LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

Index to New Advertisements.
Geo. L. Lane—Announcement.

In and Around the City.

Cool wave needed.
Lots of sovereigns in town.
The fair is commencing to boom.
Very little excitement about the convention.
The State press is well represented in Raleigh today.
Cool wave looked for—snow in Denver, Colorado, yesterday.
L. R. Wyatt, Esq., had a barbecue out at his farm yesterday.
The first bale of new cotton is expected in this market daily.
Large number of excursionists from Portsmouth, Va., arrived last night. Quite a large number of strangers were in the city today in attendance upon the State convention.
Clean up your premises and avoid trouble. The Mayor will strictly enforce the law against those guilty of neglect.
Remember the excursion to Littleton, next Saturday, to be given by the Working Men's Relief Association.
We extend a cordial welcome to the sovereigns of the State and hope they may pass a most agreeable time in the "City of Oaks."
See announcement of Geo. L. Lane. He is one of the cleverest colored men we know and has made an efficient and faithful officer, polite and genteel to everybody.
Mr. Hackney S. Liles, of Mark's Creek Township, died at 8 o'clock yesterday evening of typhoid fever. We extend to the bereaved family and friends our sincere sympathies.
We were very glad to see Mr. W. F. Betts down at his father's store this morning. While his wound still gives him much trouble it gives us much pleasure to say he is rapidly recovering, and that soon we hope to see him well again and at his post of duty.
Mr. J. R. Butler and Mr. R. N. Crumpler, from Sampson county, are in the city today looking for fine stock. They went out with Capt. B. P. Williamson to his stock farm. We learn that these gentlemen intend to start a stock farm in their county at an early day, and desire to purchase stock for same.
Our merchants are cleaning up stock and getting ready to go North for fall goods. In a few weeks the fall trade will fully set in, and the prospects were never better, if we are to judge from the looks of our business men generally. With push, energy, and a fair proportion of advertising, the outlook will be splendid.
The excursion to Wilmington on the 27th inst. will probably be the last of the season and affords a splendid opportunity for all who desire it, to visit the seacoast. Every arrangement looking to the comfort of the excursionists has been made and it will be a most delightful occasion. The round trip from Raleigh is only $2.50.
Mr. W. C. Horton, of Little River township, clerk in the office of sheriff J. Rowan Rogers, who has been out to his father's for a few weeks' rest, arrived in the city this morning and reported to us that the crops in his vicinity were the best for years. Some had already commenced picking out cotton; that the meeting at Hephzibah church last week was one of great interest, many conversions, Rev. O. L. Stringfield, pastor. Mr. Stringfield is conducting a meeting this week at Clyde's Chapel, in Johnston county. The indications at present are that great good will be the result.

Democratic State Convention.

This body assembled in Metropolitan Hall today at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a ticket for Chief Justice and Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, and to ratify the nominations made in the several judicial districts for Judges of the Superior Courts.
There was a fair attendance considering no excitement had been developed relative to the nominations. The convention was called to order by E. Chambers Smith, chairman of the Democratic State Executive Committee, who made a most excellent and forcible speech. The convention was permanently organized by the selection of H. L. Gudger, Esq., of Buncombe, as chairman, and Messrs. S. A. Ashe and Josephus Daniels as secretaries, with the reporters of the Democratic press as assistants.
While the convention was waiting the report of the committee on organization, Gov. Jarvis was loudly called for and he responded in a very able and encouraging speech. Among other good things, he said that a large per cent of the people of our State who do the voting, and a large per cent of the people who do the work and make the wealth of our State and build up our cities, are demanding to be heard, and that it behooved this convention and the people of our State that they should in all our deliberations; not only shall they be heard, but fully heard. During his speech Gov. Jarvis mentioned the services of Hon. Z. B. Vance. At the mention of the name there was deafening and continued applause.
The Hon. A. S. Merrimon was nominated for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court by acclamation amid applause.
Hon. Walter Clark was nominated by acclamation for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.
The convention ratified the nominations of Superior Court Judges of the different districts as follows:
1st Dist.—Geo. H. Brown.
2d " —Henry R. Bryan.
10th " —John Gray Bynum.
4th " —Spier Whitaker.
5th " —Eobt. W. Winston.
6th " —E. I. Boykin.
7th " —James D. McIver.
8th " —Robt. T. Armfield.
11th " —W. A. Hoke.
At 2:10 o'clock our report closed the convention having taken a recess for one hour.
A Fine Tribute.
Our esteemed contemporary, the Durham Sun, pays the following fine tribute to our State University:
During the entire history of North Carolina the University has been identified with all that is noble, useful and honorable in our annals.—There has been no popular movement nor public work that has gone forward without University alumni, trustees or professors as leaders and active workers. From the Presidency of the United States down to the humblest sphere her sons have performed every duty with honor and distinction. The recent Centennial celebration of the charter was the occasion of the most brilliant assemblage ever known in the State, and the story told of the University's life in the Memorial Volume would do credit to any institution of learning in America.
A Good Suggestion.
A suggestion has been made that a call be made upon such persons as have received degrees from Rutherford College, for the purpose of aiding in rebuilding the Institute. This would no doubt be a good idea, as a nucleus might be formed for a substantial fund.
Died.
The little daughter of Mr. T. Q. Gattis, who resides near the eastern limits of the city, died early this morning, aged 10 years. The funeral took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Personal Mention.

Ex-Governor Jarvis is in the city.
Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn is in the city.
Col. Paul B. Means, of Cabarrus, is in the city.
Master Johnnie Marshall is confined to his bed with sickness.
Gen. W. R. Cox is here shaking hands with his many friends.
Rev. F. L. Reid and family have gone to Mt. Vernon Springs.
George Wainwright, Esq., of Wilson, was in the city today.
Dr. G. A. Mebane, of Alamance, is in attendance on the convention.
Hon. C. M. Cooke, of Franklin, is in the city looking as bright as usual.
We are pleased to see our old friend Dr. M. F. Arendell, of Carteret, in the city.
Rev. Bennett Smedes, Mrs. Smedes and children returned to the city yesterday.
Mr. W. A. B. Branch, the democratic nominee for Congress in the First District, is in the city.
Mrs. J. C. Scarborough and children returned this morning from a very pleasant visit to Wake Forest.

Dividing up the State and Putting on the Men.

The Old North State has been divided into fifteen different sections; and definite routes marked out, connecting and including all the large towns and centres of trade and travel. Active and experienced men are now being selected and instructed to cover these routes and sections to tell the people of the State about the next great fair. These men will send posters and notices of the fair into every family which can be reached from the towns and centres we have named. They will take the State Fair to the people now.

Sunday School Convention.

A convention of the Sunday School workers of the eastern portion of the State is called at Edenton, Thursday and Friday, September 18th and 19th next. The convention will be attended by Mr. William Reynolds, the President of the Fifth International Sunday School Convention and probably by one or more specialists. A programme is being prepared, embracing some of the best Sunday School talent in the State. The programme will be published as soon as completed. It is the desire and intention of the executive Committee to make this one of the best conventions ever held in the State.
By order of the Executive Committee.

H. N. Snow, Secretary.

Took Fright and Ran.

Greensboro Workman.

Superintendent Mills, of the Thomasville Orphanage, tells of his experience with a little orphan who was brought to the depot at Hendersonville with a view of being carried to the Orphanage. The little creature had never seen a railway engine, and when the train came up she was so frightened that she ran away and couldn't be found until the train was gone.

Religion Makes Him Insane.

Mt. Holly News.

On yesterday Mr. Able Stroug, of Stanley Creek was put in jail at Dallas. The cause is not a criminal one but is indeed a sad one. During the Fife meeting at Gastonia last June, Mr. Stroug was converted and expressed the determination to close up his distillery and quit selling liquor. He has been violently impressed ever since, and his friends, fearing that he would do himself bodily harm; have had him assigned to the Asylum at Morganton.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Go to Nicholas Johns' tonight for fresh oysters just from Norfolk.

Navy Tobacco, the best, at 30 cents per pound, at Bevers & Horton's 14 East Hargett street.

Yesterday

was carpet day with us. It did seem that every one had got into the notion of buying a carpet at once. We had all busy measuring up, packing and shipping. We did not sell entirely out, but if you were in our carpet department last week and you were to go into it again today you would notice a vast difference in the quantity of carpets you would see. We do not suppose that any sale that we have ever had gave such satisfactory results to both the buyer and us as this carpet sale at $\frac{1}{4}$ of its value has given. We have never allowed anything to be advertised from this store that was not correct in all respects. Hence, the people have confidence in us, and if in need of our special lines as advertised, do not hesitate to see us at once. It has always been so and will ever be. Honorable and fair dealing will always be appreciated. Our carpet sale will be continued up to Sept. 1st at Swindell's.

Just received a nice lot of sugar cured hams, breakfast strips and California hams, at Bevers & Horton's 14 East Hargett street.
