After.

After the shower, the tranquil sun; After the snow, the emerald leaves; Silver stars when the day is done; After the harvest, golden sheaves.

After the clouds, the violet sky; After the tempest, the lull of waves Quiet woods when the wind go by; After the battle, peaceful graves.

After the knell, the wedding bells, After the bul, the radiant rose; Joyful greetings from sad farewells; After our weeping, sweet repose.

After the burden, the blissful meed; After the flight, the downy nest; After the furrow, the waking seed; After the thadowy river-rest!

Bro. Diaz's Arrest in Cuba.

Bib. Recorder, July 16th. We are just in receipt of the following letter from Bro. Diaz.

We had not before understood that Bro. Diaz had been released upon bond. We supposed his release had been unconditional. We do not understand why others of his friends in Havana do not go on his 1 ond unless it be that the bondsman must live in the judicial district where the case is to be tried.

Guanabaccoa is in a different district from Havana.

Our present information is so meagre and the communication is so low that we are at a loss what steps to take for his release.

The absence of both Secretary of State and his first assistant from Washington stops all action in that direction until their return.

Our letters written to Havana, asking full information, have not yet been answered. We have but the two letters from Bro. Diaz himself.

Our brethren everywhere may be assured that the Board will lo everything in its power to the speedy release of Bro. Diaz and his fellow prisoners, and protect the rights of our missionaries in Cuba. Meantime let us be mindful of the injunction, "Remember those that are in bonds as bound with them."

Let prayer be made for our imprisoned brethren, which will be answered either in their liberation or in grace to sustain the heavy trials that have befallen them.

I. T. TICHENOR. Atlanta, Ga., July 11, 1890.

sul is waiting the case be over. That is all. The government here want deceive him. The man that gave the bail for me is going to take back. He want to sell his home today, and I must go to the jail again. My heart is broken, but I trust in the Lord, and remember with pleasure those beautiful works: Blessed are they who suffer persecution for righteousness' sake,-those that confess me on earth 1 will confess them in heaven. I suffer with patience this trial, but can't help being sorry and afflicted in my spirit, and I only say: Lord, may this cup be over, but I obey Thee; Thy will be done in us. Comfort my soul, Lord Jesus.

Good bye, my dear brother. Pray for the prisoners, and ask the Lord to comfort us and give us strength. My brethren in prison are well. We comfort ourselves when we read the Bible and have prayers; 1 never felt before the prayers as I feel now. How sweet. they are! What beautiful perfume they have! We receive the answer in our hearts right away. Blessed are those who are Christians, for they are only people that have this privilege Good bye again. The, saints of Cuba send their love to you and to all our friends. Yours,

DIAZ.

The compromise silver bill which has passed both houses of Congress and has already been signed by the Pr. sident does not recognize silver as a money metal equally with gold, but keeps the latter in the post of honor. It requires the purchase monthly by the government of 4,500,000 ounces of silver at the market price, which is now 1071, though a rise is expected. For these silver purchases legal tentender certificates will be issued and will be added to the circulating medium. The silver purchased may be coined into silver standard dollars at the rate of $2,000,000 per month,
