Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

Politicians excited.
Primary meetings tonight.
Time to talk about the fair.
The union depot site growing up in weeds.
Barbecues and politics speaking now in order.

Rivers, creeks and ponds on the rampage.

Most time for the first bale of new cotton. Who will bring it?

The State Treasurer is after those corporations that have not yet paid their taxes.

And now there is a proposition for a "Zoo" in Pullen Park; what a nice time that would make for the little folks, and some big ones too.

The cotton factory will soon begin operations, and it is suggested that the event should be given eclat by a celebration. It would be a very good idea.

A brief poem on a boy and a watermelon:

Morn: Rollicksome,
Noon: Frolicsome,
Night: Colicsome.

D. F. Fort, Esq., will start a grocery in a few days, on Wilmington street. Mr. Fort has had much experience in the business, and we hope he will receive a liberal share of patronage.

We hear that a great variety of new specialties are to be introduced at the next fair. Their never was a more opportune time for a grand exhibition and the officials seem determined to do their best.

The season at Morehead City has about closed. While it has been a considerable success, it has not come up to what it should be. When our people learn to patronize home resorts better, things may improve.

The Orioles will play the Nationals a game of base ball at Athletic Park, Monday afternoon next, at 3 o'clock. The Nationals will appear in their beautiful new uniform. Admission 15 cent. Ladies free.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon, D. D., will preach a special sermon to the R. & G. R. R. Relief Association in Edenton Street Methodist Church, tomorrow at 11 a. m.

Messrs. Royster & Crawford have opened a merchant tailoring establishment over M. D. & J. D. Edwards' old stand, Fayetteville street. They are clever gentlemen and we bespeak for them a full share of public patronage.

If you have not listed your property and polls for taxation, you had better come forward and let the Board of Commissioners know why it was delayed. There is a penalty attached for not listing, and if no excuse is offered it will be enforced.

Where is the hitch about the New Union Depot? Who has the plans? Why is the site allowed to grow up in weeds? Will the building ever be erected? These are a few of the thousand questions asked on the streets every day, but they remain unanswered. Nobody knows except those who ought to know, and they will hardly tell.

We have heard several complaints of the crowd that block up the sidewalk on the south east corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets, especially on Saturday afternoon. It is often the case, that ladies have to go out in the street in order to get by. The attention of the city authorities is respectfully called to this matter, in the hope that a prompt remedy may be applied. As it is, it constitutes what may be termed a nuisance.

Dr. Watkins' sermon at the Third Baptist Church last night was spoken of in the highest terms.

R. S. Pullen, Esq., is erecting a very handsome residence adjoining his own private residence out in West Raleigh.

The Governor today offered a reward of two hundred dollars for the apprehension of one Henry Crews, of New Hanover county, who has been convicted of arson. Also, a reward of one hundred dollars for Thomas Anderson, of the same county, who has been charged and convicted of bigamy.

N. C. Tobacco Association.

This body has been in session in Morehead City this week, and much business of importance to the trade was transacted.

The following officers have been selected for the ensuing year:

J. S. Lockhart, Durham, President.

W. C. Reede, Oxford, 1st Vice President.

Col. A. B. Gorrell, Winston, 2d Vice President.

R. A. Porter, Asheville, 3d Vice President.

G. E. Webb, Winston, Secretary.

W. E. Beville, Greensboro, Treasurer.

Personal Mention.

Miss Rosa Porter is visiting relatives and friends in the country.

Mr. James S. Hall has accepted a position in the grocery store of Rev. A. Betts.

Mrs. Willie Babcock, of Pamplin City, Va., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. W. Royster, on South Person street.

Miss Tempe Betts, who has been visiting Miss Ida Betts, of this city, has returned to her home in Stanhope, N. C.

Capt. Faucett, one of the popular conductors of the Seaboard Air Line system has almost recovered from his recent attack of illness.

Mrs. Dr. J. H. Crawford, Miss Bettie Jolly and Mr. John W. Crawford, leave for Asheville Monday.

Mrs. Laura White, who is agent for Dr. Sawyer's Uterine Pastilles, has moved to Pace street, between Blount and Person, where she can be consulted by those afflicted.

Mr. Virginius Ballard, of Durham, is in the city.

Mrs. R. E. Turner is spending some weeks at Mt. Vernon Springs.

Rev. O. L. Stringfield will preach at the Third Baptist Church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. All cordially invited.

Miss Martha J. Ramsey is quite sick at her home on South Bloodworth street.

Rev. Dr. C. Durham will preach at the Tabernacle Church tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock.

Miss Annie Gaster, of Fayetteville, who has been visiting Miss Ida Snelling for several days, and who has made many friends during her stay in our city returns to her home today.

Mr. T. B. Boushall and Mr. Gregory of Camden County, are in the city visiting J. D. Boushall, Esq., Chief Clerk in State Auditors office.

Our friend, Mr. E. B. Thomas, returned from Wake Union Church Centennial yesterday. He reports having a most interesting time. The meetings were conducted by Rev. N. S. Jones. There was much religious feeling manifested, and a number of converts. Mr. Thomas has improved much from his trip and really looks fat.

Miss Sue and Master Junius Daniels Grimes, children of the late General Bryan Grimes are spending the summer with their Aunt, Mrs. Alden P. Bryan.

Fire was started in a barn at Perry, Iowa, yesterday by some children playing with matches. Two barns were burned, and with them a two year old daughter of H. V. Hall and a four year old daughter of J. C. Seley, railroad employes.

What it Costs.

New York Sun.

There is no business in Washington so lucrative as the pension business. Those who started in a few years ago comparatively poor, are now rich.—Thousand and thousands of dollars are now being lavishly expended for advertising purposes. One attorney, who has a rather small business, has ordered half a million blanks and circulars, and has put all of his surplus cash into the business of advertising. There is a good deal of money expended every year for the benefit of the soldiers and sailors of the late war. So far during this Congress the following appropriations have been made or will be made.

Regular Pension act,	$ 92,457,461
Estimated deficiency for 1891,	50,000,000
Back pay and bounty,	724,000
Soldiers' National Homes Aid to State and Territorial Soldiers' Homes,	2,650,000
National cemeteries,	400,000
Deficiency in pensions passed at present session,	247,000
Pension Office administration (clerks, messengers, etc.)	25,300,000
Supplemental bill for clerks in Pension Office	2,430,159
	636,180

Total expenditure for the benefit of veterans, $181,153,800
The estimated revenues of the country are $450,000,000, and the surplus is now only $55,000.

We Did Think

that we would hold up talking about carpets, but our sales have been so very satisfactory for the past week that we loth to give up a subject that is of so much interest to the public. We have always sold a better carpet for less money than any other house in the city, and when we put on the additional reduction of $\frac{1}{4}$ of former low prices, it represents a clear saving to the buyer of at least 30 per cent. This is a big saving; and when you consider that these goods are all fresh and new—not old shop worn goods that have been on hand so long that everybody that sees them remembers them as old friends of years ago—it's a big thing and worthy the serious consideration of all thoughtful persons. We shall continue this sale at reduced prices up to the 1st of September. We invite your attention to this sale. You can see at a glance that it's the biggest reduction on carpets ever made in Raleigh. You will find them at
