Spring weather.

One week to the Fair.

Go to the Church of the Good Shepherd tonight.

The VISITOR is booming. Now is the time to subscribe and bring in your advertisements.

Interesting services were held at the Union Mission last night. Two penitents knelt for prayer, and much interest was manifested in the meeting. Services every night.

Regular meeting of Manteo Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F. tonight at 7:30 o'clock; first degree will be conferred; the candidates for this degree are earnestly requested to attend promptly. Visiting brethren are invited to attend.

The Board of Commissioners of the County of Wake met today, and decided to postpone the appointment of the poll-holders until tomorrow morning.

Sheriff J. Rowan Rogers is anxious to write you a receipt for your taxes for 1890. Please look after the matter and save trouble and expense.

Attention, Governors Guards.

You are hereby ordered to meet in your Army at 8 o'clock, for drill Wednesday, October 8th; Friday, October 10th; and Tuesday, October 14th. By order of the Captain.

S. W. HEWIN, 1st, Sergeant.

Personal Mention.

Mr. J. J. Christophers is no better today.

Senator Ransom spent part of the day here yesterday.

Mrs. R. H. Jones, of Durham, is visiting the family of Armistead Jones, Esq.

Mr. M. D. W. Stevenson and Mr. C. Manly, from New Berne, are attending the Supreme court.

Mr. A. S. Frank, of Baltimore, Md., is at the Yarbrow House, and is well versed in the Chinese language.

We are glad to announce that Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall is improving, and from present indications he will be able to be out in a few days.

The condition of Mrs. W. N. Snelling, who has been so very ill, we are glad to say, has somewhat improved since yesterday.

State Fair Programme.

ARRANGING SPACE AND PLACING EXHIBITS.

All persons who expect to have charge of exhibits must select their space, and have all carpenter work completed by Saturday evening, Oct. 11th. The necessary work of arranging for exhibition must be commenced Wednesday, October 8th.

Baby Show at The State Fair.

There will be given to the largest girl baby 5 months old, a handsome cloak, donated by Messrs McKimmon, Moseley & McGee; and to the handsomest boy baby from 8 to 10 months old, a handsome carriage, donated by Messrs A. G. Rhodes & Co. All baby entries must be made by 3 o'clock p. m. on Tuesday, October 14th, and be on the Fair Grounds not later than 8:30 p. m.

Public Speaking at the Court House.

Col L. L. Polk, President Farmers National Alliance and Laborer Union of America introduced Mr. Livingston President State Farmers Alliance of Georgia, who spoke for more than an hour and a half. His speech was a good one—he took a high ground and gave advice which it would be well for our people to follow. It would make us better and happier.

A Great Opportunity in Vocal Music.

Prof. Thos. Wood is teaching vocal music at the Baptist Tabernacle every night this week and everybody is invited to attend the exercises. No charge is made and every young man and young lady and lovers of music in Raleigh should take advantage of this opportunity. Prof. Wood is an instructor of musical merit and in his long experience has so simplified the rudiments of music that all may reap its great benefits. The following notice of him which we copy from the Monitor published at Schenectady, N. Y., will give some idea of his work.

Prof. P. Wood, who came here to hold a Musical Convention one week ago, has completely electrified our entire people, not only the village folks, but for miles around, and nightly the church is filled with young and old. Those who never tried to sing before and those who had grown rusty, the skilled musicians and teachers all find inspiration and enjoyment under the Professor's novel and simplified method of instruction. The Convention commenced with 50 working members, has grown to over 100, while many are being educated to a higher appreciation, as listeners to the grand music that is nightly sung by a hundred voices. Our community, before the advent of the Professor, that had lain dormant for years like a smouldering fire, has been kindled into a conflagration by him, and we hope to continue it for all time to come. Sunday night praise meeting drew the largest crowd that has been seen out for a long time, and for three hours were held spellbound. But Prof. Wood is decidedly a "people's man," and works for the greatest good to the number.

Special Trains.

Special trains on the R. & D. R. R., for the North Carolina State Fair at Raleigh, N. C., will be run on October 14th, 15th and 16th. A train will leave Goldsboro at 8:30 a. m., and arrive at Raleigh at 10:55 a. m., returning leave Raleigh at 4:10 p. m., arrive at Goldsboro at 6:30 p. m. Special train will leave Greensboro 8:00 a. m., (after arrival of regular passenger trains from Charlotte and all points south of Greensboro and from Winston Salem,) arriving at Raleigh at 11:30 a. m., returning. This train leaves Raleigh at 6:30 p. m., and arrive at Greensboro at 9:50 p. m. Special train will also be run from Keysville, Va. via Oxford and Durham leaving Keysville at 5:50 a. m., arriving at Durham in time to connect with special from Greensboro reaching Raleigh at 11:30 a. m., and returning leave Raleigh at 6:30 p. m., arriving in Keysville at 12 o'clock night. All trains stop to deliver and receive passengers on main line opposite Fair Grounds. W. A. TURK.

A Correction.

In our issue a few days ago an article appeared of the "opening of the Soldiers' Home" and read that Capt. J. J. Ferrell was elected Superintendent, when it should have read Capt. J. J. Terrell, formerly of Rolesville, N. C., a most excellent gentleman, and in every way fitted for the position. The Home is situated on the corner of Polk and East streets in the Northeastern portion of the city. Mr. W. C. Stronach, Secretary, will gladly receive any donation of any article of house furnishing goods or of provisions for use at the Home. We hope the friends will bear this in mind and respond liberally.

A Rhode Island man left all his money—about $40,000—to the African missionary work and not a cent to his relatives, some of whom were very poor. The will was contested and broken, the law holding that he must have been crazy when he wrote it. A law which won't let a man make a fool of himself is a good law.—Detroit Free Press.

The Industrial Parade.

Several parties who are confidently expected to join in the parade have not yet sent in their names. There are several of them, and if they will, they can add largely to the attractiveness of the occasion.

The following is the list so far:
W. C. & A. B. Stronach.
A. Williams & Co.
Edwards & Broughton.
State Chronicle.
W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.
S. & D. Berwanger.
A. G. Rhodes & Co. (two floats).
The Tobacco Interest of Raleigh. (several floats).
N. C. Car Works.
E. F. Wyatt & Son.
W. P. Pickett & Co., Tobacconists of High Point.
Jones & Powell.
North Carolina Wagon Factory.
A. E. Jordan (Royal Germeteur, two or three floats).
D. W. C. Harris.

There are many other manufacturing establishments and business houses who are being anxiously waited for. Let them come right in.

MEETING TONIGHT.

There will be a trades procession meeting tonight in the Grimes building, and everybody interested is earnestly requested to attend.

Nobby Overcoats.

Every young man when he concludes to invest in an overcoat, naturally wants a nice and nobby overcoat and no other kind will fill the bill; it must be nobby and it must be nice. Now my trip to New York last week was to attend the clearing out sale of Naumbrig, Krouse, Lawen & Co., who are the largest manufacturers of fine clothing in the U. S., and they have a sale once a year. They make no common goods; we bought largely at this sale of overcoats and men's pants. Will you examine these goods or do you prefer to pay a great deal more for inferior goods? Our dress goods department is doing a humming business this fall. While North I found a big lot of carpets, which the owner was willing to part with at a sacrifice and I bought, although I did not need them—they are dandies. At SWINDELL'S.

In order to test the comparative merits of the various newspaper advertising mediums, and at the same time benefit the readers thereof, we shall consider this advertisement for one dollar in payment toward purchase of $20 or more worth of goods, if cut out and presented at time of purchase either in person or by mail.
