Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

Boycott or no boycott.
Quiet reigns, in political circles.
Bad weather for grape shippers.
The next big gathering is the reunion of the Confederate Veterans' Association at Pittsboro, August 7th.
Col. L. L. Polk will deliver an address at Metropolitan Hall in this city tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A Dughi left Saturday evening to attend the Mt. Holly Grape Fair. He expects to be at home on Saturday next.

The Demorest Medal Contest at Edenton Street Sunday school room tomorrow night, will be an interesting occasion.

Next in political order will be the Democratic County Nominating Convention, and the fun will commence in earnest.

Meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, A. F. and A. M., will be held tonight at 8:15 o'clock. Visiting brethren invited.

Very heavy rain yesterday afternoon. Creeks all high, and Neuse river will soon be on the rampage no doubt.

Our State Library has become a popular resort for all lovers of music. Go when you may, and you will hear a Bird-song.

We have heard flying rumors of a contemplated change in the ownership of our street railway. We of course, give them for what they are worth.

Why are the people of the 4th Congressional District like some fastidious boarders at hotels? Because they are clamorous after Bunn's. [Copy righted.]

The rains on Friday no doubt saved the lives of two thirds of the Press gang assembled in the City of Durham on that day. They could not attend the barbecue prepared for them by Col. J. S. Carr. They were already feasted by gallant Durham, till their eyes stuck out.

Henry R. Bryan, Esq., who has recently been selected as the democratic nominee for Judge in the Second Judicial District was a Raleigh boy, raised and reared among us, a noble son of a noble sire. This is another evidence that our boys are full of true grit and energy. They make their mark in life every time, when the chance offers.

The wet spell has put the roads leading into the city in a bad condition. This is especially the case with the Hillsboro and Avenel Ferry roads now being worked and necessarily left in an unfinished condition. Nothing can be done however, to remedy the evil until the weather clears up.

Drake's Magazine for August opens with a charming paper on Zuni, the Pueblo city of New Mexico, by Charles F. Lummis, illustrated by F. C. Drake. Philip Chambell has a strange, wierd story in this number, called "The Discovery." "Mri's Reformation," by Julia Ditto Young, is a fine bit of character sketch. Manda L Crocker contributes an entertaining account of a visit to "The Devil's Cave" at McMinnville, Tenn. "His Ideal," by "Becky Olympus Smith," is a funny thing, laughably told. "Mrs. Larkin's Growler" is rather out of the usual run. J. P. Ritter sends a pithy paper on "The Mnemonic Faculty." "Jottings" are as crisp as ever, and the "quack" department more than usually brilliant. This Magazine, at the low price of $1.00 per year, has secured a large clientele in England, as well as in America. Published at 11 Frankfort Street, New York City.

We had the pleasure of an interview with Col. L. L. Polk this morning. He is very hopeful of the future and speaks in the most confident manner of the success of the great principles he advocates. He thinks the time has come when principles should be the guide instead of men.

County Convention.

The Wake County Democratic Convention to nominate county officers, will be held in Raleigh on Saturday, August the 16th at 12 o'clock m. Primaries in each township in the county and ward in the city will be held on Saturday, August 9th to elect delegates to the county convention.

I. O. O. F.

There will be a regular meeting of Manteo Lodge, No. 8, tomorrow (Tuesday) night at 8 o'clock. Work in the initiatory degree. The members are earnestly requested to attend and by their presence encourage the new degree staff. Candidates for the initiatory degree will please remember the hour—8 o'clock.

Personal Mention.

Mr. A. C. Miley, representing the Baugh & Sons Company, manufacturers and importers of fertilizers, of Norfolk, Va., was in the city today.

Mr. J. D. Boushall, chief clerk to State Auditor Sanderlin, left this morning for Camden county, where he will spend a few days.

Perseverance.

A gentleman from R. Cat, this county was in the city yesterday. He said crops were good; his clover very fine. He had been in the habit of raising geese, but owing to their depredations on his clover he determined to get rid of them, so he killed all of them except one old gander. The holes in the fences were all fixed up. One small hole remained by accident, but it was too small for the gander. For some ten days he noticed that the gander sat in one place all the time and that just opposite the hole. One morning he found the gander in the clover; upon investigation he found, that the gander had deliberately starved himself small enough to go through that hole!

Side Track.

We hope the day will not soon come when Raleigh will be placed on the side track between the North and the South, but such a thing might happen, and possibly will happen, if our people do not spur up on Railroad questions. There is now a direct line from Durham to Henderson on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. Suppose this line should be extended from Durham to Osgood for instance, would that not be a direct line from Henderson to the South leaving Raleigh out in the cold. We merely thought perhaps such a thing might happen—that's all. At any rate we ought to get the A'beamarle and Raleigh Road here, that it may break the force of any scheme that may operate to our disadvantage. Our Durham friends are wide awake and Raleigh shor'd have at least one eye open.

Sarah Bernhardt says that whenever she has a fit of anger it is invariably followed by sickness, and the wonder is, therefore, that Sarah is not bedridden all the time.

Our Churches Yesterday.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

At the First Baptist Church Rev. Dr. Carter preached with his usual ability. There were large congregations.

CENTRAL M. E. CHURCH.

At Central M. E. Church yesterday Rev. L. L. Nash preached two able sermons, morning and night to highly interested audiences.

EDENTON STREET M. E. CHURCH.

There were no services at the Edenton Street Methodist Church yesterday. Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon was absent at Henderson where the district conference has been in session for several days.

BAPTIST TABERNACLE.

The weather prevented many from attending church and Sunday school, still the Sunday school was well attended. Good attendance at both morning and evening services. The Rev. Dr. Hall preached two very able sermons, especially interesting in the evening—subject, "The Sabbath and the Working Men" was one of deep thought and delivered with much feeling and power; it was one of the strongest pleas for the observance of the Sabbath we ever heard; he closed with a touching appeal. He said he had rather see his loved one buried than to see the American people cease to "Remember the Sabbath Day and Keep it Holy." He called upon God to save grand, noble, free America from infidelity. Numbers of favorable comments were heard upon it. His sermon next Sunday evening will again be especially intended for the working classes. Let everybody attend, it will do you good to hear him.

Low Rates.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad will sell parties attending the North Carolina State Farmers' Alliance, Asheville N. C., tickets to that point and return at the following rates from points named. Tickets on sale Aug. 16th to 18th inclusive, good returning until and including Aug. 19th:

Durham,	6.25
Raleigh,	6.90
Selma,	7.65
Goldsboro,	8.15
Henderson,	7.40
Winston-Salem,	5.70

Rates from intermediate points in same proportion.

Why a Book Was Written.

New York Star.
Talking with an intimate friend of General Lew Wallace the other day, I learned the true inspiration of his famous novel, "Ben Hur." "Wallace was on an Eastern bound train," said my informant, "and while going through the drawing room car he passed the open door of a compartment in which sat Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll. 'Come in,' said the latter. 'I'm lonely in here, and want some one to chat,' Wallace entered and seated himself. 'All right, colonel,' he said, 'what shall we chat about. Lots of things,' replied Ingersoll. 'Is there a future life?' Looking out of the window dreamily, as the express sped on, he answered his own query. 'I don't know—do you? Is there a God? I don't know—do you? Was Christ the son of God? I don't know—do you?' He paused and looked keenly at Wallace. The General was a little embarrassed by the abruptness of the great infidel's interrogatories. He replied: 'Really Ingersoll, I have never given much thought or study to the question you propound. I had a Christian training, and I have always tacitly accepted them.' 'Indeed!' said Colonel Ingersoll. 'Why, man, you surprise me! They are vital issues. I have studied the subject thoroughly. Every man ought to. Now, take my advice and look into the matter. You'll find you'll agree with me.' 'I went away from this interview both embarrassed and mortified,' said the general, 'that I did not feel competent to discuss so important a matter with so learned a thinker. I came up my mind that I would never place myself again in so embarrassing a situation. I took down my books and read every authority I could lay my hands on. After a year's study, so far from agreeing with the great agnostic in his expressed opinions, I wrote "Ben Hur" That is my reply to him!'

SPECIAL NOTICES.

For Sale.

Any one wishing to buy a ladies cart, harness and pony, whole outfit for $100 apply to G. H. Glass, No. 118 Fayetteville street. jy25 1w

The enterprising and mammoth dry goods establishment of W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. is the only house in the South that has made a break at the Northern houses. They keep, like S. J. & Co., Alaman and others, a man who can't deny it is to attend to the advertising, and consequently their business grows more than 40 per cent. since this method has been established. Their advertising man is now in New York city, to better perfect himself as an advertising man, and is accompanied by one of the stock men of the woolen dress goods department, who is also there looking into the latest fashions for the coming fall. This firm keeps up in every respect with this progressive age.

Watch Springs.

Did you ever examine a watch spring? If you have, you will find the springs made of the finest tempered steel, and you will find that they are perfectly elastic. We have just received a big lot of watch springs, and they take this name because they are filled with watch oil, and in place of the usual oil, they are always bright. These springs are guaranteed never to break and they are the most flexible springs ever put in a watch. These watches are made of the very best material, through and if you buy one and it does not prove entirely satisfactory we refund you money as we are instructed to do so by the factory. They are absolutely the most perfectly shaped corset we have ever seen. They are not high priced; we get $1.75 for them and guarantee them to last longer and give more real comfort in the wearing than any corset in the market that you pay $1.75 for. We have four other new styles in corsets which we would be glad to have you see at SWINDELL'S.
