LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

The circus comes next.
Raleigh looks lonesome.
Slight frost this morning.
The coal pyramid at the fair was an object of much attraction.

Very few country people in the city to day. They are quieting off after the fair.

Col. James E. Boyd, of Greensboro will deliver an address at the court house tonight at 7:30 o'clock on the political issues of the day.

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the colored fair which commences next Tuesday.

Is it not as plain as anything can be, that Raleigh needs another first class hotel?

A delightful reception was given by the young ladies of Peace Institute last night to the visiting students of the University, Wake Forest and Trinity Colleges. It was a most enjoyable time.

Those Fine "Pilgrim Brand" of Tomatoes, Peas, &c., which Mr. D. T. Johnson had on exhibition at our Fair, have been sold to Rev. Bennett Smedes, Principal of St. Marys School; amount realized will be turned over to Mr. Stronach for the benefit of the Soldiers' home. These goods were donated by Messrs Sharp & Perkins, of New York; said firm being represented here by Mr. O. J. Carrol.

Norris' Dry Goods Store.

Shows pretty ladies shoes at $1.50 and $2.00; and the best gents' shoe for $2.00 on the market.

Baptist Tabernacle.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, the pastor, will preach tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. There will be no services at night. Mr. Jonathan Wood will preach at the Mission Chapel on Swain street at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Z. B. Vance is in the city.
Mr. John Munson is in the city.
Col. A. M. McPheeters has returned from a business trip to Baltimore.
Mr. N. L. Brown, of this city, has accepted a position as book keeper with Messrs. Eberhardt & Pescud where he will be pleased to see his friends. Mr. Brown is a most accomplished book keeper and one of our most popular citizens. We congratulate the firm upon securing his valuable services.

The Colored Fair.

The Annual Fair of the Colored Industrial Association of North Carolina will commence in this city next Tuesday. Governor Fowle will deliver the opening address. On Wednesday, Rev. A. G. Davis, will deliver an address of welcome, and on Thursday, an address will be delivered by E. E. Smith, Ex-Minister to Siberia. The prizes to be awarded will amount to over $300. Rates at one cent a mile will be allowed over the different rail roads.

Concert.

Prof. Gruber and family, well known throughout the State as most accomplished musicians will give a concert on Monday night next at Metropolitan Hall. They are just from Maryland and Washington, D. C., and have had large audiences everywhere. They have Mr. Claude Powers, a fine singer, with them, making the number nine in the family. The troupe has improved, and little Josie, three year old, is a little charm. The price of admission will be 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats can be secured at McRae's Drugstore.

Fearful Cyclone.

A terrible cyclone prevailed in Robeson county, last Thursday. It passed just west of Maxton about 4 o'clock in the afternoon; its direction was nearly north. Fortunately its track was not wide. At Floral College, the belfry of the Presbyterian Church was demolished, the beautiful grove was ruined, a house occupied by colored people was blown down and three colored children were injured—one seriously, if not fatally. McKinnon's saw mill was demolished; and one man there was seriously injured.

At Hasty, a small town on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley railroad, about eight miles from Maxton and twelve miles from Bennettsville S. C., four tenement houses occupied by colored people were blown down and one colored man is reported killed and several persons injured.

Trees and fences in the track of the storm were levelled with the ground.

Come and Gone.

The Annual State Fair of 1890, has come and gone and left behind it many reminders. That it was a great success, no one denies. In fact, it has come up and even beyond the highest expectations. It is due to candor, to state that the exhibits were not as numerous as on some former occasions but they were a fair average. So far as the attendance of people is concerned, we must think the record was splendid. It is a source of much gratification to note that the week has passed off without the slightest accident of any kind to mar the occasion. Although our city was thronged with people representing almost every sphere of life, the utmost good order prevailed. This speaks well for us, and will have its influence on all future occasions. Today has been passed at the grounds in sending off articles, and on Monday the place will resume its usual quiet for the next twelve months.

Another Hotel.

It was apparent to almost every observer during the present week, that Raleigh is lacking in hotel facilities, sufficient to properly accommodate the large crowds that frequently come to our city. Those who noted the many persons during Wednesday and Thursday evenings last, eagerly enquiring for hotel conveniences must be convinced that there is a sad deficiency in this respect.

We are totally unable to account for the backwardness of some of our leading financial citizens in respect to building a new hotel. It does seem that there could not be any better ordinary investment. We hope this matter will receive the attention of our Chamber of Commerce, and, that at an early day we may be enabled to announce that Raleigh is to have another establishment which will do credit to herself as the Capital of North Carolina. Let us be no longer subjected to adverse criticism upon the subject.

Two Handsome New Churches.

Charlotte News.

Two of the prettiest churches to be seen in any city, North or South, are now in course of erection in Charlotte. One is the Associate Reformed, at the corner of Third and Tryon streets, and the other is the Episcopal, corner of Seventh and Tryon streets. The walls of both are now under way. They are built in the latest design of church architecture, and are not only large and roomy, but exceedingly handsome and imposing in appearance. Brown stone and dark colored brick predominate in the Episcopal building, while terra cotta brick and granite trimmings characterize the Associate Reformed church. When these two churches are completed, Charlotte's claim to the handsomest churches of any city in the State (and more of them) will be still further strengthened.

New Dress Goods at Swindell's.

We received during the past week, several new designs in nice dress goods in worsted plaids, also a considerable lot of different styles of black silk dress goods. We also added largely to our millinery department in some of the new shapes in French felt hats and frames; and in our clothing department we received quite a lot of black Melton suits, those new nobby styles. All the new things can be had at Swindell's.

In order to test the comparative merits of the various newspaper advertising mediums, and at the same time benefit the readers thereof, we shall consider this advertisement for one dollar in payment toward purchase of $20 or more worth of goods, if cut out and presented at time of purchase either in person or by mail.
