In and Around the City.

Students coming in every day.
Yesterday was a regular scorcher.
Regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No 218, tonight at 8 o'clock. Visiting brethren invited.

Just think of it. We are nearly up in the nineties in Raleigh, while in North and South Dakota the freezing point is nearly reached.

The colored people are holding a protracted meeting, out at East Raleigh Methodist church. Quite an interest is manifested in same.

Two very interesting sermons were delivered yesterday morning and night by the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Nash, at Central M. E. Church. The meeting at night was of peculiar interest there being much religious feeling manifested.

One of the morning papers calls attention to the fact that a long time ago a resolution was passed by the Board of Aldermen authorizing the opening of Morgan street to the western suburbs, and that nothing has been done towards it. The VISITOR has called lustily for the consummation of the resolution, but no favorable response has ever been made. The public ought to know why.

The Raleigh public schools will re-open Friday, Sept. 12 at 9 a. m. Pupils in attendance last session will be admitted without tickets.

I will be at the Centennial school Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 9th and 10th, from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m. for the purpose of issuing tickets to new pupils for both schools.

The teachers of the white schools will please meet me at the Murphy school Thursday the 11th at 4 p. m. E. P. MOSEY, Supt.

Died.

At her residence on South McDowell street this morning at 10 o'clock, Mrs. H. Clark, mother of the late Mrs. Henry Fendt. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the First Baptist Church. Friends and relatives invited.

Manteo Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F.

There will be a regular meeting of the above named lodge on Tuesday night Sept. 9th. Work in the second degree. A large number of candidates have applied for this degree. We are requested to state that the new outfit for the Degree Team has arrived and that the same will be inspected by the lodge on tomorrow night. Every member is most earnestly requested to be present. Visiting brethren will receive a most cordial welcome. Lodge opens at 7:30 o'clock sharp.

Wakefield High School.

We are delighted to hear from a most reliable source that this most admirable school situated in Little River Township, has opened its fall and winter session under the most favorable auspices. Sixty students have already been enrolled and they are coming in every day. As heretofore stated the immediate care of the educational department is under control of Prof. W. J. Ferrell, a gentleman in all respects competent for his charge. There is no better institution in our section for the proper training of youth.

Just received 1,000 pounds Edgerton Scotch Snuff, best in the world at C. O. Ball's.

Prof. A. Pauli.

Owing to the ill health of his family Prof. A. Pauli has been advised to return to this city. We hear that he desires to get up a class in vocal and instrumental music and he says that if strict attention to business and punctuality will avail anything he hopes to merit a share of the public patronage. Prof. Pauli needs no recommendation at our hands; his ability in his profession is well known to the public here. Our citizens are indebted to him for many pleasant musical entertainments in the past and we hope he will be liberally patronized by our citizens. Pianos and organs tuned and repaired. Those desiring his services are requested to leave their names at the store of A. D. Ro ster & Bro. or address him through the postoffice.

An Excellent Sermon.

There was a large congregation at the Baptist Tabernacle last night, and Dr. J. J. Hall preached a grand and impressive sermon, the subject of which was "Christ Rejected." In a masterly way he portrayed the scenes just prior to the crucifixion of Christ; the rejection of the Jews. The fickleness, the ingratitude, the lack of mercy of these people who cried for the blood of the Saviour were brought by the graphic portrayal very vividly before the minds of the large audience. From those scenes of 1800 years ago he brought us to the present and treated on how the people of today were rejecting Christ. It was a great sermon and the great truths he desired to impress were presented with clearness and force.

A beautiful feature of the services was the song just before the sermon rendered by Miss Lula Garrell, of Wilmington, Miss Effie Broughton and Mr. John W. Oheek.

In the Sunday School of the Church yesterday morning there were 22 new scholars.

New Advertisements.

Attention is directed to the advertisement offering two desirable dwellings for sale.

The Raleigh Shoe Store announces today, that it is prepared to furnish the Graded School children with all kinds of shoes, from hand made down to the cheapest. Go and make your selections. You will find bargains in all lines.

We invite special attention to the advertisement of Miss Maggie Reese, who announces new goods in the millinery line. There is no establishment of the kind in this city, or elsewhere in North Carolina where the ladies can find a better selected stock or where prices are more reasonable. The strictest attention is given to the wants of customers and all who call are guaranteed the most perfect satisfaction. Remember the place, 209 Fayetteville street.

The attention of the public is called to the advertisement of Messrs S. & D. Berwanger, who are offering special inducements in the way of boys' clothing. It would appear almost useless for us to use words of commendation for this most excellent establishment, as the Messrs Berwanger have already made a name in our city which has been spread through out North Carolina. There is no better or reliable clothing house in the South and the success they are constantly meeting with best attests the hold they have upon the public. Let all in want of clothing of every description give them a call. Their stock is immense and their prices will compare most favorably with any in the city.

"Edgerton Bottle Snuff."

Call at C. O. Ball's, No. 11 Hargett street for Edgerton Bottle Snuff; best on the market; it retains its strength.

Don't Do It.

Don't dispute with your wife when she tells you that C. O. Ball sells the best and cheapest groceries in town.

Change of Schedule.

On and after today, there will be a change in the schedule of the Raleigh & Gaston railroad.

The passenger train from Raleigh to Weldon, which has been leaving at 11:35 a. m., will leave at 11:20 a. m., arriving at Weldon at 2:55 p. m. Returning, will arrive at Raleigh at 4:15 p. m., instead of 3:45 p. m.

The train which has been leaving Raleigh for Weldon at 6:50 p. m., will leave at 7:15 p. m., and returning from Weldon will arrive at Raleigh at 8:20 a. m., instead of 9 a. m.

There will be changes on the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line road as follows:

The train from Hamlet and Gibson, which has been leaving Raleigh at 9:30 a. m., will leave at 9 a. m., and returning from Hamlet will arrive at Raleigh at 6:10 p. m., instead of 6:45 p. m.

The train which has been leaving here for Hamlet at 6:45 p. m., will leave at 6 p. m., and returning from Hamlet, will arrive at Raleigh at 10:50 a. m. instead of 8:20 a. m. Passenger service will be put on the through freight leaving Raleigh for Hamlet at 11:50 p. m.; and this train, will arrive at Raleigh at 8 a. m., daily, except Sundays.

The sleeping car between Raleigh and Wilmington has been discontinued.

Personal Mention.

Mr. J. C. Birdsong, State Librarian left for a fishing excursion to Morehead, last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Janet Andrews who has been spending some months with her sister in Washington D. C., returned home last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Earnest L. King is quite sick at his home 210 South Bloodworth street.

Master Hubert Pauli who has been quite sick for several weeks is able to be up in his room for a short time.

We are much pleased to learn that Mrs. W. N. Snelling who has been seriously sick for some time past, is somewhat improved, and hopes are now entertained that she will recover. This is indeed good news to a large circle of friends in this city and elsewhere.

Misses Lula and Evie Ellis left this morning for Charlotte to visit relatives and friends.

Capt. W. J. Lee, wife and daughter, and Mr. Walter Goskins from Eastern Va., arrived in the city today from Elon College where they attended the opening exercises last week and report as being highly delighted with the college. They are stopping with Mrs. J. P. Barrett.

A very serious wreck occurred last Saturday afternoon on the brige over the Yadkin River near Salisbury. It was a freight train which became derailed by the trucks of the engine being broken, throwing the train into the river. The loss is estimated at $100,000. Fortunately, so far, no loss of life has been reported.

Lost—A bunch of keys between the water tower and Col. Hicks' residence. The finder will be rewarded by leaving same at this office.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

Have got Dress Goods to suit any body today in Raleigh that wants to buy a dress. If you haven't very much money to pay for a dress, then there is all the greater reason why you should come to Tucker's to get it. Our stock of Dress Goods is the largest, and our prices the lowest. We strive to please everybody, and come nearer doing so, than any other house. Of course we keep everything in the Dry Goods line, but we are only telling you about Dress Goods now. It is to your interest to see our stock before buying.

Oh, Yes, So Have We

been receiving dress goods; not for the last several weeks, but for the last several months. But we don't talk about what we received so long ago. These goods we have been telling you about recently are new goods, and the nicest, brightest and prettiest you will find anywhere. We have lots of other things we could talk about to advantage, but we spare the time to tell you that we can give you the best styles, the finest fabrics and the lowest prices on dress goods of any house in the city. We expect you to see our dress goods in person; therefore we can afford to tell you, they are elegant and beautiful. We could not afford to misrepresent, even if we had a desire to do so, you would see the deception and we should be injured thereby, but we have no occasion to misrepresent our goods; for in truth, we can give you on paper only a faint idea of their perfections. We ask your careful inspection of our stock, and we feel sure that you will freely agree with us in what we have said At SWINDELL'S.
