In and Around the City.

First day of September.

The churches all had good congregations yesterday.

Summer has left us and we are now in the fall.

Cotton is coming in briskly. One hundred and fourteen bales were brought to the city last Saturday.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon will preach at the Union Mission tonight. Let everybody attend—South Wilmington street.

The County Board of Education are in session today—only regular routine business has been transacted.

Revenue collections for this 4th district, N. C., for the month of August $74 842.55.

Col. L. L. Polk's new residence on North Person street, will soon be completed, and will be a very handsome residence.

The thirteenth session of Messrs Morson & Denson's school opened today with a large attendance of scholars, both new and old. We learn that there was seventy one entered this morning.

The pump on the corner of Smithfield and Blount streets is out of fix and needs immediate attention as it is inconvenient to the neighbors in that section.

Listen out for something to take place at Edenton Street M. E. Church next Wednesday night. Go and see for yourselves.

The ladies of Edenton Street M. E. Church will give a repetition of the splendid entertainment presented on last Tuesday night. Everybody is requested to be present.

A special meeting of the Board of Commerce will be held tomorrow evening at the Mayor's office at 8:30. Every member is requested to be present as business of importance will be brought up at the meeting.

Mr. W. H. Billings, who has been Steward at the Yarboro House for several years, takes charge of the Hotel Chairborn at Durham today, and Mr. H. Cheek, of New York, takes charge of the Yarboro as Steward.

The body of Mr. F. L. Bond, of Tarboro was found in Tar River on Saturday last about eight miles from Washington, N. C. It is certain that he committed suicide; in his pocket was found the following note written on a piece of paper:

"I have been in 'torment' for ten days."

See advertisement of Messrs Beverly & Horton. They are young men of the highest character and have built up a splendid business at No. 14 East Hargett street where they keep a full stock of heavy and fancy groceries. When in need of anything in their line call on them, they will please you.

Out at Garner yesterday evening a mad dog appeared upon the street, several pistol shot were fired at him, none taking effect, as known—darkness coming on, the dog escaped, the affair created great excitement and sensation—no one was bitten as heard from, we hope the dog may be killed before biting any one.

At the Tabernacle yesterday morning the Sunday School had three accessions. Rev. Dr. Hall preached splendid sermons yesterday morning and at night to very large congregations. The Dr. looks much improved from his vacation. All were glad at his return.

See announcement of John R. Upchurch. John understands the business of the position he seeks; he has had much experience; he needs no introduction from us; all know him.

The Board of County Commissioners of Wake County, are in session today. We suppose they will appoint Registrars for each Township in the county; and ward in the city.

Fire Company Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of Rescue Fire Co., takes place tonight at 8 o'clock. Every member will please be present.

You are most earnestly requested to meet at your lodge room tomorrow night promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

C. H. LEWELLEN,
Capt. of Degree Staff.

Died.

Willie, the infant son of Mr. Wm. M. Brown, Jr., and wife, Katie, died on Saturday evening last at 4 o'clock and was buried yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon, conducting the services.

10,000 Feet.

Repairs and improvements to the buildings on the fair grounds are planned and already begun. The officers have ordered ten thousand feet of fine lumber from Moore county for these repairs and improvements. Such a quantity of lumber means a great deal, when it is remembered that extensive repairs and improvements were made last year.

Crazy Tea and Butter Fly Festival.

Monday night, Sept. 1st, 1890, at Odd Fellows Hall, the young ladies will give an entertainment consisting of recitations from six young ladies, and speeches from several prominent members of the order. All the delicacies of the season will be served. All Odd Fellows and the public are cordially invited. Ten per cent of proceeds will be given to the Soldier's home.

Excursion to Asheville.

Next Wednesday will be the grand pleasure excursion to Asheville; special cars for ladies and their escorts; eight first class cars and the best of order will be preserved. Separate cars for colored people. The round trip only $3.50 the cheapest and finest that has been given this season. It will be run by J. T. Malloroy, Agt. Let every one that wants to have a good time be sure to go and they will certainly realize the fact. The train leaves at 6 a. m. on Wednesday and returns on Friday, giving the excursionists 48 hours in the city of Asheville.

Attention Odd Fellows.

There will be a regular meeting of Manteo Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F., on tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. Work in the initiatory and first degrees. A large number of candidates will have these degrees conferred upon them. We are requested by the members of the Degree Staff to urge the members of the lodge to attend and by their presence give encouragement to the work.

For a long time this lodge was cold, in fact showed very little life, but now it seems to be in the lead, both as to members and energy. On last Tuesday night there was a very enthusiastic meeting of the lodge at which five new members were initiated. At every meeting for the past two months we understand the work has been conferred upon from 8 to 10 candidates. We bid old Manteo God speed in the good work she is doing. We are acquainted with a good many of the members of this lodge and know them to be some of our best citizens. The committee appointed to purchase new paraphernalia, we are requested to state will be ready to report on tomorrow night.

An Encouraging Letter.

We are always glad to see North Carolina boys, when they leave our noble State, to remember her and her people and not to forget to love them while they meet with success in other States. The following extract from a letter has been received by Treasurer L. O. Lougee from B. L. Strother, Esq., a former Raleigh boy. It speaks for itself. How members of the craft remember each other. Mr. Strother is living in Abilene, Kansas.

"* * * Allow me to congratulate you upon receiving the nomination again for county treasurer. It is an honor worthily bestowed; and it certainly give me pleasure if I could give you a vote and help swell your majority. Raleigh boys, you know, will ever have a warm heart for each other no matter how far they may be separated." * * *

Shakespear.

Has nothing whatever to do with the following lines: They are intended alone for those who live today, and who have frames that will be chilled through to the marrow by the winters winds, unless they are protected from its icy breath by good warm wool clothing; such clothing in fact, as we shall sell them, good soft heavy weight clothing through which the winds from the north pole will strive in vain to pierce. Nobby clothing that will grace as well as protect the form; clothing that is cut and made by first class workmen, and clothing that you can buy for a less out lay of funds, and at the same time get more value than you would expect for much more money elsewhere. You can at the same time see one of the first selections of collars, cuffs and neck wear to be found in the city at SWINDELL'S.

She Alternates.

"I think you may send me a quart of huckleberries," said the landlady to the marketman, as she looked about for bargains in wilted eggplants.
"Have you many boarders this summer, ma'am?" he asked, mildly.
"Nine."
"Isn't a quart of berries rather rather light, for nine?" he ventured.
"Not with me," she snapped. "Four of my boarders don't eat huckleberries for breakfast and five don't eat bananas, so I alternate and ketch half either way."
