Quite a number of friends will come from Louisburg and Durham to be present at the Mary Jones concert next Wednesday night.

Business courtesy and printer's ink are two of the great magnates that make trade boom in and out of season. A merchant who uses these two levers seldom has more spare time than he can conveniently spare.

The Republican County Convention for the purpose of electing delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions met in the court house today. The attendance was small, but the objects of the meeting were carried out.

The average length of the days of this week is 13 hours and 14 minutes. The days have grown fifteen minutes shorter than those of last week and one hour and twenty two minutes shorter than those the last week in June.

The Kittrell Institute concert company will give an interesting musical entertainment at Metropolitan Hall tonight. J. W. Wilson, a native African Prince is one of the company and has wonderful power in the musical line. Let there be a crowd.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Raleigh Shoe Store, where can be found a splendid assortment of shoes of all grades. Those in want of such goods can be accommodated on as good terms as can be found at any establishment in North Carolina. Call and examine the stock. You can certainly be suited.

Personal Mention.

W. H. Moore, of Greensboro, Ala., youngest son of Mrs. E. B. Thomas, is spending a few days with his parents.

J. A. Spence, of the firm of J. A. Spence & Bro., left today for Baltimore and New York to buy their fall and winter stock of general merchandise.

Mr. Johnnie Marshall, we are glad to say, is able to be out at his post of duty again with Messrs. Barbee & Barbee.

Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash left today to assist Rev. J. J. Barker in a meeting near Selma, N. C.

Mr. E. A. Hicks has been in the city for several days attending the bedside of his sister who is sick.

Miss Ida. Betts has returned from a weeks visit to relatives and friends at Apex.

Mr. W. H. Dodd we are sorry to say is confined at home with a severe attack of muscular rheumatism.

Mr. H. H. Crocker left this afternoon for New York and other northern cities to purchase his fall stock. He was accompanied by his wife as far as Greensboro, where she will remain a week or so visiting friends.

Mr. L. O. Lougee, our efficient County Treasurer, has been confined to his room for the past week, with a carbuncle from which he has suffered very much. We are glad to say he is improving and hopes to be out again soon.

Mr. Greek O. Andrews, the city editor of the News & Observer, has returned to his post after a brief and interesting tour far up in the North. He looks as brown as a Camanche Indian, showing that he has romped around considerably. He says he had a daisy time in all respects, and comes back with a head full of news and adventure.

Married.

On Sunday afternoon at half past three o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Jessie Beal on North Person street, Mr. Charles Beal to Miss Dora E. Johnson, J. M. Broughton J. P., officiating.

Religious Meetings.

Rev. Dr. N. B. Cobb commenced a series of meetings with his church at Cary on yesterday. There was quite a large attendance and considerable interest. There will be three services daily during the week—prayer meeting at 10 o'clock a. m., preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 o'clock p. m. Parties desiring to attend will find the schedules of the railroads convenient for so doing.

Manteo Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F.

There will be a regular meeting of this lodge tomorrow night, work in initiatory degree. We are requested to state for the benefit of the members that the meeting will be a most interesting one as there will be quite a number of candidates to be initiated. Business of vital importance will be brought to the attention of the lodge, and every member is most earnestly requested to be present. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.

Our Churches Yesterday.

Rev. M. A. Adams, of Wake Forest College, whose home is at Wilson, N. C., and who is only twenty three years of age, preached two very able sermons yesterday at the Baptist Tabernacle. There are few young men his equal at his age. He has not yet graduated, and should he be blessed with health he will become at no distant day, one of the ablest preachers in North Carolina.

Rev. J. H. Cordon preached two able sermons at Edenton Street M. E. Church yesterday to large congregations.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rev. W. M. Clark, Rector, delivered a fine sermon in the morning on doctrinal points in the New Testament.

Rev. Baylus Cade filled the pulpit at the First Baptist Church, morning and night delivering sermons of great ability.

Important Case.

A few days ago Messrs A. Spain and W. G. McCune, two salesmen of the house of Gately & Conroy, of Charleston, West Virginia, were arrested and held for peddling clocks and other goods without having obtained license from the state and county. The case was heard before Justice J. C. Marcom and the defendants were found guilty. Messrs Fuller & Snow represented the state and Mr. J. C. L. Harris the defendants. Mr. Harris contended that the facts constituted the defendants drummers and not in any sense peddlers. As soon as the trial was over before Justice Marcom Mr. Harris proceeded to Baltimore and obtained a writ of habeas corpus from Judge Bond, of the United States Circuit Court, and the case is set down for a hearing on September 2nd.

Mr. A. L. Sanderson, the manager of the house in Charleston has been in Raleigh since Friday last and is determined to carry the case to the Supreme Court of the United States if necessary, in order to have a final adjudication. Mr. Harris contending that the traffic of the defendants constitutes commerce between the States and is protected by the recent decisions covering the "drummer" cases, and that the State law is unconstitutional as applied to the defendants.

Raleigh to the Front.

SPECIAL PREMIUMS.—P. C. ENNIS, business manager of the Raleigh SOUTHERN FARMER, desiring to aid the agricultural fairs of the State, makes the following liberal offer to any fair association in North Carolina.

One years subscription to the Raleigh SOUTHERN FARMER (a weekly agricultural and family journal), for the best display of sheep.

One year subscription for the largest and best display of grapes.

One years subscription for the best display of either field or garden seed.

One years subscription for the largest number of manufactured articles exhibited by any one factory in the State.

It is expected that these subscriptions be offered as an additional premium for these exhibits.

THE SOUTHERN FARMER is a weekly agricultural journal and one of the oldest and best in the country, and is considered a safe and reliable guide to the farmer.

The value of special premiums, in arousing an interest in the fair at this city, and in bringing people here is full appreciated by the managers. Who will add more offers?

A Splendid Opportunity.

The excursion to Wilmington on Wednesday next, will, in many respects, be the most attractive given this season. It should be remembered that no pains have been spared to render all who go as comfortable as possible. This is the last opportunity this season to visit the seacoast and enjoy all the pleasures such a trip affords. Messrs King, Lacy and Sherwood are experienced in the business and the public may rest assured that the excursion will be conducted upon such a system as to meet the expectations of all. The fare is only $2.50 for the round trip, and never before has as much enjoyment been offered for so small a price. We must think that a very large portion of our people will take in the occasion. They will never regret it.

N. C. Wagon Factory.

We called at the Wagon Factory this morning and found everybody busy, life and energy in every department. Superintendent W. H. Holloway says they have the machinery well in hand; that the employees had learned their duties, and everything was moving on nicely and satisfactorily. We found President W. G. Upchurch and he told us the outlook of the factory was very encouraging; that they had no trouble in obtaining a good supply of the best of timber; that the employees having the machinery so well in hand, that they were making as good wagons as could be made anywhere in the country and as rapidly, taking in consideration the number of hands they work. They shipped a car load of wagons today and they received an order this morning for eleven wagons, and mail had not been opened since Saturday on account of Secretary W. H. Dodd's illness. Mr. Upchurch says that orders are now coming in very rapidly; that the farmers and merchants of Raleigh and surrounding country are taking hold of the wagons made by this company in a manner that is most encouraging. We hope the people of Raleigh and the surrounding country will take a still greater interest in this institution, as it is one which will help to build up our city and vicinity in a substantial way. It is officered by our best citizens and business men.

W H & R S Tucker & Co.

Among our men's shoes, we have a line of L. Boyden & Co., genuine hand sewed work which we are closing out at $5 per pair; the former price of these shoes was $7.50. We have also quite a lot of Ziegler and Laird Schober & Mitchell, slippers and low quartered shoes which we are selling at prime cost rather than carry them until next season.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Auction Sale.

The auction sale of the entire stock of Norris & Carter commenced this afternoon, and the eager purchasers seemed more than pleased with their bargains. The sales commencing at 4 o'clock p. m. will be exclusively for the ladies. At night the men have a chance.

Mary Jones.

This distinguished colored elocutionist will appear at Metropolitan Hall next Wednesday night.

Of Miss Jones' appearance in Durham the Daily Sun of that city makes this note:

THE CONCERT.—The one given by the colored people at Stokes Hall last evening was a very creditable affair. The great attraction was Mary Jones in song and recitation. She exhibited a high order of culture, and some of her renditions were of such a character as to elicit the warmest applause and highest appreciation of the many whites present. She possesses a splendid voice and it has been well trained. She is an honor to her race. The colored people here will give her a public reception at the Reams Warehouse tonight. Box sheet open at McRaes drug store.

White friends will select seats on the right.

Admission 15 cents; Reserved seats 25 cents; Gallery 10 cents.

The Beginning of the End

Has come; that means that this week is the beginning of the end of the reduced priced carpet sale. Yes, this week closes an opportunity which we have offered you to buy a carpet at figures that in all probability you will never have offered you again. If you have not already bought of us, you still have the opportunity of doing so this week. We have sold a great many carpets in the last two weeks, but we still have some very good grades to show you. We do not say that we have "any grade that was ever kept in Raleigh." We do not believe we have, but we do say that our stock is varied, and 33 1/2 per cent under any you will find in the city in price, that ought to be inducement enough to satisfy you, don't you think so? At any rate that's all we are offering just now. New goods arriving this week at
