LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

Hot and sultry.
How about the depot?
Hot wave in earnest.
The beautiful sunshine.
Autumn is approaching.
Color line drawing close.
And now we have the promise of the Albemarle and Raleigh Railroad in fifteen months.

The excursion to Richmond, on August 13th, will be over the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad by the way of Weldon.

The Tabernacle Conference, at Rutherford College, adjourned last Sunday night after a most successful series of meetings.

Sunshine and clouds have been the order today, and nobody is willing to venture a prediction on what kind of weather we will have tomorrow.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, held last Tuesday evening, Mr. J. H. Mills was re-elected superintendent.

It will be a hard job to get Hillsboro road in perfect order by the time of the fair, but Superintendent McMackin will fix it all right if possible.

There will be a meeting of the Independent Hose Reel Company tonight. Every member requested to be present at 8.30. By order of the Assistant Foreman.

The Board of Trustees of Wake Forest College held a special meeting in the Mission Rooms of Baptist State Convention this evening at 4 o'clock to elect a successor to Professor Michael.

Can't Supervisor Hawkins give us the exact population of Raleigh as shown by the recent census? If not, why not? Other places have been announced.

The ice factory of Messrs Jones & Powell was sold yesterday, Mr. W. N. Jones of this city, becoming the purchaser for Mr. J. N. Wiggins, of New York. Operations will be continued on an extended scale. The price paid was $4,200.

They do say that the delay in commencing the new Depot is caused from waiting on the decision of the Atlantic Coast line relative to the extension of the Albemarle and Raleigh railroad. Perhaps we may get a $75,000 building after all. Who knows?

The neighbors in the community had a very pleasant time yesterday out at Norwood's pond near Millbrook, this county. It was an occasion of a neighborhood barbecue. Those present enjoyed themselves very much.

Mt. Holly Fair.

There was a large crowd at the opening of this interesting exhibit what is pronounced superior to any that has yet taken place. Samples of the manufactures of South Carolina, Tennessee and Mississippi are on exhibition, in addition to those from North Carolina. Commissioner Robinson and Professor Holladay and Massey are present and have opened Farmers' Institutes.

Death of Capt. F. N. Strudwick.

The death of this well known and highly esteemed citizen of Orange county which took place last Tuesday, at his home, in Hillsboro, will be deeply lamented by a large circle of friends in Raleigh where he was well known.

Capt. Strudwick was a most estimable gentleman in all the walks of life. As a lawyer he stood deservedly high.

Confederate Badges.

Mr. E. F. Fenton who has been commissioned to sell Confederate veteran's badges in this State, for the benefit of the Soldiers' Home, is now in Charlotte with his samples, and, we suppose will make an extended tour of the State. The design of the badge is a very appropriate one, and are of gold, silver and bronze. Mr. Fenton has credentials from Mr. Julian S. Carr, President of the Association.

The Charlotte News says: Mr. Fenton, by the way, is a one armed veteran, and strange to say is a first rate type setter. With his one hand he can manipulate the stick, empty type on the galleys and set up 8,000 ems per day. Most printers find it hard work to do that with two hands. Any one familiar with type setting would think it impossible for a one handed man to do anything at that business, for Mr. Fenton, with his one hand, certainly does get there.

Personal Mention.

Hon. Thos. Settle, of Greensboro, was in the city yesterday.

We are pleased to see Dr. J. A. Sexton, of Fort Payne, Ala., in the city.

Miss Fannie McPheeters, who has been visiting friends in Durham, returned to the city yesterday.

Mr. P. W. McGowan, Mrs. E. R. McGowan and Mrs. S. P. Pennington returned from Wilmington yesterday.

Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash went out to Ebenezer church, seven miles south-east from this city, where he preached today.

Mr. Reuben Haywood, who has been here for several days visiting friends, returned to his home in Washington City yesterday.

Hon. J. C. Scarborough returned to the city this morning from Thomasville where he went to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Baptist Orphanage.

Mrs. W. S. Medlin and son, of Louisville, are in the city visiting Mrs. Mary Woodward, E. Hargett street.

John W. Cole, Esq., is quite sick at his residence on North Person street.

Mrs. Emma Stevens and Sndie Cant have returned from a visit to the family of Mr. I. L. Lankston, in the country.

Mr. C. A. Perkinson and wife returned from Wilmington last evening. They also spent several very pleasant days at the Sound and Carolina beach.

Chronic Grumbling.

An exchange has the following: Some persons remember the old fellow of South Carolina who was never satisfied with Providence as displayed in the weather and the crops. He was so addicted to croaking, that at one time, when the crops were so fine as to produce general rejoicing, some of his neighbors expressed the opinion that he still had some complaint to make to test which they approached him and congratulated him on the splendid outlook. "Mr. Parker," said one of the men, "I guess you will admit that we have as fine a crop prospect as one could ask for." "Yes," said Mr. Parker, with shrugging of his shoulders, "the crops are fine, but I've just been thinking that the strain on the land in producing the present crop will be so great that we shall have a failure next year."

A Grand Display of Carpets.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. have received the best assortment of carpets, ever before seen in their carpet department. New patterns, fresh colors, and better weaves, at less price than for any seasons past. We can give the trade every advantage, as our stock of carpets was bought for cash, before the advance in the price of the raw material; and to buy soon means that we can offer special inducements, and we invite every one to visit our carpet department. We mean what we say.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

We Don't Know.

We are frequently asked the cause of delay in commencing the new Union Depot, and our stereotyped answer, from necessity, is, "we don't know." Besides we don't know anybody who does know, or if they do, they won't tell. We do know, however, that the public are getting much out of heart about the matter. Several months since the site was selected, and the houses upon it sold. So urgent was the removal of them considered, that those who purchased the houses were required to move them in ten days. Since then the whole matter seems to have rested in most absolute quiet, save and except at intervals we hear of rumors of an encouraging character that are never verified. We are bound to answer all enquiries on the subject with "we don't know." Perhaps those having the important duty in hand, might tell, but probably they don't choose to do so. Great bodies move slow, and corporations are not an exception. Perhaps some of these days a spasmodic jerk of energy may develop something, but concerning even this, "we don't know."

China May Become Christian.

N. Y. Star.
The novel spectacles of a native Chinaman, decked in full Oriental costume, queue and shaven head, occupying a pulpit and preaching a sermon was presented last night at the Church of the Strangers. The preacher's name in his own language is Tsche She Dze. The name given him in baptism and by which he is known now is Rev. Charles W. Marshall. He was baptized and received into the Christian faith by the Rev. Dr. Deems upward of twenty years ago, and since then has done effective missionary work in China.

His sermon was delivered in English, his diction being almost faultless. He gave a brief outline of his missionary work in China, the difficulties he encountered, often being in danger of his life, and the subsequent success attending his efforts. In Cuckoo the Chinese City of Temples, the preacher said, that twenty years ago it was not safe for a foreigner preaching the Gospel to enter. He did so at the risk of his life. Now there are the churches of the true God in that very city, as well as hospitals and schools. He prophesied the conversion to Christianity of the Chinese people at no distant day, and said the Lord was reserving the mines of gold and silver in China still unopened for the spread and propagation of His religion and the building of Christian temples.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The average small boy is now completely puzzled by Messrs Whiting Bros. They have a reward for the first one that gives the correct answers to the following three questions:

- 1st. What is it that has a larger mouth than head?
- 2nd. What is it that has arms but no hands?
- 3rd. What is it that has a foot but no legs?

Now is your chance boys, be quick, scores have guessed wrong, and the reward still remains unclaimed.

Offer to the trade today, the very best grades of carpets in all the new and desirable patterns and colors, and every piece has been marked to sell at a very moderate profit. Having given our order for these carpets before the advance in the price of wool, and bought for cash, we are prepared to sell to purchaser now, the same grades for less price than can be sold later in the season.

W H & R S TUCKER & CO.

We are Paying.

We are paying special attention to the shoe business this season both in ladies and gents shoes and we are carrying the most complete assortment to be had in the United States. It may not be known to everybody, but we are now selling more shoes than any house in Raleigh, and the great reason why we are doing such a tremendous shoe trade is because we do not allow a pair of shoes to come inside of our store that is not strictly all leather, and for this reason we have succeeded in building up one of the finest shoe trades anywhere in the State.

We would feel that we had committed an error which would be unpardonable, if we failed to tell you that the big stock of jewelry had come which we have been writing to you about. It is here and as lovely a display of all kinds of fashionable jewelry has never been shown in this city. Anything you want in jewelry you can now get at SWINDELL'S.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

We have a new and complete stock of carpets every grade, from the inexpensive lines to the higher priced weaves, and to buy now gives the trade the advantage of a carpet stock bought before the advance in the raw material, and bought for cash, which means that we can afford to offer every piece of carpet in our house at a price most satisfactory to the purchaser.
