NO. 127

The Daily Evening Visitor.

Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

Tremendous rain.

Lookout for scuppernong hulls.

Fatten up the babies for the show at the fair.

Street car tract laying on Hillsboro street has commenced.

Fix up your sidewalks; the city ordinances require it.

See the "Three Fast Men" at Metropolitan Hall next Friday night.

Any person having the record book of Rescue Fire Company from 1870 to 1879, will please return it to Mr. R. E. Lumsden.

A concert will be given at Metropolitan Hall tonight, by a class of children from the colored Orphan Asylum at Oxford.

The sidewalk at the corner of Fayetteville and Morgan streets is in a bad condition. It should be fixed at once. Whose business is it?

There was a highland moccasin killed in the yard of Mr. T. K. Feagan on South Blount street yesterday afternoon, measured 42 inches in length and 6 inches round.

Mr. Charles D. Upchurch Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court, issued letters of incorporation today, to the Raleigh Cotton Shipping Company incorporated by Chas. E. Johnson, Ed. H. Lee and M. A. Parker. Amount of stock, five thousand dollars.

At a meeting of the Republican State Executive Committee, held yesterday Mr. F. T. Walsler, of Madison county was chosen Secretary. Mr. J. C. L. Harris, the former Secretary, was not a candidate for the position.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Magistrates for Raleigh Township tomorrow evening at 5 o'clock at the Mayor's office. Let every member be present.

R. G. DUNN,
Chairman.

If the extension of the Albemarle and Raleigh Railroad to this city will enhance the value of real estate (and surely it will), is it not somewhat remarkable that any person owning such property should oppose it? Can it be possible that mere corporation jealousies should be allowed to defeat a measure which, it is acknowledged, would be a benefit to our whole people?

Our popular and enterprising undertaker, John W. Brown, Esq., is in demand all over our State. A few days ago he was called upon to furnish a very handsome metallic casket and superintend the funeral of Dr. R. B. Saunders, who died in Durham and was taken to his home in Scotland Neck for interment. Mr. Brown says a very large number of people assembled in the Episcopal church at the funeral.

Mr. W. G. Upchurch showed us this morning a stalk of cotton raised on his woodland farm about four miles south west from the city. It excels anything we have ever seen, the stalk is six feet high and has one hundred and thirty seven matured bolls on it. Can any one beat this? Mr. Upchurch is one of our most successful farmers and speaks confidently of the present crop as the best for years.

In our rounds this morning, one of our best informed citizens and also one of the best farmers we know, said to us, that it was not so much the price of cotton from which the farmers had suffered as that the land had failed for several years to produce the quantity it should, that this present crop at the prices now ruling, would bring more money in this part of the country than we have had for many years, that the farming class would be more independent. Upon the whole the prospects for North Carolina were exceedingly bright.

North Carolina Ahead.

Mr. C. B. Edwards received the following dispatch this afternoon:

TOPEKA, KAN., Sept. 17.

Hail, Carolina! Chas. M. Busbee has been elected Grand Sire unanimously. Clint Campbell, of Canada, elected Deputy Grand Sire. J. G. H.

For the Soldier's Home.

At a meeting of ladies and gentlemen held at the office of the State Fair today, an organization was effected for the purpose of a thorough canvass of the State to secure money for the "Old Soldier's Home" It is to be done by means of guessing on numbers of prizes already given for the purpose. The officers of this organization are: Executive committee—Mrs. Garland Jones, Miss Olivia Cowper, Miss Daisy Denson. Secretary—Mrs. Armistead Jones.

A Nice Entertainment.

There will be an entertainment given by the "Cross Bearers Circle" of King's Daughters, of Edenton street church, at Grimes Hall, on Fayetteville street, tomorrow evening. Refreshments consisting of the delicacies of the season will be served, and instrumental and vocal music will be rendered, together with recitations, &c. The ladies will do all in their power to make the occasion a most pleasant one. A small admission fee of only ten cents will be charged.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Frank Stronach and little son left today for Tarboro on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Norfleet.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon and Jos. G. Brown, Esq., have been heard from. They will be home next Tuesday, if nothing happens.

Mrs. W. N. Snelling, who has been very sick for some time past, is improving slowly, and it is sincerely hoped that she will soon be restored to her usual health.

Mrs. Noel, of Roxboro, is visiting Mrs. Alvin Betts, on North Person street.

W. A. Guthrie, Esq., of Durham, and Judge Schenck, of Greensboro, were in the city today.

Mr. J. H. Gill has just returned from a prospecting tour through Southwest Virginia and Tennessee and reports that section on a tremendous boom.

The Chamber of Commerce.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night, and some important work was done. The committee appointed to wait on Maj. Jno. C. Winder, General Manager of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad made a report. Maj. Winder says that in consideration of granting the Atlantic Coast Line the privilege of entering the new depot in this city, the Seaboard Line had asked that they might be allowed to enter the depot in Richmond owned by the Coast Line. This favor had not so far been granted, as it was said that the Richmond Depot is not large enough to accommodate the roads owning it. The committee has asked a hearing when the directors of the Coast Line meet. Several gentlemen constitute the committee to wait on the Directors of the Coast Line.

Maj. Winder made a report stating that the bids for the contract to erect the Union Depot would be opened next Tuesday.

Mayor A. A. Thompson said that an additional hotel would be an accomplished fact in a short time.

Mr. R. H. Battle made a report on public schools in which he said that there are more pupils in attendance than ever before.

The matter of the State Fair was discussed with reference to local attractions.

The Raleigh cotton mills are now shipping fifteen hundred pounds of yarn per day. This shows what energy and perseverance can do. We hope to see at least three mills in operation in this city by the close of 1892.

Our Schools.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night, Mr. Battle made the gratifying announcement that every desk at St. Marys and Peace Institute was occupied. The Agricultural and Mechanical College is full, and Messrs Morson & Denson's Academy has had such an increase, that it has been found necessary to employ an assistant. This is indeed good news.

Progress in Preparation.

The vast amount of work necessary in the preparation for the State Fair is now under systematic progress. Men are out on all rail roads to advertise the Fair in every important town. Banners showing the date from October the 18th to the 18th are displayed low rates of travel are secured; a second premium list is out; a large race programme is prepared; a list of popular and eloquent speeches is prepared; and a very large variety of entertainments of a high order provided—amusements, fun, entertainments, and instructions have all been provided for.

How the Apostles Died.

St. John died a natural death. St. Matthew was killed with a halbert.

Judas "fell and his bowels gushed out."

St. Barnabas was stoned to death by Jews.

Paul was beheaded by command of Nero.

St. Luke was hanged on an olive tree in Greece.

St. Philip was bound and hanged against a pillar.

St. Simon was crucified after the manner of Jesus.

Andrew was bound to a cross, and left to die from exhaustion.

St. James the Great was beheaded by order of Herod at Jerusalem.

St. Bartholomew was flayed to death by command of a barbarous king.

St. Mark was dragged through the streets of Alexandria until he expired.

St. James the Less was thrown from a high pinnacle, then stoned, and finally killed with a fuller's club.

Peter was crucified in Rome, with his head down, on a cross similar to that used in the execution of Jesus.

St. Thomas was shot by a shower of arrows while at prayer, and afterward run through the body with a lance.—St. Louis Republic.

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary a Special Premium.

Alfred Williams & Co. offer the magnificent premium of a Webster's Unabridged Dictionary to the person who can spell the longest time from the Webster spelling book. The contest is open to everybody, and all may study the book before hand as much they choose. The same firm also offers a set of mathematical and drawing instruments for the best specimen of penmanship written in No. 6 of Alfred Williams & Co's North Carolina copy books. All contestants to be of legal school age. Books must bear the name, age and post office address of the owner and be sent or carried to the office of the secretary of the fair before 5 o'clock p. m. October 11th. The spelling contest will be held in the fair buildings Friday, October 17th, at 3 o'clock p. m. At this time the person winning the prize in penmanship will be announced.

Truthful Young Grammarians.

New York Sun.

"John, Charles, William," cried the boys' mother, "where are those peaches I left here?" "In our midst," returned the boys, and when the doctor called that night the mother knew that her little darlings had spoken truthfully as well as with a grammatical accuracy that is not universal.
