The lot on which stands the old Standard building on Fayetteville street, was sold at auction yesterday, for $4,200. Mrs. John Gatling was the purchaser.

Mr. W. A. Sturdivant, of St Mary's Township, showed us today a very rare old coin; it was an English coin made in the year 1720, during the reign of George the Second.

Mr. H. B. Byrd, who assisted Steve Jacobs to escape from Robeson county jail, was captured in Columbia, S. C., and has been brought back to said county for trial.

The meeting at Central Methodist Church is still increasing in interest. There was a large number of penitents at the Altar last night, and one conversion. The congregations are large and unusually attentive to the preaching of the Gospel, which is accompanied with divine power and unction. Dr. Nash is as fresh as when the meeting began. May the good work go on until the whole city is blessed by its power and influence.

Enterprise.

The Wilmington Messenger commenced in its issue of the 26th inst. full reports of the meetings of Rev. Sam Jones now going on in that city. The full series of the paper, including back numbers, may be obtained, and will be mailed to any address on receipt of fifty cents. This is a splendid chance for all who desire them, to secure these most admirable sermons.

A Fine School

Capt. Denson of the Morson & Denson High School informed us today that they have now enrolled ninety eight students all of whom are worthy of the name. They are expecting several more first of next week. The school is now working finely. We can truthfully say, that this is one of the best schools in the State and is worthy of liberal patronage. Mr. Spillman, a graduate of Wake Forest College and very highly recommended by the faculty of said college, is now actively engaged as an assistant in this school. He is doing good work, and proving himself to be a teacher of high merit.

No wife beater can vote in Mississippi when the new law goes into effect. This will materially reduce the popular vote.

Metropolitan Hall.

The Tennyson and Dawson's Grand Gift Carnival and Specialty Company will begin their one weeks engagement at the Metropolitan Opera House Monday night. Lynchburg Advance says:

The week's engagement of Tennyson and Dawson's Grand Gift Carnival and Specialty Company opened at the Opera House last night to a large audience. The programme, which was varied, embraced singing, dancing, character acting, ventriloquism and other amusing specialties, and each part was excellently rendered. The wonderful magical feats of Prof. Morphet were superior to anything of their kind ever seen here, and altogether the show affords more fun and interest than any that has occupied our boards for some time. It is clever and refined in every particular.

A feature of the entertainment was the distribution of presents, a vast number of useful and ornamental articles being given among the audience, many worth several times the price of admission. This feature, together with the excellent character of the show, should, and we hope will, draw crowded houses all the week. Be sure to go Monday night, enjoy several hours of solid fun and see what kind of a prize you will draw—it may be the very thing you need.

The presents given away will be on exhibition in front of the hall day of show.

He Had a Wide Margin for Gratitude.

Baptist.
Of the late Bishop Ames the following anecdote is told: While presiding over a certain conference in the West, a member began a tirade against the universities and education, thanking God that he had never been corrupted by contact with a college. After proceeding thus for a few minutes, the bishop interrupted with the question, "Do I understand that the brother thanks God for his ignorance?" "Well, yes," was the answer, "you can put it that way if you want." "Well, all I have to say," said the bishop, in his sweetest musical tone—"all I have to say is that the brother has a good deal to thank God for."

No Love Lost.

This is how a person took leave of his parishioners in a town in the far West: "Dearly beloved: Our parting does not seem to me hard, for three reasons: You do not love me, you do not love each other and the Lord does not love you. If you loved me you would have paid me for my services during the past two years. You do not love each other, otherwise I should have more marriages to celebrate, and the Lord does not love you, for otherwise He would call more of you to Him and I should have more funeral services to conduct. His parishioners did not press their pastor to stay.

Josh Billings Philosophy.

New York Weekly.
It is dreadful easy tew mistake what we think for what we know; this iz the way that most ov the lies git born that are traveling around loose.

Ambishun iz like a tread wheel—it knows no limits; yu no sooner git tew the end ov it then you begin again.

We are never in more danger of begin laft at than when we are laffing at others.

Free living leads tew free thinking, free thinking leads tew free loving, and free loving leads to the devil.

It iz az hard work to make a weak man upright az it iz an empty bag. Good breeding seems tew be the art of being superior tew most people, and equal tew all, without letting them know it.

Children are like vines; they will kimb the pole you set up for them, be it krocked or state.
