A meeting of the stockholders of the Raleigh Cotton Mills, will take place at Mayor's office to night. It is desired that those who cannot attend, will call on the Secretary and get proxies.

Married.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the town of Dunn, Harnett county, Mr. Andrew B. Rand was united in marriage to Miss Callie Vestal. The VISITOR offers its most sincere congratulations.

Congressional Nomination.

The convention of the 5th district, at Greensboro, yesterday, nominated Capt. A. H. A. Williams, of Oxford, as the democratic candidate for Congress. Mr. Williams was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 213 out of 311.

Terrible Cyclone.

A dispatch received here, yesterday, says that a terrible cyclone prevailed at Muscatine, Iowa. Great damage has been done in the city and surrounding country. Many homes both here and on the plantations were demolished. The loss of life is appalling. Reports thus far received show over seven hundred persons killed.

Muscatine is in Iowa on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad on the Mississippi river, and has about 9,000 people.

A Good Record.

During the career of Rev. Dr. Jones, late President of the Greensboro Female College, he had more than three thousand young ladies under his charge, and out of this number four hundred and ninety three were graduates. This is a splendid showing and a record of which but few can boast.

The World's Fair.

Our highly esteemed citizen, Col. A. B. Andrews, who has recently returned from Chicago, where he went as a commissioner from North Carolina to attend the meeting of the committee, is enthusiastic over the prospects. The Colonel thinks that North Carolina should take action to place herself in line with the other States in the matter of contributing to the success of the fair. We most earnestly hope, that the suggestion of Col. Andrews for our legislature to make a suitable appropriation, will be favorably considered. It will be the means of placing the great resources of our State prominently before the world, and will invite such immigration as will tend to build up our varied enterprises. We hope when the general assembly meets that Col. Andrews will give his views on the subject. There is no gentleman in North Carolina, whose opinion is entitled to more consideration on all matters affecting the interest of North Carolina.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Chas. K. Lewis, son of Mr. R. G. Lewis, who has been here for some days visiting relatives, returned to his home at Fort Payne, Ala., yesterday.

Mrs. Ellington, wife of Rev. John F. Ellington, of Clayton, is quite sick and not expected to live. Her son, Mr. Jos. C. Ellington, of this city, left today to attend her bedside.

Mr. G. M. Spence, 114 South Person St., who has been quite sick for several weeks, we are glad to learn is improving.

Rev. A. R. Raven is in the city, stopping at Mr. C. D. Upchurch's.

Rev. Dr. Durham's wife, son and daughter left today for Bon Air, Va., to spend the summer.

Mr. Wallace Riddick passed through the city yesterday on his way home at Wake Forest.

Miss Hattie Mendenhall, of Greensboro, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. H. H. Crocker, on E. Hargett street.

Prof. D. L. Ellis, formerly of this city, now principal of Nashville Collegiate Institute, is in the city spending a few days with his mother and father.

Ed. Sholar, Esq., formerly bookkeeper for Norris & Carter, has a good position as auditor of the Hazard Powder Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. A. L. Sears until recently traveling salesman for the Oak City Manufacturing Company, of this city, has accepted a similar position with the Charlotte Clothing Company of Charlotte, N. C., one of the largest concerns of the kind in the south. Mr. Sears is a Wake county boy and we are glad to hear of his promotion.

Mr. Logan D. Terrell, son of S. W. Terrell, Esq., of Rolesville, Wake county, is now occupying a splendid position in Denver, Colorado. We are glad to learn of his prosperity.

Logan is a clever boy and his many friends here will be pleased to hear of his prosperity.

S. W. Terrell, Esq., Mayor of the town of Rolesville, Wake county, was in the city today. He reports the crops in his section as very promising, but needing rain; that wheat was very poor; that he has been threshing for some weeks, and that the yield is only about from 3 to 5 to one.

In order to close out stock of clothing, underwear, etc, special inducements are being offered at D. S. Watt's.

J. S. WYNNE,

POLITICAL TALK.

Figuring For The County Offices.

These are long hot days; business is not very brisk, and the watermelon and cantaloupe trade is just opening. Its a good time to talk if you can find a shady place where the breeze will occasionally strike. In hunting for such a spot we fall in with quite a number of groups during the day.

During the forenoon of yesterday the conversation was devoted to the congressional convention at Greensboro. By three o'clock the news of Baldy William's nomination as the candidate selected for the 5th district settled that matter and Wake county affairs were taken up as unfinished business.

The burden of determination on the part of democratic politicians seemed to be turned on Capt. Chas. D. Upchurch, who has so long enjoyed the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Wake County. It's a fat office with big pay and there are plenty of fellows that want it. "Charlie Upchurch is a hard man to buck against" is the general expression. He has made an efficient officer, and is just as clever as it is possible to be. It don't make any difference whether its a Baptist Union Meeting at Holly Springs or a Democratic Barbecue or a Soldiers' Home Festival, you will find him on hand, and if a collection is taken up he will be as liberal as the best of them.

Prof. E. M. Goodwin would like to be the clerk of Wake county, and he really believes that he can come as near getting the place as anybody. He "stands in" with the Alliance brethren, and is encouraged very much in that direction.

But John Thompson is an old hand at the business and commenced the race for the clerk's place some time ago, and it is thought is in the lead for the nomination. Everybody in the county knows him and in this he has great advantage. They say Mr. Thompson fully believes he can get more votes than Charlie Upchurch. In the meantime Clerk Upchurch smiles and keeps sweet and declares that he is really uneasy, but somehow feels that he will be re-elected.

There are quite a number of candidates after Sheriff Rowan Rogers. He too has a good office, and yet, nobody can recollect a sheriff that ever made any money out of the office. In fact most of them have come out behind. Capt. Mack W. Page, of Morrisville, is not at all discouraged by his defeat at last election and is making a hard drive for the nomination this time. That he would make a good officer nobody doubts, and he stands a good chance for success.

W. N. Snelling, Esq., of Raleigh, is pushing towards the office of Register of Deeds, and his friends feel very little doubt about his nomination by the Democratic Convention. "Buck Adams" the present incumbent is a very quiet man but there are very few men that can beat him electioneering, and although there are kickers against him in his own party he generally manages to get their votes.

The most quiet man in the court house is Lewis O. Lougee, the County Treasurer. The Republicans elected their man two years ago but he couldn't give the bond, and Mr. Lougee the democratic candidate was elected by the County Commissioners. He has made a very acceptable officer to all parties, and with a bond of $170,000 staring them in the face nobody is after his place. It is quite probable that he will have no opposition.

We will hunt some more shady places and see who are talked of for the legislature.

In consequence of important well planned merchandise movements maturing, we will be enabled to make each day of July a notable period of bargain securing.

A Matrimonial Mishap.

There is considerable sensation in the community caused by rumor of a matrimonial event which was to have taken place yesterday afternoon in Johnston county between parties well known. It seems, however, that the would be groom on arriving at the place where the proposed marriage was to have taken place found to his utter consternation and surprise that the fair lady had disappeared in company with his nephew. The old adage that there is many a "slip between the cup and lip" comes in well here. For fear that we may not be properly posted in the matter, the names of the parties are for the present withheld. In due time however, we suppose the plain statement of the case may crop out.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Onions, Irish potatoes, snow flake hominy and fresh eggs. R. H. Womble.

UNUSUAL BARGAINS IN GLASS WARE.—We want every lady in Raleigh to see at what low prices we are selling all kinds of Glass Ware. This is not gift enterprise stuff, nor a few odd pieces marked down to get clear of, but a complete assortment of desirable wares at lower prices than the same has ever been offered at in this city. We quote a few prices.

Berry Dishes,	10 cts.
Ice Cream Dishes,	3 "
Shaker Salts,	3 "
8 in. Bowles,	15 "
3 Bottle Castors,	25 "
7 Piece Set,	50 "

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

Do you realize how far quality has got ahead of price in reasonable dry goods? It will pay you to investigate at McKimmon, Moseley & McGee's.

We Have About 50

Trunks in stock which we will sell cheaper than we have ever sold any to close out the entire stock before September. We want to sell every trunk, valise and hand bag in our store before fall so that we shall have the room to put in one of the largest stocks of nice trunks ever brought to the city. If you need a trunk or valise we will sell it to you cheap. We have almost any style you could wish and if you are going to buy in the next three or four weeks come and look at our stock and prices. We do not hold them for any profit but if you will pay as much as they cost us delivered, you can get one. We don't want you to think now that we are selling anything for less than cost, for we don't do business that way, we simply intend to sell out what trunks and valises we have and just so they bring us what they cost us to deliver, we are satisfied. We simply invite you to see these if you need one; if not you need not go to any expense to see them, at Swindell's.

Struck by Lightning.

Atlanta Journal. The lightning has played some very queer antics around Decatur recently.

A very serious accident befell the orphan's home that was founded and is supported by the Rev. Sam Jones.

The children were at dinner when a bolt fell upon the tower of the building. All were terribly frightened, but it was soon found that no one had been hurt.

The tower, however, had been splintered and some damage had been done to the rest of the house.
