In and Around the City.

Registration going on.
Cotton pickers scarce.
Many country people in the city today.
See notice of L. B. Young, administrator.
Regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, will be held tonight. Visiting brethren invited to attend.
Not a line of public interest could be gathered at the Mayor's office today.
We are informed by that efficient guardian of the public peace, Officer Lewellen, that yesterday was an unusually quiet Sunday. No disorder of any kind. Our police generally are an unusually "argus eyed" body and keep a watchful look over the public interest.
Rev. Dr. W. S. Black preached two most excellent sermons on yesterday at Central church. The one in the morning on prayer and at night on the sin of Peter in denying his Lord and Master. The revival influence continues. The services will be continued during the week. Five persons connected themselves with the church on yesterday on profession of faith. We are still looking and praying for greater demonstrations of Divine power. "Praise the Lord all ye his people." T.

Attention I. O. O. F!

A meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, is hereby called for 7:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening next 23d, 1890 to act in conjunction with Manteo Lodge No. 8, in arranging for the reception of Grand Sire Charles M. Busbee.
PHIL THEM, Rec. Sec'y.

Our New Volume.

With this issue, the EVENING VISITOR commences a new volume, being eleven years and six months old. We again make our bow to the public in acknowledgment of past favors, pledging renewed exertions in the future to retain the confidence of our friends and patrons.

Attention Odd Fellows.

There will be a regular meeting of Manteo Lodge No. 8. I. O. O. F. on tomorrow (Tuesday) night September 23rd, at 7 1/2 o'clock sharp. Work in the initiatory degree. The degree staff will please take notice. As this will be the last meeting of the lodge before the return of Grand Sire, C. M. Busbee, every member of the lodge and all Odd Fellows of sister lodges are requested to attend this meeting.

Wake Superior Court.

This tribunal met today at 10:30 o'clock for the trial of criminal causes, Judge Boykin presiding.
The following persons were sworn to serve as grand jurors for the term: N. G. Burns, foreman; R. B. Todd, P. B. Griffis, W. H. Watson, J. M. Roberts, J. R. Mangum, S. C. Hobby, A. B. Lynn, J. S. Ferrell, H. H. Knight, Ananias Jordan, L. S. Yates, C. H. Gooch, J. A. Hood, J. J. Burt, Robt. Fuquay, D. E. Thompson, G. D. Wiggins.
The charge of Judge Boykin was an able one, including in a plain statement the duties devolving upon the jury. It was listened to with marked attention.

While a baby belonging to Mr. L. Fields, of Grant district, Jackson county, W. Va., was playing in the yard, a pig attacked it, and disfigured its head horribly.

Trinity College.

Progress is being rapidly made for the buildings of Trinity College at Durham. Excavation for the main building has been made, and the architect is now at work on the plan for the Scientific building. Work on the machinery building will soon be commenced when President Crowell will go North for the machinery. Several handsome donations have recently been made the college by wealthy gentlemen in different parts of North Carolina.

Colonial Records.

It is understood that our efficient and highly esteemed Secretary of State, Col. W. L. Saunders has about finished the Colonial records of North Carolina, and the copy is now in the hands of the publishers. The task has been no doubt a very arduous one, but it goes without saying that it has been most admirably done. In the execution of this much desired work, Col. Saunders has not only "done the State some service," but has added to his already extended fame for literary work and historic research. The records will be a most valuable addition to the History of the Old North State, which, it must be admitted has heretofore been sadly neglected.

Personal Mention.

Mr. D. S. Waitt has returned from Baltimore.
Mr. Alonza Mial, one of Wake County's most experienced farmers, is in the city.
Miss Mamie Birdsong has returned to the city, from a pleasant visit to friends in South Carolina.
Mr. Mack Page, of Morrisville, is in the city.
Messrs. A. B. Marshburn of Middle Creek, H. T. Norris, of Apex, and Dr. L. M. Sorrell, of Flint, are in the city, attending the Superior Court.
Prof. E. McK. Goodwin of the Deaf and Dumb and Blind Institution gave an interesting lecture to the Graded School at Tarboro last week.

Items of Interest.

A new court house is to be erected at Morgantown, W. Va., at a cost of $52,428.
It is proposed to appropriate $500,000 to improve the street and sewerage of Roanoke, Va.
D. F. Burner, of Page county, Va., realized $600 in cash from six acres planted in watermelons.
Wythe county, Va., shows an increase of $555,271 in values compared with the assessment of 1885.
An ice manufacturing plant has just been inaugurated at Winston, N. C., with a paid in capital of $25,000.
James Williams, a brakeman on the Virginia Midland Road, was killed at Lynchburg, Va., while coupling cars.
The funds for the completion of the Orange Keysville railroad in Rockingham county, Va., have at last been secured.

The wife of Conway Coles, of Rowlett's, Prince George county, Va., committed suicide by jumping into the Appomattox.

The real estate assessment of Richmond, Va., for 1890, just completed, shows a gain over the last assessment in 1885 of $6,514,642.

A. M. Lovelace, surveyor, of Cleveland county, N. C., was struck by lightning and so injured that it is thought he cannot live.

An engineer corps of the Norfolk and Western Railroad is surveying a line between Bristol and Chattanooga. It is believed the extension will be built.

There is a sore throat epidemic prevalent in Georgetown, Kent county, Md., which the doctors deny being diphtheria, but there were three deaths from it last week.

Peter Mouse was attacked by two tramps at his residence near Martinsburg, W. Va., and but for the timely arrival of his neighbors his escape from the desperadoes would have been impossible.

The State convention of the Virginia Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Norfolk on the 23d of next month in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association. Rev. Francis Murphy, the well known Christian temperance evangelist, will be in attendance.

Prominent People.

Senator Sanders, of Montana, always attends pugilistic exhibitions.
Wade Evans, the only known survivor of the Custer massacre, is in camp.
Sir Henry Isaacs, lord mayor of London, has two deaf and dumb daughters, both grown up.
Justice Bradley, of the U. S. Supreme Court, amuses himself making almanacs.

The Danish King's crown is worth $135,000, the Queen's crown $17,000 and the sword of state.

Major Wm. G. Moore, chief of the Washington police, was private secretary to President Andrew Johnson.

Mayor Hart, of Boston, receives from a street railway company in that city 5,000 free tickets weekly for charitable uses.

Dr. Belle Smith, the resident physician at the woman's prison, in Sherborn, Mass., is only twenty three years of age.

Ex President Legitime, of Hayti, who is now in Paris, is busy writing up a history of the events which lead to his downfall.

Bismarck's wife is expert with the needle and is famous as a cook. She is also remarkable for her simple piety and charities.

Rider Haggard's first book was a complete failure. It was "Cetewayo and His White Neighbor." He made $10 on his second "Dawn."

Miss Minnie Trueblood, president of the Equal Suffrage Association of Kokomo, Ind., is one of the chief dry goods merchants of that city.

Lord Tennyson is said to have recited "The Charge of the Light Brigade" and the "Ode on the death of the Duke of Wellington" into a photograph.

The oldest Sister of Mercy in America is Mother Seton, of the New York Convent of Mercy, who is over ninety. Her father died in 1800. Her mother a convert, founded the Order of the Sisters of Charity at Emmitsburg.

Oscar Wilde plays on the piano. He says when he is at work on a Chopin selection he feels as though he had been crying over sins that he had never committed.

Cyrus W. Field is fond of raising poultry. At his country estate, at Ardsley, on the Hudson, he has 2,000 chickens and 650 ducks. His flocks yield over 3,000 dozen eggs yearly.

Cost of Advertising.

Danville Advocate.

A single page in an issue of the Century taken for advertising purposes costs $50, and in Harper's $400, and other magazines $800 down to $100. A yearly advertisement in one column of the Chicago Tribune costs $26,564 for the lowest and $85,000 for the highest; in the New York Herald $38,204 is the lowest and $130,000 for the highest priced columns. These figures will doubtless be of interest to men who invest $1 and $2 in advertising in their home paper, and then flatter themselves with the idea that they are extensive and liberal advertisers.

Corsets.

Are you interested in corsets? I imagine I hear you say yes, indeed I am. Well probably you were not aware of this fact, but early in the month of August we conferred with a corset factory and made a contract for a mighty large assortment of corsets of all grades and they have arrived and now we can show the largest and most complete stock of corsets, comprising all the desirable corsets on the market and the price is right and you will like it.

A WORD ABOUT JEWELRY.

We are carrying the best stock of jewelry to be found in this town. We mean plated jewelry. Anything you may want in the jewelry line can be had at our store, and not at Jeweler's price, but at Swindell's price. Honor us with your presence, please.

Yours to command,
SWINDELL.

In order to test the comparative merits of the various newspaper advertising mediums, and at the same time benefit the readers thereof, we shall consider this advertisement for one dollar in payment toward purchase of $20 or more worth of goods, if cut out and presented at time of purchase either in person or by mail.
