lies. Mr. Harrison will exhibit these n the Fair grounds, and offer the to the already long list of blooded

Jersey cows and heifers; for sale, registered.

Appointment.

The Washington Post has the following:

The appointment of General V. D.
Groner by the Executive Committee of the World's Fair as chairman of the Transportation Committee gives great satisfaction to the Norfolk friends of this wide awake gentleman, and is a compliment that Virginians will appreciate. General Groner will probably also be given the chairmanship of the Hampton Roads review. The bigger the position of responsibility he is placed in the more at home he will feel.

General Groner is an uncle of Mrs.
R. H. Womble, of this city.

Married.

BOBBITT—HERVEY—Last night at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride on McDowell Street, Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, D. D., led to the Hymenal altar Miss Hattie M. Hervey, both of this city.
The ceremony was performed by Rev.
W. S. Black, D. D., in the presence of relations and friends of the contracting parties. After the marriage, the party enjoyed a wedding supper at the house of the groom, corner of Hargett and Dawson streets.

Dr. Bobbitt is a prominent member of the N. C. Conference, and was the former owner and editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. P. E. Hervey and a lady universa-ly esteemed in our city. The VIS-TOR extends the most cordial congratulations.

A Pleasant Visit.

We had a very pleasant call this morning from Prof. T. Wood, who was formerly professor and lecturer of the Ingram Collegiate Institute, Le Roy, N. Y., and Glenwood Ladies Seminary, West Brattleboro, Vt. Prof.
Wood was for many years sole professor of music in all the public schools of Albany, N. Y., and director of music in the Fourth Presbyterian Church during the ministerial administration of Rev. Henry Manderville and others. Although Prof. Wood came to our State for the benefit of his health, yet he offers his services to the public as a teacher of instrumental and vocal music. His address for the present is at Pine Bluff, Moore county, N. C. We are pleased to learn from him that he is exceedingly well pleased with North Carolina and our people, since his residence which has been for some months, arriving from New York State. We give him a most cordial welcome.

Balloon Ascensions.

The managers of the State Fair after long and careful correspondence, have closed a contract with Prof. H.
R. Ward for three ascensions and three parachute leaps. As a guarantee that all is in good faith, Prof.
Ward has deposited fifty dollars in the Citizens National Bank as a forfeit; not against the weather, but as an assurance that he will be here.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 1st, 1890.

DEAR SIR:—We have received from H. R. Ward a check for fifty dollars, drawn by G. N. Bowman & Co., on Chase National Bank, of New York, to his order, and endorsed by him to us to be held as a forfeit. The check to be handed to J. T. Patrick, if Ward should fail to appear to make a balloon ascension.

Yours truly,
JOS. G. BROWN.

Educational Meeting.

A meeting of the educators and friends of education in North Carolina will be held at Commons Hall in the City of Raleigh, Thursday, October the 16th, at 8 o'clock. It is understood that something practical will grow out of this meeting. Several definite propositions looking to our educational advancement will be considered and attention will be given to any questions affecting the States educational interests intending to be brought before the next Legislature.

The most prominent educators in the State will be present and several of them have been invited to address the meeting upon subjects which will be published before hand in the program. Any who may be present will be gladly heard. Prof. G. T. Winston will preside and make the opening address.

All Presidents of colleges and Institutes, male and female, all teachers and professors in private schools, all County Superintendants and common school teachers of Institutions of learning and all persons who are actively engaged in promoting education in this State are invited to seats on the floor of the Hall and to participate in all the proceedings.

The time of the convention has been selected with a view to suiting the convenience of visitors to the annual State Fair, many of whom will undoubtedly be glad to assist the work of the convention by their presence and counsels. Teachers and others who come for this work will likewise be enabled to see the fair and to travel at greatly reduced rates.

Let every town in the State send its best teacher to the convention.
Committee:—E. G. Harrell, Hugh Morson, E. P. Moses.

Metropolitan Hall.

Last night another large audience greeted Messrs. Tennyson & Dawson's gift show at Metropolitan Hall, and, as usual were highly delighted.
Among the most pleasing features was the elog dancing of "Little Nellie," which brought down the house.
The prizes drawn were as follows:
cooking stove, by Charles Johnson, colored, pair of elegant vases by Jas.
Bashford; water set by Miss Annie L.
Brown. To night the great crenation feat will be performed by Mr.
Morphet. Let the house be crowded.

Personal Mention.

Mr. John R. Ferral, of the firm of John R. Ferral & Co., left yesterday for New York and other northern cities to purchase his fall and winter stock of heavy and fancy groceries.
They propose to have in stock by the State Fair one of the most complete stocks of goods they ever handled.
This enterprising firm is always abreast of the times.

Mrs. David Holt is very ill at her residence on South West street.

Mr. D. T. Swindell left yesterday for New York; he received a telegram to come on to attend a large auction sale of dry goods and clothing. He expects to carry the largest stock he has ever had for this fall and winter's trade. He says his business is rapidly increasing in this city.

P. T. Massey, Esq., of Johnston was in the city today.

Miss Jesse Lewellen, of Durban, is in the city.

Dr. J. J. Mott is in the city.

Mrs. Bettie Blackwood Thompson and little son of Chapel Hill are visiting Miss Rowena Thompson, 215 West Jones street.

Marriage at Morrisville.

WILLIAMS—MAYNARD.—A warmer hearted, more hospitable and clever citizenship than the residents of the village of Morrisville does not exist.
This has been our opinion for some time, but it was made "more binding" by a short trip we made there yesterday and the warm welcome we received.

Our visit was one of pure pleasure, mainly to attend the nuptial ceremonies of two of our best friends, Mr.
Charles E. Williams, one of Wake's most solid, steady and successful young men to Miss Pennie Maynard, one of Morrisville's sweetest young ladies, and daughter of Rev. J. R.
Maynard. The marriage took place at the residence of the brides parents at 6 o'clock p. m. and it seemed as if Morrisville had turned out en masse to witness the ceremony and to wish them bon voyage in their journey matrimonial.

The ceremony was most impressively performed by the Rev. N. B. Cobb, of Cary, and the following were the attendants:

Mr. J. W. Cooper and Miss M. Loda Page; Dr. J. M. Ayer and Miss Emma Howard; Mr. Kim W. Weathers and Miss N. Cora Page.

After the ceremony the bride and groom boarded the train for their home near Asbury, accompanied by quite a number of the party, and a most brilliant reception was given them and a very pleasant evening was spent. We believe this is only the forerunner of another marriage that will transpire at Morrisville in the near future, and that Raleigh will be the home of the bride next time, if the signs of the Weather(s) is to be believed, and that there will be a Page missing from the history of Morrisville.

Three Rabbits Shot at one Time by a One Armed Man.

Danville Register.
Mr. John S. Robertson has only one arm but that is a steady one and with it he can do some excellent shooting.
A few days ago he was out gunning, and three rabbits sprang up before him, running closely together. Mr.
Robertson levelled his gun, fired quickly, and down tumbled all three of the animals. It was not a specially good day rabbits, but it was not bad shooting for a one armed man.

Singing Money Out of 'Em.

Religious Herald.

The best way to get money out of some people's pockets is to sing it out. We saw that tried at the dedication in Bluefield. When we reached a point beyond which it seemed that not another dollar could be raised the congregation was asked to sing "The Crowning Day is Coming," and at once, without another word, one after another came forward with contributions in their hands and tears in their eyes. When asked "What moves you now?" an old brother replied:
"Oh, the crowning day is coming."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

Dress Goods and Trimmings have never been cheaper than they are this season. At 10 cents we have some of the nicest plaids and shawls. At 12 cents a line of diagonals in all the fall shades. At 15 cents we can show any quantity of solids, plaids, stripes and figured dress goods. For 20 and 25 cents per yard you can get nice plaids, stripes and solids, and some of these are all wool. They just can't be beat at the prices, and the styles are just as good as many of the higher priced dress goods.

A Man Today in Rich Array, Tomorrow May be Laid in Clay.

And on the other hand a man today in poor array, tomorrow may have better if he only has a limited amount to spend. The main thing is to know where to spend your money so that the least outlay will do you the most good. We don't mind telling you where you can spend your money so that it will do you the most good, that is, of course if you don't know. There are several reasons why we are that place: We carry as large a stock of the best goods as you find any where; we buy our goods always for cash; we ask no time, we always take the discount; we buy our goods for less money than most people do, because we know how; we sell our goods at a closer profit than two thirds of the others do; we sell more goods at as little expense as any one else does; we always have new goods to sell you; we don't keep anything until it gets old; we work for your interest in every way, for your interest is our interest.

SWINDELL.

In order to test the comparative merits of the various newspaper advertising mediums, and at the same time benefit the readers thereof, we shall consider this advertisement for one dollar in payment toward purchase of $20 or more worth of goods, if cut out and presented at time of purchase either in person or by mail.

Wraps BARGAINS AND UNDERVALUES

We thus early, are going to offer some of the greatest values, in Ladies, Misses, and Childrens' wraps, that have ever been offered in Raleigh.
These are wraps carried from last season, and we wish to sell this lot first.
We have probably $1,500 or $2,000 worth in this particular line, and to dispose of these, at once, we will offer them at prices, LESS THAN THE CLOTH IN THE GARMENTS COST.

The styles of many of these are almost identical to the new styles now being opened. These wraps are marked in plain figures, and are on sale in our bargain and undervalue department.

This is an opportunity never before offered in this city, at the beginning of a season, to buy wraps in good styles, and at such low prices. Wraps from this lot once sold cannot be duplicated at any thing near the prices we are now selling them at, so it is to your interest to buy at once.

Now, we do not wish any one to infer from this, that we are not going to have any wraps besides these, because we are, and have already begun opening the new stock, of which we will tell you more about, a little later.
