LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements.

Thomas H. Briggs & Sons—Baby Carriages.
W. G. Clements—Competitive Examination.
Beyers & Horton—Gold Watch and Chain Given Away.

In and Around the City.

Paint the market.
Clean up your premises.
Ground thoroughly wet.
Market full of every thing good to eat in season.

Hon. D. W. Bains returned to the city this evening from attending the District Conference at Henderson.

Sheriff James B. Smith, of Cumberland county, brought three convicts to the penitentiary today.

The address of Mr. S. J. Betts, formerly of this city, is No. 60 Conseylea street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

There will be a "Demorest Medal Contest at Edenton Street Sunday school room, Tuesday evening, July 29th. Public invited.

"Notes of the week" by "Siftings," were received too late for publication in this issue; they will appear next Monday.

Read the advertisement of Messrs. Thomas H. Briggs & Sons. They are offering splendid inducements in the way of children's carriages. Call and secure one at cost.

The side walk on the south side of Hargett, between Wilmington and Blount streets should be repaired at once. It is in a most horrible condition, and is absolutely dangerous to pedestrians at night.

See notice of Mr. W. G. Clements, County Superintendent of Public Instruction relative to a competitive examination for scholarships in Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Remember that the sermon of Rev. J. J. Hall at the Baptist Tabernacle tomorrow night will be devoted to the interests of the working men. Let there be a large attendance.

Mrs. Solomon King and G. M. Spence, Esq., on Person street, who have been quite sick, we are glad to say are much improved; also Andrew King Esq., on Morgan street who has been quite sick is rapidly improving.

The mountain may not come to Mahomet, but Mahomet might go to the mountain, if an earnest effort were made. Suppose there should be an effort made to build a road from Raleigh to Springhope. It might work well.

Rev. J. L. Foster, pastor of the Christian Church of this city, has gone to Burlington, Alamance county. From thence he will go to Bethlehem, North Carolina, to attend the Sunday school convention of the Christian denomination which meets at that place, Wednesday, July 30th.

Seth Nowell, one of Raleigh's old draymen, commenced draying in this city in 1863, and has only lost fifteen working days in that time and most of them he was out of the city. Where is the town that can show such a record for health. He is one of Oberlin's most respected and prosperous colored men, and may be continue to enjoy such blessings for many years to come.

New Advertisements.

Read the advertisement of Messrs. Beyers & Horton. These gentlemen offer a fine chance to get a nice gold watch and chain.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of our friend "Dave" Rosenthal who is offering the Supreme Sale of the season. There is no place in the State at which those in need of clothing can be furnished at cheaper rates. "Dave" will wait on you in first class style. Give him a call.

Farmers' Institutes.

Col. Robinson, Col. Holliday and Prof. Ma-sey will leave on next Monday for Mount Holly to attend the N. C. Horticultural grape fair, where they will hold a Farmers' Institute for two days. They will address the farmers upon the subject of Agriculture and Horticulture.

From there they will visit about a dozen of the western counties and hold a Farmer's Institute for two days in each of the counties they visit. We wish the gentlemen a pleasant visit and that they may be able to accomplish much good.

Officers Elected.

The North Carolina Press Association has elected the following officers:

President—J. P. Caldwell.
First Vice-President S. A. Ashe;
2nd Vice President W. W. Scott, Jr.;
3rd Vice-President, Robert Haydn.
Secretary and Treasurer—J. B. Sherrill.

The following executive committee was appointed: V. W. Long, H. A. London, Jr. Josephus Daniels, F. B. Eldridge, R. A. Deal.

E. E. Hilliard—Orator.
H. E. Wall—Poet.

W. E. Murchison—Historian.
The next session will be held at Winston-Salem.

How Grady Got an Advertisement.

Years ago, when Henry Grady was struggling to bring the Rome Commercial into front ranks, he called one day and asked the Rounsaville Bros. for an advertisement. J. W. Rounsaville replied: "Why, Mr. Grady, nobody reads your paper; it is of no use to advertise in it." He went to his office and wrote the following advertisement, which appeared next morning in the Commercial:

WANTED—FIFTY CATS. Liberal price for same. Apply to ROUNSAVILLE BROS.

Well, the picture that presented itself at Rounsaville's corner next morning beggars description. Boys of all ages and sizes—boys of all tints, from the fair haired youth to the sable Ethiopian—barefoot boys and ragged boys—redheaded boys, freckle faced boys—town boys and country boys—boys from all parts of Floyd county, blocked up the sidewalk, doorways and streets with boys full of cats—cats of every description, name and order—house cats, yard cats—barn cats, church cats—fat cats and lean cats—honest cats and thievish cats. Well, to make a long story short, the Rounsavilles told Mr. Grady to reserve a column for their advertisement as long as his paper continued.

A Pleasant Entertainment.

The entertainment at the First Presbyterian Church Mission Chapel came off last night and in every way was a successful and enjoyable affair. The following scholars took a part in the exercises: Misses Lela and Addie Pleasants, Miss Addie Rogers, Miss Evie Kirkland, Miss Lula Horton, Miss Minnie Thomas, Master Arthur Kirkland and Gaither Whiting.

There was a prize offered for the one who recited the best, and the committee awarded it to Miss Lela Pleasants.

In a few pleasant words Mr. S. W. Whiting presented a beautiful basket of grapes to Miss Pleasants and also the same to Mr. Card as a token of appreciation for his faithful services as sexton.

Refreshments were then in order and those present, young and old enjoyed a rich treat of ice cream sherbet, cakes and luscious grapes in the greatest abundance. The entertainment in spite of the inclement weather was a success and everybody feasted and enjoyed themselves to their fullest extent.

For rheumatism, dyspepsia, indigestion, catarrh, general debility, and all blood and bronchial troubles, Royal Germetour, has no equal. Try it. A. E. JORDAN, Agent.

Our Population.

The Executive Committee of the North Carolina State Fair has offered a premium of $25 in gold to the person who makes the nearest estimate to the population of the State, as shown by the present census. The following is the form agreed upon:

Number of people in North Carolina.

Name of person making estimate.

Post office.

Address box 53,
Raleigh, N. C.

A two cent stamp must accompany each estimate for registration.

Twinklings.

"So you were known as Jay Gould when you lived on the earth?"

"Yes, Mr. Croesus, I thought I'd like to meet you and—"

"Sorry to disoblige you Mr. Gould, but I haven't got a cent. Didn't bring any of mine with me, either."—Chicago Tribune.

Jenks—Of all mean, grasping men I think Jenks is the worst. I don't believe he ever gets his thoughts off of dollars and cents.

Blinks—What has he been doing?"
Jinks—He has been asking me for a paltry ten dollars he borrowed from me some years ago.—N. Y. Weekly.

"Land, ho," shouted the lookout.
"Just listen to that," said Algy.
"Did any one ever see a hoe that wasn't a land hoe?"

"Why, certainly," said Pauline.
"You can see several feet of water hose right on board."—Terre Haute Express.

She. "If capital punishment must be, I certainly favor electricity." He. —"Oh! then that is to say you prefer currents to raisins."

Died.

William Underhill, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Marks Creek Township, Wake county died suddenly while out in his field near his residence yesterday morning. He was for more than a quarter of a century a consistent member of Hephzibah Baptist church and was highly respected in the community where he lived. We extend our sympathy to the family in their bereavement.

Mrs. Carrie Lynn, of Durham, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. She was buried this evening at the old residence of James Lynn, Wake county. She was the wife of Wm. Lynn, and daughter of Willis S. Thymson, of this county, one of Wake county's oldest and most respected families in the State. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church for many years. The Visitor extends its warmest sympathies to the family and friends.

Will You Look at It?

Our line of jewelry, it is a handsome collection of bright and nobby styles of all the latest goods in this line. Since we have opened this department we have had gratifying success, and it induces us to still increase the line. We have a large line of new designs that will be here early the coming week. We invite you to inspect our line for we believe we shall be able to give you some prices on some elegant designs that you can not duplicate elsewhere; at any rate it will be but little trouble for you to see our line before you purchase; if we do not suit you in all respects it won't be our fault. So much for jewelry. Now if you want to buy a nice suit of clothes, a nice dress, a fine pair of shoes, a nobby hat, or anything else in the dry goods line, why we can give you just as big a bargain on any of these as we can in the jewelry line. Come and try us at
