RALEIGH, SEPTEMBER 5, 1890.

THE OLD NORTH STATE.

Dr. McDonald, a leading physician of Washington has been taken home seriously ill from Cleveland Springs. Judge Brown, a kinsman adjourned Mecklenburg court to accompany him home.

Salisbury Truth: Six negroes were sentenced to the penitentiary at court here last week. Three for highway robbery; two for burglary, and one for an assault with intent to commit a rape.

New Berne Journal: The prospects of a growing city are seen every day in New Berne. We have facts and figures that will bear out the assertion which will be given from time to time as further developments arise. It is in the line of manufacturing principally, but not that alone.

Oxford Day: Anthony Taylor, who was struck on the head with a rock by Tobe Smith yesterday, is improving and will recover. Smith was tried yesterday afternoon before Mayor Smith for assault with deadly weapon, and was committed to jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Rutherford Banner: We have just learned of a serious difficulty, which took place last Sunday at the house of one Bridges in Golden Valley township, between George Hunt and two of the Grayson boys. Several shots were fired, and Wils Grayson was shot through the shoulder, the ball passing near the left lung. Grayson is said to be in a very critical condition.

Durham Sun: The lumber business is booming in Durham to a considerable extent. A contractor told us today that there was the biggest building boom in Durham now than she has known for years, and it was likely to get bigger.

Stanly Observer: There is no cavil about it, the corn crop of Stanly county is splendid; and peas, well, if frost should be a little late, the crop of peas will be immense. We hear of one two horse farmer who has fifty acres, more or less, in peas.

Concord Standard: Lawyer Lee Crowell, to pass away the dull season, has been experimenting in the raising of gourds. He now has one with a handle forty six inches long, and it is not half grown. He had a negro this morning digging a deep hole in the ground so as to give it room to grow. Mr. Crowell thinks the handle will be at least ten feet long.

A Chatham Invention.

Durham Sun.

A gentleman in the city this morning tells us that Chas. E. Ferrell, of Williams township in Chatham county, has invented a tobacco knife, by which the tobacco in the field can be cut rapidly, and it will be a great labor saving implement. Several have tried it and say it works well. Mr. Ferrell is having it patented.

The Durham Recorder.

Our neighbor, the Durham Recorder, came out this morning in a new form, simply four pages, enlarged to seven columns to the page. Now in its 73d year, our neighbor is beginning to put on fresh and youthful airs, and the change is an improvement. Sail on, old friend, you have weathered the storm through many turbulent periods. May your old age be crowned with prosperity and peace.—Durham Sun.

Sudden Death of Mr. John Sholar.

Wilmington Messenger.

A telegram received yesterday by Capt. W. H. Sholar, of this city, conveyed the sad intelligence that his brother, Mr. John Sholar died suddenly of heart disease yesterday morning at 7 o'clock at Florence, S. C. The remains arrived here last night at 11:15 by way of the W. C. & A. Railroad, and the funeral will take place (probably not before tomorrow) from the First Baptist Church.

The deceased was 64 years of age and was a native of Wilmington. His business was that of a builder and contractor, but he has lately been employed as a carpenter in the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad shops at Florence, whither he removed from this city about a year ago. Some years ago he removed from here to Fayetteville, but he soon left there and for ten or twelve years resided at Raleigh where he followed his trade.

He came back to Wilmington about two years ago and after being here about a year he went to Florence to reside. He leaves a wife and two sons, one of whom resides in Tennessee and the other in New York City. The bereaved wife was visiting Fayetteville, but she has arrived here, and probably one or both of the sons will come on to attend the funeral.

Had the Wrong Tip.

"Please send me my Derby coal." There is an estimable lady of St. Paul, says the Pioneer Press, who, about October 1st, will send some such message to another estimable—the latter a gentleman not altogether unacquainted with the price of fuel. This is how it happened:

The lady was among the club house contingent in attendance upon yesterday's Derby, and was conversing with and mildly chaffing the gentleman with upon what he didn't know about picking winners. Piqued a trifle by this badinage, the gentleman finally said:

"Well, maybe you think I don't know anything about horses, but I'll bet you Robespierre wins the Derby just the same."

Where he got the tip heaven only knows, but it didn't impress his fair quizzier any, for she said:

"If you mean that I'll make you a proposition."

"Of course I mean it," said the gentleman.

"Well, then, if Robespierre wins I'll pay you $16 a ton for my coal next winter. If he doesn't you will send me my coal for nothing."

"Done," said the gentleman, and "done" it is, for needless to say Robespierre was not in it.

A Buffalo (N. Y.) dispatch says that Mrs. Albion W. Tourgee was committed to jail for contempt of court last Monday by order of Special County Judge George R. Butts. She was ordered by the court to appear before a referee and testify in regard to her financial relations with her husband and failed to appear. Her lawyer says she has not handled any funds belonging to Judge Tourgee since 1880.

Fees For Auctioneers.

The ways of auctioneers in different parts of the world vary greatly. In England and America the seller bears the expense of the sale, but in France the purchaser bears the cost, 5 per cent being added to his purchase. In Holland it is still worse, the buyer being required to pay 10 per cent additional for the expenses of the sale.—Chatter.
