Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements.

W. Z. Blake—Lost.
R. J. Powell—For Rent.

In and Around the City.

Grape season soon be over.
The County Commissioners went out to the Poor House today.
Don't forget to paint the market house.
Democratic Primaries next Saturday.

About a month and the festive oyster will again come to the front.

This month has five Fridays, five Saturdays and five Sundays.

Mr. N. B. Broughton will conduct services at the Union Mission to night.

See advertisement of Mr. R. J. Powell, who has a portion of building 317 South Wilmington street, for rent.

English Cured Shoulders, at C. O. Ball's. Something nice for breakfast or supper.

At the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners yesterday, a new registration was ordered for this year.

The author of the recent anonymous circular in which several prominent gentlemen were criticized, has not yet come to light. Perhaps like "Junius" who many years ago wrote the celebrated letters relative to the crown heads of Europe, he may never be known. Time only can tell.

Dr. W. S. Black to Succeed Dr. Dixon.

The Trustees of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, have elected Rev. Dr. W. S. Black, of this city, Superintendent of the Asylum to succeed Dr. B. F. Dixon.

"Feast of Transfiguration."

Tomorrow being the "Feast of the Transfiguration" there will be Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at the Church of the Good Shepherd at 9:30 a. m. All cordially invited.

Leave of Absence.

Our friend, Mr. C. H. Lewellen, Sergeant of the City Police Force, has been granted a short leave of absence and will avail himself of the opportunity to visit relatives and friends in Danville, Va. There is no more faithful public officer than Mr. Lewellen, and none more popular with all classes in our community. He deserves a respite from the cares of his position, and we hope he may enjoy himself to the fullest extent.

Appointment.

Richard Brewer, Postmaster at Wake Forest, who was appointed by President Cleveland, has been removed and Dr. Timberlake whom we suppose is also a Democrat, has been appointed and took charge of the office last Friday. There has been quite a long fight over this office. Willie D. Jones, Esq., was appointed soon after the present administration took charge, but he was turned down on account of his living outside of the limits of delivery. We suppose the matter is now settled; we hope everything will move on smoothly.

A Pleasant Time.

A delightful fruit party was given last night on the spacious lawn, at Mr. M. A. Parker's residence, by Mr. W. A. Parker and a number of other young men, complimentary to Miss Annie Gaster, a beautiful and charming young lady of Fayetteville. There were quite a number of other visiting young ladies present, besides our own young ladies. It was way in the "wee" small hours, when this pleasant occasion came to a close. All pronounced it one of the best "Walter" ever managed.

Personal Mention.

Hon. S. D. Alexander, of Mecklenburg, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Rev. Bennett Smedes and family have gone to Round Knob for a short rest. We wish them a most enjoyable trip.

A. M. McPheeters, Esq., left today for Baltimore on business.

Misses Sudie and Lucie Farley, of Danville, Va., will leave for their home tomorrow evening, accompanied by their cousins, Misses Carrie Johnson and Minnie Barber. Messrs. Charlie Johnson and Marshall Barber will also accompany the young ladies.

Mr. J. C. L. Harris, chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of Wake County, has called a convention to meet in Raleigh Monday, August 25th, for the purpose of appointing eight delegates and eight alternates to the State and Congressional conventions. There will be no nominations made, at this convention, for any county or legislative office.

George R. Horton and W. A. Liles, of Marks Creek Township, were in the city today. They report the crops in their neighborhood as the best they have ever known. Mr. Horton says his cotton is the best he ever saw.

Rev. J. L. Foster is at home again and will be glad to see a large turn out at the prayer meeting tonight.

Mr. C. B. Marcom returned home this afternoon from Asheville where he has been on a visit for the past three months.

The Hogue-Jones Investigation.

The investigation of the late homicide was continued at the court house today, commencing at 11 o'clock, Justice Barbee presiding. There was a large crowd present, the colored element predominating.

W. O. Low being sworn said: I was in town Saturday; had started out home; was at Mann's store; saw colored woman who said they are fighting; saw two men fighting near Redford's store; saw the negro strike at policeman with something in his hand; policeman threw his head back and the blow glanced, then the firing took place and the negro fell; after the shot was fired a white man stepped up to where the policeman and negro were; a large crowd gathered at once; was near by when last shot was fired; had walked out toward the scene; what I saw in negro's hand seemed to be about an inch in diameter; did not look bright.

Capt. R. L. Hefin called and sworn, but was stood aside by the court at request of counsel for the State, for the reason that he was in the court house during the investigation yesterday but was not a witness at the time.

W. B. Perry called and sworn: Said I was crossing Hargett street from Wm. Upchurch's to D. T. Johnson's store; saw policeman and negro; policeman caught hold of negro and told him to consider himself under arrest; negro drew back and knocked policeman down, then he ran; policeman called to stop or halt; heard pistol fire; saw policeman and negro together near Redford's store; saw negro with his hand up; heard another report of pistol and negro fell, he supposed dead; when negro knocked Policeman Hogue down he fell on his hands and knees; policeman jumped up and called negro to halt and fired at him, or fired, don't know which way pistol was pointed; saw Policeman Hogue when they came together the last time; just before policeman caught the negro he turned around towards policeman; policeman caught hold of negro; saw negro's hand or fist raised; saw policeman throw his head back as endeavoring to ward a blow, and then last pistol shot was fired.

E. A. Mason said: He heard a pistol fire; I ran to the store door; saw negro and policeman Hogue after negro; just before police overtook negro turned around to meet policeman; was fighting Mr. Hogue; nothing was said that he heard; while this scuffle was going on heard pistol fire again, and very soon negro fell over on Mr. Hogue, who eased him to the pavement.

M. N. Goodwin said: I was in town on Saturday; saw a negro running with policeman after him; policeman caught up with him when negro struck at policeman; policeman threw his head back; seemed for the purpose to evade the blow, when policeman fired and negro fell; he was satisfied the negro had something in his hand when he struck policeman; was not positive what it was.

J. W. Mitchell sworn: Said he drove one of the city wagons; yesterday morning was engaged in hauling trash from streets; was hauling trash from near the scene of homicide, on Targett street, near corner of Mr. Redford's store; I found a knife; (the knife was here presented to the court, a one bladed Barlow, knife open); said it was in same condition every way as it was when he found it; (the knife was rusty and had appearance of being out in the weather for some little time); knife was laying in loose trash as though it had fallen there; the pile of trash was about 2 1/2 or 3 feet from sidewalk as near as he could guess.

Rufus Powell was sworn and said: I know deceased man Junius Jones; saw him in town last Saturday evening about three o'clock; he though he was drinking; he talked with him for some time; believed he was drinking; talked different from what he generally did; it was raining in Raleigh Sunday; was in Raleigh and attended church Sunday with my family; (the knife was here shown Mr. Powell) he said the knife did not look like it had lain out on ground from Saturday evening until Monday morning; thought it would have been more rusty.

J. F. Redford sworn: Said he saw Mr. Mitchell yesterday morning; he was taking up trash; saw him picking up trash; knife was open when he (Mr. Mitchell) took it up.

At this point the evidence was closed. Argument before the Justice was at once gone into, counsel for prosecution leading.

ARGUMENT OF COUNSEL.

E. A. Johnson, colored, opened for the prosecution, and J. N. Holding for the defense, followed by Thos. Devereux for prosecution, J. C. L. Harris closing for defense, and Thos. R. Purnell for prosecution in lengthy arguments on both sides.

The decision of Justice Barbee was that Officer Hogue be held without bail, and it was so ordered.

We learn from good authority that Col. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, has been engaged as counsel for Officer Hogue, and is expected to arrive in the city tomorrow, when it will be decided what course will be taken in the prisoner's behalf.

A Tragedy in the Swamp.

Detroit Free Press.

It was down on the Great Jackson route. A freight train had met with an accident, and so our train going south was off time and had to run in on a siding and wait for the lighting express coming up from New Orleans. Many of us were strolling about picking blackberries or gathering flowers, when some one suddenly shouted:

"Everybody keep quiet and listen! Hark!"

It was the deep, far away bay of a hound, and after half a minute we realized that it was coming nearer.

"The dogs are running a deer!" shouted one, "and if we string out we may get a shot!"

Fifteen or twenty men, each with a revolver, strung out along the track, and just then we heard the iron rails begin to signal that the express was coming. Two minutes later we heard her whistle. There were three or four dogs in the chase, and as they drew nearer it was evident that the game would cross the track below the bridge. We ran down to it, though no one cared to risk the crossing. We were hardly there when a coal black negro, bareheaded and in rags, leaped out of the bush on the track and stood facing us. The dogs had somehow lost him, and were baying in the thicket forty rods away.

What his crime was we could not say. He was a big fellow, and as he stood there, arms folded across his heaving breast, his face had a terrible look. He was only a pistol shot away, but no one raised a weapon. On the contrary, one of the crowd shouted to him:

"Off the track or you'll be killed!" He turned and saw the express thundering down the level stretch and then faced us again. The engineer blew an alarm, but he stood there like a rock. The train was running over that stretch as a pigeon flies, sparks of fire flashing from the rails and a great cloud of dust whirling behind it, and the speed could not even be checked. The black man looked neither right nor left. The dogs were coming nearer, but they were too late. Those who did not turn their faces aside saw the pilot fling him fifty feet high, and, as the body fell, it splashed into the creek at our feet and lay there only half hidden by the shallow waters—bruised, broken, dead. It had scarcely struck the water when five or six dogs broke from the thicket and crossed the tracks, and close upon them were three or four men. They were too late. The hunted man had taken his choice of how he would die.
