In and Around the City.

The Chamber of Commerce will meet tomorrow night and then—well and then we will hear something.

Wm. G. Hill Lodge, A. F. and A. M. will assemble in regular communication this evening at 8:15. Visiting brethren invited.

Secure your seats for the Richmond Excursion which leaves here next Wednesday morning. Remember it is only $2.50 for the round trip.

A large number of persons went up to Asheville on the excursion today. Many of them were delegates to the State Farmers' Alliance Convention which meets there tomorrow.

Mr. E. B. Turrentine, of Durham, died Saturday night about 11 o'clock after an illness of about two hours' congestion of the heart. He was a most excellent Christian gentleman and was respected and loved by all who knew him.

Mr. J. R. Barkley has rented the Pullen property on East Edenton street, purchased for the site of the Baptist Female College, and will open a boarding house at an early day. Due notice will be given.

Messrs. E. C. Beddingfield, Secretary of the North Carolina State Farmers' Alliance, Mr. W. H. Worth, State Business Agent of the same, Mr. J. J. Dunn, Mr. Bell and others went up to Asheville yesterday afternoon to attend the convention of the order which meets tomorrow.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter left today to visit his old home at Parkersburg W. Va. He will be absent until the first Sunday in September, his church having kindly granted him a leave of absence, for recreation and rest. We hope his trip will be a most pleasant one and that he may return to us much improved.

The mammoth Richmond Excursion will leave day after tomorrow, Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock. Tickets are on sale at W. B. Mann's, J. R. Ferrall's and at Thos. Taylor's on Wilmington street for $2.50. Secure your tickets so that you may avoid the rush.

S. H. Crocker, Esq., is putting up a store house next to Spence Bro's East Martin street, where he intends to open at an early day a grocery. This building is something new in our city; the outside wall is covered with roofing material, which makes a neat show, and a substantial wall. The building will be covered with ordinary tin roofing. We wish him much success.

On Saturday night last, two white men, Thomas Jones and Hubert Warren, got into a dispute on Exchange Place near Denton's store, resulting in Jones being stabbed several times by his antagonist. The wounds are not considered fatal. Warren was arrested.

Mayor Thompson who is president of the Chamber of Commerce is extremely anxious for every member to be present at the meeting of the Chamber tomorrow night. He wants a full attendance, and will have some very important matters to present. Let there be a large turnout.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Raleigh Male Academy, of which Messrs Morson & Denson are the principals. There is no school in North Carolina, or, indeed in the South, at which young men can better be prepared for College. This Academy has gained a high distinction, which increases from year to year, and deserves the highest patronage from our people.

What They Say.

People are asking a thousand questions today relative to what the Chamber of Commerce propose to do tomorrow night. The reporter of the VISITOR could only answer partially and he told all enquirers that it would crop out from the Mayor that some important events were at hand. At any rate, that is our opinion, and if Mayor Thompson don't fill the bill, then we have mistaken him, that's all. The people are looking for a big proposition of some sort. There is no doubt about it. And when the proposition is made, the people expect action. All sorts of rumors are in circulation, and we are sitting cross-legged for good luck. Watch out for the meeting and the consequences.

A Sad Disaster.

The destruction of Rutherford College last Friday night by fire is one of the saddest disasters that has been reported in this State for years. All the buildings of the institution together with the library and notes and accounts to the value of $20,000 were destroyed.

There is no college in North Carolina, that has done more than this institution, for deserving young men, and Prof. Abernethy, the president, has devoted the best years of his life to the purpose. We most earnestly hope that arrangements may be made at once for rebuilding the lost property, and that the usefulness of the college may be only temporarily impaired. It is a matter that should appeal to the generosity of our people.

Death of W. H. Bledsoe, Esq.

We deeply regret to announce the death of this gentleman, which took place in this city at an early hour yesterday morning.

Mr. Bledsoe was a gentleman of high intellect, and was well and popularly known in this community. At the time of his death he was about 46 years of age, and leaves a father, several brothers and sisters and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock from Edenton street church and was attended by a large concourse of citizens. The remains were interred in Oakwood Cemetery, the following gentlemen acting as pall bearers: Capt. Octavius Coke, Maj. C. D. Heartt, and Messrs. Armistead Jones, T. R. Purnell, W. N. Jones and S. G. Ryan.

Change in Schedule.

On and after August the 10th, the following slight changes will be made in schedules of passenger trains arriving at and leaving Raleigh, N. C., on the R. & D. R. R.

Train No. 51, from the west, will arrive here at 1:05 p. m., and leaves for Greensboro at 1:10 p. m. Train No. 50, from Goldsboro, will arrive at 4:40 p. m., and leave for Greensboro, at 4:35 p. m. as heretofore. Train No. 52, fast freight with passenger coaches attached, will not leave Goldsboro until 8:00 p. m., and arrive at Raleigh at 11:59, p. m., will leave Raleigh for Greensboro at 1:30 a. m., every night. Fast freight, No. 53, with passenger cars and pullman sleepers, will arrive in Raleigh from Greensboro every morning at 7:45 a. m., and leave for Selma and Goldsboro at 9:00 a. m., every day except Sunday. This train makes close connection at Selma for Wilson, and all points in eastern Carolina.

A Dangerous Fall.

The little daughter of the Hon. J. C. Scarborough, who is only 4 years old, fell over the banister to the first floor, a distance of about thirteen feet, on Saturday evening. At that time, the parents were very much frightened for fear she was seriously hurt. We are glad to say, her injuries were not serious, and to day she is much better and will soon be able to run about again.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Solomon King, South Person St., next to Tabernacle Church is very sick, not expected to live. She needs friends to sit up with her. Will not the Christian people look after this!

Mr. F. L. Lumsden and wife left yesterday for Asheville.

Gov. Fowle has gone to Cleveland Springs for recuperation, by order of his physician.

Mr. D. B. Avera has gone on a visit to the New England States.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hudson and children, and Miss Maud Johnson, of Days, Miss., are in the city visiting their uncle, J. J. Johnson, on New Berne Avenue.

Mrs. R. J. Noble and children, from Smithfield, who have been visiting her sister Mrs. J. C. Scarborough on South Bloodworth street, left for their home today.

Rev. Dr. C. Durham and Rev. J. A. Speight left today for the Flat River Association which meets tomorrow with Pleasant Grove Church in Granville county.

Miss Loula Brooks, daughter of Rev. John R. Brooks, Presiding Elder of Shelby District, spent last night with Mrs. J. C. Scarborough, of this city, on her way to Shelby. Miss Brooks will teach next session in the Leaksville High School, with Mr Ray Principal.

Mr. E. G. Horton and wife left today to visit his father, Calvin Horton, Esq., in Marks Creek Township. They will attend the meeting that is going on at Hephzibah Church this week. Mrs. Chas. E. Haskitt and son, Nathan, left Sunday for Asheville.

Political Talk.

There is much talk upon the streets today, as to the probable chances of the different aspirants for nomination to the different county offices, as the Democratic Convention meets in Raleigh next Saturday at 12 o'clock. A. C. Green, of St. Matthew's township is very prominently mentioned as the nominee of that Convention for the Senate from Wake county. A. D. Jones is also very prominently mentioned for the House of Representatives.

Liberal Offers.

P. C. Ennis, business manager of the Raleigh Southern Farmer, desiring to aid the agricultural fairs of the State, makes the following liberal offer to any fair association in North Carolina.

One year's subscription to the Raleigh Southern Farmer (a weekly agricultural and family journal), for the best display of sheep.

One year's subscription for the largest and best display of grapes.

One year's subscription for the best display of either field or garden seed.

One year's subscription for the largest number of manufactured articles exhibited by any one factory in the State.

It is expected that these subscriptions be offered as an additional premium for these exhibits.

The Southern Farmer is a weekly agricultural journal and one of the oldest and best in the country, and is considered a safe and reliable guide to the farmer.

Hailstones as Large as Eggs.

Terrific hail storms have been raging since Sunday last throughout the northern districts of Germany. Stones as large as eggs have fallen in various places and unprecedented damage has been the result. In Cassel three-quarters of the crops have been entirely destroyed, while in the village districts of Marburg, Kirchain, Hamburg, Leigham, Tottenburg and Neustadt the hail smashed windows, unroofed houses and utterly demolished numerous wine farms. There was little insurance upon the buildings in these afflicted districts, and so the losses, which are heavy, fall entirely upon the peasants.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Mrs. Justice's school will begin Monday, September 1st, 1890 at her residence 228 N McDowell street, Raleigh, N. C.

Raleigh Shoe Store is giving big inducements in shoes. A new lot of ladies', misses', children's and men's just arrived at Hargett St. No. 7.

On Thursday, August 21st, at 12 o'clock, the store of Mr. D. S. Waitt will be closed and an inventory taken. At 12 o'clock on Monday, August 25th, the stock on hand, including accounts, store furniture, safe, &c., will be sold at public outcry for cash.

From now until the doors close special inducements will be offered in order to reduce the stock as low as possible. Now is your time to get fall and winter clothing low. Goods sold only for cash. Settle your accounts before the sale.

J. S. WYNNE, Trustee.

Three Things you Ought to Know.

The first is how, the second is where, and the third is when to buy trunks, Shoes and Carpets cheaper than anywhere else in the State, we answer these questions this way—How? with the cash. Where? at Swindell's, when? At any time and always. This is an undeniable fact, we do always give you better goods in these three special things than you have yet found elsewhere. We ask you is it not so? We do not say that we sell white homespun any cheaper than most of the other merchants do for most of them sell it at cost, but all other goods we do say that we are always a little under any one else in this city; we do not make this mere assertion with the expectation that it's to be final, but we make it with the expectation that you will investigate the assertion, this is just what we desire, for we can always abundantly prove to you that what we say is not only truth itself, but that the one-half has never been told. We are the unapproachable headquarters for carpets, shoes and trunks at SWINDELL'S.

We have heard of twin brothers looking just "as much alike as two black-eyed peas." But there are two twin brothers in town that look more alike than that. One of them violated the parental law, and needed an application of the switch. But when the fond mother had administered it, she found she had whipped the wrong one, and the boy thought he was his brother and made no complaint at the punishment.—Concord Standard.

CARPETS, CARPETS, CARPETS.

Many of our purchases for fall have already been opened, and we can now show a very full assortment of all grades of carpeting.

We do not care how small a quantity of carpeting one needs, or at what price, we have got the stock, and the prices are right. When one thinks of buying a carpet, all we ask is for them to come and see what we are showing and with the low prices which we offer them at, will make the matter of a selection an easy one.

We can show any grade that has ever been offered for sale in Raleigh.

We can begin with the cheapest cotton carpets, and go right along up, with every grade to the best Moquette. Every piece that we are telling you of, is not right new, and there are some bargains in the lot that are worth considering.

We are making it particularly interesting for those who will buy before September 1st.
