart, work to make a grand success of it. The ladies have done their duty nobly, and if the people will stand by them, a large fund can be raised.

Memorial Resolutions.
The attendants of the North Carolina Insane Asylum, at a special meeting on the evening of July 8th, 1890, adopted the following tribute of respect to the memory of their deceased friend, and former associate, Mr. E. M. Ferrell.
In his death, his family has lost a son, brother and husband, we, a friend worthy of emulation.
He was a pious and Christian young man, his marked characteristics were truth and moral courage. He was always a worker, never complained of the excessive work assigned him, but cheerfully performed his duties. He bore the evils of life without repining or complaining against the providence of God.
His family will mourn, as is natural, but may their grief be softened by the rainbow of hope which encircles the tomb.
We desire to record by formal resolutions—
1st. That, in the death of our friend Mr. E. M. Ferrell, a severe affliction has fallen, not only upon his family, but upon us also, with whom he labored so faithfully.
2nd. That, we tender to his bereaved family, this expression of our sympathy in this, their day of trial and sorrow.
3rd. That, we send a copy of these resolutions to the parents and wife of the deceased.
4th. That we inscribe a page to his memory in our record, and send a copy to the DAILY EVENING VISITOR for publication.

Very Respectfully,
J. A. TUCKER,
J. A. NORWOOD,
W. J. CRUTCHFIELD,
B. P. PLEASANTS,
J. W. GARNER.

Justice's Court.
In Justice Wesley Whitaker's court this morning, the following business was transacted: Alex Long, for trespass was sent to the work house.
Thos. Curtis, failing to provide for his family, was sent to the work house.
Sol. Young, on a peace warrant, was put under bond to keep the peace for six months. This case was caused from a rupture between the pastor of a colored church and the defendant. It seems that the pastor, Rev. K. C. Holt, said some hard things, at which Young called him to account the next day, coupled with threats which called forth the warrant.

Appointment.
In accordance with the advice of the Attorney General, the Governor, yesterday appointed Judge Spier Whitaker to hold Rookingham Court commencing July 23d, and Stokes Court commencing August 4th.

Greensboro Female College.
The directors of this institution at their meeting in Greensboro last Monday, selected Dr. B. F. Dixon, Superintendent of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, as President in place of Dr. T. M. Jones, deceased. The appointment is a most excellent one in all respects, and will be highly endorsed by the friends of the college, and the public generally.

Time Expired.
On the 1st inst., the provisions of the Funding act, under which persons were allowed to fund old N. C. six per cent bonds for the new four per cent consols, expired by limitation. There are still outstanding $1,600,000, the holders of which are unknown. It is a matter of doubt whether the next legislature will extend the act.

Death.
The many friends of Mrs. Narcissa Allen, wife of Sol. J. Allen, Esq., a former citizen of this city, will regret to learn of her death which occurred at the residence of her husband in Oak Grove township, Wake county, on the 3rd inst. We have known her since our boyhood and known her to be a most estimable christian lady. The VISITOR extends its heartfelt sympathies to her husband and many friends.

Much of his life was spent in railroad service on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, the Piedmont Air Line, and other roads. Murder at Murphy.
Asheville Citizen.
Mr. A. H. Isbell, who has just returned from Murphy is authority for the following account of a murder which occurred there. A man named Gould was stabbed by his wife Monday, and died Wednesday. He and his wife had often quarreled and fought while under the influence of liquor, and Monday during one of the difficulties, he knocked his wife down with a stick. The woman jumped up and rushed at him with a stiletto, stabbing him in the abdomen. Mrs. Gould will be held until investigation is made. Public sentiment is divided on the guilt of the woman. Gould and his wife had been in Murphy for about a year having moved from London, England, their former home.
