In and Around the City.

Scorching weather still.
Democratic State Convention tomorrow.
Land and Improvement Company in sight.
The Raleigh Signal is another addition to Journalism in Raleigh.
Active preparations are in progress for the coming fair.
Another squad of convicts was sent yesterday from the penitentiary to work on the farms at Roanoke.
Messrs W H & R S Tucker & Co have an advertisement offering some splendid inducements, in carpets.
There will be a regular meeting of Manteo Lodge, I O O F tonight. Work in the third degree. Visiting brethren cordially invited.
The sanitary officers started out yesterday on their inspection, and will continue it until all the premises in the city are visited. Let our people be on the alert. The law will be strictly enforced against all who have not strictly complied with it.
It is reported in the city today that James Pou, Esq., who was nominated at Johnston county convention for the State Senate, has declined the nomination. It is also thought if this is true that Ashley Horne, Esq., or Dr. Vick will receive the nomination and will be Johnston's candidate for the Senate.
The Chattanooga Evening News of the 15th says: "Mrs. P. A. Carter of Raleigh, N. C., after spending seven weeks at Lookout Inn, leaves today for Huntsville, Ala. She is a beautiful woman with charming and fascinating social manners, and leaves a host of admiring friends at the Inn and in Chattanooga who regret her departure."

Canton, I O O F, Attention!

There will be a meeting of the Canton of Patriarch's Militant this evening at 8:30 o'clock promptly at the office of Mr. C. M. Busbee. Business of importance.

Men Wanted.

We are requested by Mr. J. T. Patrick, General Superintendent, to state that men are wanted to travel and advertise the next State Fair. To suitable men of twenty five years of age and upwards, transportation will be furnished and an opportunity to earn good pay. Applicants should call at the office of Mr. Patrick in the Agricultural Building.

Piedmont Springs.

This valuable property, near Danbury, in Stokes county, has been purchased by Hon. John A. Gilmer, of Greensboro for $10,000. The Judge proposes to form a stock company and allow all the old stockholders to take shares if so desired. The entire property will be put in first class condition, in time for the opening of the season of 1891.

House Burned.

Last night about 9 o'clock, a dwelling house in Clayton, occupied by a Mr. Deal, the property of Mr. A. J. Ellis was burned. Three little children were left in the house. While the parents were attending church a lamp exploded, and set the house on fire. The children waking up ran out and gave the alarm. Neighbors and friends responded promptly, and about all personal property was saved, so we learn. The children escaped unhurt.

New Advertisements.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. T. W. Blake, who has on hand a splendid supply of spectacles, silver plated ware, forks, spoons, knives, etc., which he offers to the trade on such terms as must appear most reasonable. There is no man in his special line, who can better appreciate the wants of the people than Mr. Blake, or who stands more deservedly high in public estimation. Let all who need anything in the jewelry line give him a call.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Moses Fort, who has opened as grocer and commission merchant at 214 South Wilmington street. Mr. Fort has had a great experience having conducted the business at Forestville where he met with much success. He is a gentleman of the highest character, which added to his superior business qualities, should entitle him to the highest consideration at the hands of the people of Raleigh. We ask for him a most liberal share of patronage and we feel certain that he will receive it. No gentleman in our midst is more worthy in all respects.

Personal Mention.

Master Hubert Pauli is quite sick at the residence of his aunt, Mrs. J. C. King, 210 South Bloodworth St.

Mr. T. A. Upchurch is very sick at the residence of his father on South Person street.

Mrs. C. E. Haskett and child returned from Asheville this morning very much improved.

Mr. W. F. Betts, the young man who was accidentally shot by Policeman Hogue is, we are glad to say doing well. He is now able to walk about with the help of crutches. It is thought that he will soon be able to be out again. This will be very gratifying to his many friends.

Rev. Dr. J. M. Atkinson, is in the city.

Rev. N. S. Jones, spends this week with Rev. S. F. Conrad at Ruffin.

Mr. Moncure, of railroad notoriety, is very sick at his residence, No. 517 North Blount street.

Mr. J. E. Nipper, of Barton's Creek Township is very sick, not expected to live. He is a most excellent gentleman.

Miss Ida A. Betts has gone to visit friends at Apex.

Miss Loula Jarrell, of Wilmington, arrived in the city today. She is visiting Miss Effie Broughton on North Person street.

Gov. Fowle, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. D. B. Avera, returned from Whit Sulphur Springs, Va., this morning. The Governor, we are glad to say, is very much improved in health.

Rev. Dr. Hall and family are now at Old Orchard Beach, and are enjoying the best of health and having a most pleasant time. Miss Lillian, daughter of Mr. M. A. Parker, who accompanied Dr. Hall and family has been quite sick, but is now better. Dr. Hall is expected in this city on the 29th inst.

J. C. L. Harris, Esq., left this afternoon for Baltimore to sue out a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Bond in the case of A. Spain and W. G. McClane, two persons detained here on a charge of being peddlers, but who claim to be licensed drummers.

Miss Bettie Jolly, Mrs. Dr. J. H. Crawford and Mr. John Crawford returned from Asheville this morning.

We were pleased to meet today Mr. L. S. Packard, who so successfully aided in the work of getting up our last fair. Mr. Packard will be here most of the time until the exhibition in October, and will push matters to their utmost. He predicts a splendid exhibition.

Miss Polly is a lady—

Annual Excursion.

The excursion of the Working Men's Relief Association to Littleton next Saturday, is an interesting event, and we sincerely hope there will be a large attendance. Everything will be done to render the occasion a pleasant one. A fine string band has been secured for dancing music, and also a brass band for general performance. A basket picnic will be one of the main features. The train will leave Johnston street depot at 7:15 a. m., arriving at Littleton at 10:27. Returning will leave Littleton at 5 p. m., and arrive at Raleigh at 8:45 p. m.

Half His Skull Gone.

Dennis Hammond, a farmer in St. Clair county, Ala., has lived three days with nearly half his skull gone and one side of his brain exposed, and the attending physicians think the man will recover and a tough skin grow over and protect the brain.

Two years ago Hammond suffered a case of sunstroke, from which he never fully recovered. At times he would complain that his brains seemed to be burning, and he suffered great pain.

A few days ago he had a severe attack of his trouble. While at the supper table that night he suddenly sprang up saying: "My brain is burning up, my brain is on fire." He ran out of the house and into the woods, shrieking with pain. His family searched in vain for him that night, and the next day he came home with one side of his head crushed and a portion of his skull gone. His brains could be plainly seen through the gaping wound. He was perfectly rational and explained that he broke his skull with a rock and poured water in the opening to cool his burning brain. Dr. Ash, of Springville, was summoned. He removed the pieces of broken skull, sponged off the exposed brain and the patient soon fell into a natural sleep. He seems to be improving, and Dr. Ash thinks there is a chance for recovery. If Hammond recovers it will be the only case of the kind on record.

Clever Paupers Caught.

London Telegraph.

Sympathetic spectators gathered this afternoon around a young man who fell down in front of the Louvre in what appeared to be an epileptic seizure. One of the bystanders stepped forward and proposed to carry the invalid to a chemist's shop not far off and another offered to assist. The one who spoke first took up the epileptic's hat and, throwing six pence into it, said to the crowd: "I am a poor man myself, but if each one of you did as I do this unfortunate creature would have something to help to relieve his sufferings." Impelled by this generous example, the crowd showered coppers and small silver into the hat until over ten shillings was collected. Great was their astonishment when two constables walked up and seized both the benevolent originator of the alms collection and the epileptic sufferer. The latter, as soon as he opened his eyes and saw the policeman, forgot that he was an invalid and attempted to escape. They were both taken to the lock up and were identified as two well known lazy mendicants, named Carnet and Desmarests. They had enacted the same dodge successfully in the Rue Saint Honore during the forenoon, the epileptic and his colleague on that occasion fleeing the charitable to the extent of eight shillings. The chemist's assistant who relieved the pretended sufferer in the Rue Saint Honore, happened to pass the Louvre while his second performance was going on. Suspecting a fraud, he told the police, hence their arrest.

Surgeon General John Moore, U. S. A., placed on the retired list by operation of law on account of age.

The First New Bale of cotton for this season will probably be here this week or early next week. We have $10 in money to turn over to the party who brings it, and we will furnish an auctioneer to sell it for them free of charge, if they desire it. Hurry up, gentlemen, and bring it along; we want to get clear of the ten dollars; and we want to see the cotton, too. The first bale will be to us as the olive branch was to Noah. It will be a sign of the disappearance of hard times and the beginning of a time when we will all have plenty of money. We are doing all in our power to be ready to serve you in every way; and we say to you now, that we shall place before you a full line of goods that for quality, style and living prices cannot be duplicated in the city. We desire your patronage, and we are willing to give you full value for it. We invite all to visit us and judge for themselves how near we do what we say at Swindell's.

Messrs. Fitzgerald & Yarborough, building contractors of Danville, Va., desire the address of all bricklayers who are out of employment.
