Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

The big scramble is over. All quiet in political circles. Scuppernong grapes have arrived. The city is unusually quiet today, looking like a lull after a storm. Now for barbecues, cornshuckings, etc. They will soon be all the go. Cool mornings and evenings, but a awful hot during the day. Don't forget the working mens' excursion to Littleton on Saturday next.

There was a baptizing at Holleman's pond out in White Oak Township yesterday, from Salem Church, by Rev. Wm. Olive.

Supervisor McMackin is now ready for all the help he can get in laying down the gravel coating on the Hillsboro road. The fair will soon be here and the work ought to be done by that time.

At the Central Methodist Church yesterday morning Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash preached an interesting sermon to a large congregation. The subject was the 'Cleansing of the Ten Levers.' At night Rev. Mr. Robinson, of Plymouth, preached a fine sermon. The subject was 'Positiveness in the Christian Religion.'

Rev. Sam Jones.

This distinguished divine will commence a series of meetings at Wilmington on Sept. 25, and arrangements are being made on a large scale for his reception. Work is progressing on the tabernacle, which will be a large frame structure, capable of holding about five thousand persons. It will be ready in ample time.

I. O. O. F.

We are requested to announce that there will be a regular meeting of Manteo Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F. on tomorrow (Tuesday) night at 8 o'clock. Candidates eligible to the 3rd degree can receive the same, as the lodge will work in this degree. Deputy Grand Sir C. M. Busbee who so recently attended the Odd Fellow's gathering at Chicago will be present, and in all probability may be induced to entertain the brethren with an account of his trip. Visiting brethren will receive a most cordial welcome.

The Exodus.

There is reason to believe that the exodus movement will be resumed the coming fall with equal, if not more energy, than heretofore. It is known already that there are several agents in the State, and that preliminary arrangements are on foot with the railways. It is said that the movement will be varied this year, and that many of the colored people will be taken to the Northwest. Particular attention, it is thought, will be paid to the counties bordering on the South Carolina line, and the movement is expected to begin in October.

Rates to the Republican State Convention.

The Richmond and Danville Rail Road will sell parties attending the Republican State Convention tickets to Raleigh, N. C., and return at the following rates for the round trip from points named. Tickets on sale 25th to 28th inclusive, good until and including Aug. 31st 1890:

Rates from intermediate points in same proportion.

A Noted Divine.

Rev. Dr. T. DeWitt Talmage was in Richmond Va. last Saturday and spent the day with his daughter Mrs. Allen E. Donnar. The Richmond State says:

The great preacher is the picture of health. He says he does not remember to have been sick a minute in his life. As everyone knows, he is a prodigious worker, but he never frets and is always in good working trim. Speaking of tonics, he said the only stimulants that he indulged in were tea and coffee. He managed to get plenty of sleep and frequent rides on the cars. He said one of the most beneficial diversions he enjoyed was riding on the train. He was fond of the motion of the cars and always felt in unusually good trim when he was travelling. In the course of conversation Dr. Talmage spoke enthusiastically of the South. He thinks the United States forms a great nation, and he would regret to see any Federal legislation that would mar the good feeling between the North and South. But he was a great believer in an overruling Providence, and was satisfied that nothing could seriously check American progress. If hurtful measures were attempted, Providence would bring us out all right.

A Pleasant Occasion—A Beautiful Farm—Splendid Growing Crops.

Last Friday morning, about 11 o'clock, Sheriff J. Rowan Rogers, called and took us out to the Hodge farm which is about 8 miles east of the city, in St. Matthews Township. The drive was through a beautiful country, the most promising of growing crops lining the roads on either side. We arrived at the farm soon after 12 o'clock and found several friends had gathered around a sparkling spring and near by there was something roasting over coals, the odor of which reminded every one that a feast was in the near future. About 2 o'clock all were invited to a table prepared in the grove where we partook of some of the finest and most delicious barbecue, chicken, etc., we have ever tasted. It was a most pleasant occasion in all respects, about thirty five or forty friends participating. The best of order prevailed throughout and the best of feeling, and when the crowd dispersed every one seemed to feel that it was one of the most pleasant occasions of the kind they had ever attended. We walked over the farm, and found it indeed a grand sight to look upon. Mr. Rogers has about 40 acres in cotton; it is promising in the highest degree; it is literally loaded down with bolls. We counted the bolls on one stalk that was only about 2 1/2 feet high. We found it contained 48—we did not count the forms or squares. We do not think the stalk we counted was an exception by any means. His friends believe he will make forty bales on the forty acres and we are satisfied he will do so, if not more. We have seen no finer cotton anywhere, than some of his. He has about 25 acres in corn which is exceedingly good, and we believe he will harvest 100 barrels from the 25 acres. He also believes in stock raising, especially all needed for the farm. He has some very fine hogs and cattle. This farm is well cultivated and well managed. Mr. J. J. Richardson, the superintendent, is one of the best farmers in the county and also one of the best managers as the present crops are proof.

It was a pleasure to us to look over this beautiful farm and we are indebted to Sheriff Rogers for being able to participate in a most pleasant occasion, and spending a pleasant day generally. We trust our farmers will press ahead and those splendid farms may not be the exception but the rule in Wake county.

The State Farmers' Alliance has closed its session at Asheville, and the meeting next year will be held at Morehead.

Personal Mention.

J. A. Duncan, Esq., has returned from Asheville.

A daughter of Eugene T. Jones, Esq., is quite sick with malarial fever at her home in Little River township.

Mr. John E. Ray, Esq., of Colorado Springs, Col., left this city today for New York, from thence he will go direct to his home.

Maj. J. M. Crenshaw, from Forestville was in the city today. He said all in his community seemed happy.

A. J. King, Esq., has been quite sick for several weeks. He also lost his mother last week. Having recovered from his illness, he left today for South Carolina to enter upon his duties.

Mrs. W. N. Snelling, who has been very sick for the past week, is reported as being some better this morning.

Hon. George W. Sanderlin, our genial and most efficient State Auditor has returned to the city, having spent four or five weeks in the western part of our State, at Blowing Rock, Cleveland Springs, Asheville, etc. He spoke at Red Springs, in the afternoon to the old soldiers after Senator Vance spoke in the morning to the assembled multitude. Mr. Sanderlin spoke to quite a number of assemblies at different places while he was away, of several thousand each. We are happy to say he is much improved in health, and a most pleasant time in all respects. We welcome him back to our city. We have missed him very much.

Dr. J. A. Sexton, late of Fort Payne, Ala., now of Farmville, Va., is making quite a success in the real estate business and the discovery of rich mineral lands. We are glad to know that some of our Raleigh friends are sharing in his success. May they continue to do so.

Dr. L. L. Nash left this morning to assist in a meeting at Youngsville for some days.

Miss Hattie Mendenhall, of Greensboro, who has been on a visit of several weeks to Mrs. H. H. Crocker of this city, returned to her home this afternoon, much to the regret of a large circle of her friends here.

Still Honored.

Gov. Fowle continues to be the recipient of high honors at the White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. The Richmond Dispatch of yesterday says:

A reception and cotillion in honor of Governor Fowle, of North Carolina, and his daughter, Miss Helen, on Saturday morning was a brilliant and greatly enjoyed occasion. A matinee reception is in itself a novelty, and coupled with a dance it possessed every charm to the young as well as the more sedate, if there are any such at this gala resort. The gentlemen who gave this delightful pleasure to their friends were Colonel John S. Cunningham, senior officer on Governor's staff (who was the presiding genius), Colonel Bennahan Cameron (also on the staff), Colonel John L. Morehead, General Theodore F. Davidson (Attorney General of the State of North Carolina), Captain V. E. McBee, Superintendent Western North Carolina railroad; Mr. Warren G. Elliott, president of the Wilmington and Weldon railroad; Mr. E. S. Latimer, president of the Sea Coast railroad; Mr. George B. McLeod, Mr. James R. Williams, and Mr. Clem Wright. Invitations to be escorts for the chaperons in addition to the committee were extended to Captain Charles M. Blackford, Virginia; General Woodward, New York; Colonel A. S. Buford, Virginia; R. Holt Easley, Virginia; Colonel William Preston Johnston, Louisiana, and Judge W. T. Newman, Georgia.

The retinue was led by Governor Fowle with Miss Mildred Lee and General Davidson with Miss Mary Lee.

Miss Fowle led the german with Mr. Morehead, of North Carolina.

Norris & Carter.

TREMENDOUS BARGAINS are being offered through our entire stock. Every article in our store must be sold in the next few weeks. Prices have been put on ever thing that will surely make them go. Many lines of goods have been marked at less than half price. Those having to buy any kind of dress goods, silks, notions, white goods, shoes, underwear or dress goods of any description will save 40 to 50 per cent. by buying at the great closing out sale, at NORRIS & CARTER'S.

Are You Hard to Suit?

We shall have goods to suit you this fall no matter what quality or style you want, just so you want only the latest styles. We have never bought so large or so complete a stock before as we shall buy for this fall's trade. The crops are much better and of course we can confidently expect the people to have more money and to be in a condition to buy more goods than in many years. Our leading feature will be low prices on all our goods, and we shall take special pains to have none but the best goods in all departments for we believe the very best goods are the cheapest in the long run, so to speak. We shall probably begin receiving our fall stock the latter part of this week. During this week we shall be busy cleaning up all departments and any short pieces or remnants will be closed out with no regard to price whatever. Our reduced carpet and boy's clothing sale will be continued to Sept. 1st.

CARPETS, CARPETS, CARPETS.

Many of our purchases for fall have already been opened, and we can now show a very full assortment of all grades of carpeting.

We do not care how small a quantity of carpeting one needs, or at what price, we have got the stock, and the prices are right. When one thinks of buying a carpet, all we ask is for them to come and see what we are showing and with the low prices which we offer them at, will make the matter of a selection an easy one.

We can show any grade that has ever been offered for sale in Raleigh.

We can begin with the cheapest cotton carpets, and go right along up, with every grade to the best Moquette. Every piece that we are telling you of, is not right new, and there are some bargains in the lot that are worth considering.

We are making it particularly interesting for those who will buy before September 1st.
