Index to New Advertisements.

In and Around the City.

The city is again quiet
And now look out for frost.
Somewhat cooler this morning.
See advertisement in this issue for bids for passenger station in this city.
The churches yesterday were well attended.
Mr. J. N. Hubbard received $25, second money in race No. 6.
Miss Eula Edwards, of this city was awarded first premium for ladies' work (under 16 years of age.)

A good many persons remained over from the Fair last week and left for their respective homes today.
A colored company from Charlotte arrived in the city this afternoon to go into camp here.
Tomorrow night Messrs C. B. Aycock and ex Senator D. E. McIver will address the democrats of the 2d ward.
Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon will commence a series of meetings tonight in the Sunday School room at Edenton Street Church which will be continued nightly through the week.
Messrs. Latta & Myatt have just completed two very handsome residences on South Person street. They add very much to the beauty of that portion of the city.
Hiram Lodge No. 40 A. F. & A. M. will meet in regular communication this evening at 7 o'clock. A full meeting of the membership is earnestly desired. Brethren of sister lodges cordially invited.
E. B. THOMAS, Sec.

The city is quiet today—the last of the visitors to the fair are making their way homeward; we wish all a safe return home, and that they will all come to see us again at the next fair.

The colored fair opens tomorrow. We hope our people will go out to the grounds as they will have a very creditable exhibit; in some departments very good and shows great progress is being made by our colored citizens. We hope the fair may be a financial success.

The Wake county candidates spoke today at Holly Springs. The canvass closes next Saturday at Garner. While great interest is felt as to the result, we believe in the meantime good feeling has existed; both sides claim they will win the victory. Tuesday, November the 4th, will decide.

Ludden & Bates took the silver medal on their "Mason and Hamlin" piano. They could not exhibit any more on account of their goods arriving too late to be placed on exhibit. Mr. W. H. Bragg is their agent in this city, and he will be glad to see you and tell you of the merits of their goods.

Mr. Jos. E. Pogue was awarded the premium for the best display of manufactured tobacco. His display was very handsomely arranged, indeed it was the best we have ever seen. He deserves much credit for the labor and expense in making it; he was also awarded the premium for the best box of manufactured tobacco.

Messrs. Johnson & Barber had one of the nicest displays of furniture at the State Fair we ever saw. The bedroom set was a beauty. They sold the same for two hundred and twenty five dollars. No need to send North for your fine furniture; you can get it right here in the city from our own enterprising dealers, Messrs. Johnson & Barber.

A Provident Colored Citizen.

Patrick Spencer an old and well known colored citizen of Raleigh, who died recently, held a Policy in the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, for one thousand dollars; and on Saturday Col. F. H. Cameron, the company's Superintendent gave his widow a draft for the amount due.

Norris' Dry Goods Store.

The way our many friends and customers crowd our store, and give us hearty handshakes and warm words of good cheer, is a very safe guarantee that our efforts are being appreciated. Our moderate prices on everything, and solid representation of goods just as they are, are inducements that render merchantile life a pleasure both to the buyer and the seller.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Henry O. Sedbury and daughter Miss Marion left this morning for their home in Fayetteville.

C. H. Belvin, Esq., is out of the city. Mr. Ovid Penny who has been quite sick for some time with typhoid fever has so far recovered as to be able to come out to the city today. We hope soon to see him back at his old place at McKimmon & Co., druggists.

Collector E. A. White is out of the city visiting his old home in Perquimans county. Will be absent for several days.

Hon. John C. Scarborough is confined to his home, on South Bloodworth street, with sickness.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall has so far recovered as to be able to preach one sermon at the Tabernacle yesterday. He reports today no bad results from his work and believes that with care in a few weeks his health will be better than it has been for some past. This will be good news to his church and the host of friends he has made since he has been in our city.

Dr. C. E. Taylor, President of Wake Forest College, is in the city, and will leave tomorrow evening for the Anson Association. He says he is making good progress for the endowment of the college under the Bostwick proposition. We wish him much success.

We are glad to say that Mrs. W. N. Snelling, who has been so very ill for several weeks is slowly improving; indeed is convalescing. Her friends believe that with care she will regain her former health.

Mr. J. H. Gill returned Saturday afternoon from an extended trip through South West Virginia, where he visited several booming towns and made some investments. He returned via Washington City, where he went to the White House to call upon the President, but failed to see him as he was not at home.

Returned.
Mr. S. M. Parish returned Saturday from Greensboro where he attended a meeting of the State and National Prohibition Executive Committee, together with many friends of the cause, and reports a very harmonious meeting. Over $1,200 were raised for campaign work. The State Executive Committee is instructed to put a good man in the field at once to canvass the State and organize Prohibition Clubs in every locality. He says good and definite work will now be done on this line; that the Prohibitionists are both hopeful and enthusiastic. Quite a number of counties are organized and will vote for the ticket strong.

The nominees for Wake county are as follows:
Senate—S. M. Parish.
House—Sion Holloman, A. H. Yearby, W. W. Johnson, and C. N. Hunter.

Clerk—A. K. Weathers, of Cary.
Sheriff—J. R. Langston, Auburn.
Register—Wesley House, House's Creek.
Treasurer—A. Carter, Barton's Creek.
Congress—Dr. J. M. Templeton, of Cary.

Central Methodist Church.

Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash, pastor, preached two excellent sermons yesterday; one at 11 o'clock, and the other at 7:30 p. m. The sermon in the morning, was taken from Hebrews, 6th chapter and 1st and 2nd verses. Theme, "Going on to perfection." The one at night was from 1st Kings, 3th chapter and 18th verse. The congregations were good and very attentive.

The Opportunity of the Hour.

The Sunday Hill Herald, one of the influential journals of the State of New York, copies the following from the Mount Holly News, with this heading:

"IN THE NORTH STATE—CAPTIVATING THE HOSPITABLE SOUTHERNERS."

Professor Theodore Wood, formerly of Sandy Hill, N. Y., a gentleman of rare attainments, having impaired his health by arduous labor, seeks to regain his loss in the mild climate of our State and with his invalid wife has become a resident of Pine Bluff, and intends to make North Carolina his future home. He came to Mt. Holly and lectured in the Lutheran Church and, by invitation, organized a select class in vocal and instrumental music.

In five lessons and lectures he has given he has accomplished what many a man has failed to do in a lifetime, completely captivated our people, who are simply amazed at what has been accomplished. His class under his instruction will close with a grand concert July 31st and August 1st with a chorus of forty singers, an orchestra four violins, cello, two organs, piano, drum, chimes, etc. The concert will be the most unique ever given in North Carolina. We predict the professor will have very little time to regain health from labor when it is known what a master of music there is available in this section of the State. The community that can secure the professor's services will be blessed indeed."

Professor Wood whose second term at the Tabernacle Church commences this evening, is certainly winning golden opinions from all who are attending his lectures—as well others who come in contact with him, outside the musical course of instruction. He is certainly an accomplished Christian gentleman. Go and hear him.

Are we to Have Another Mild Winter?

The Rockbridge County News, published at Lexington, Va., says: "It looks now as if this winter might be an abnormal one like last. Within the past two days we have seen cherry, plum and pear trees nearly white with bloom and apple blossoms scattered on some trees. Many of the early spring flowers, such as violets, daisies, etc., are blooming. The buds on the trees that have cast their leaves are swelling, and were it not for the half clad trees of the forest the past week looks much more like spring time than the eve of winter."

A Bit of a Cabin Whence a Man Was Graduated to White House Honors.

Chicago Times.
Today I visited the little shop where ex-President Andrew Johnson plied the needle for so many years. Just over the door is the old faded sign, "A Johnson, Tailor." The shop is occupied by a family. Just in the rear of the shop is the little house in which Andrew Johnson lived while he worked at his trade. The property now belongs to Mrs. Patterson, Andrew Johnson's daughter. The residence occupied by Mr. Johnson after he left the White House is on another street. It is evidently a very old house, but has lately been repainted, and now has quite a fresh look. Mr. Johnson's law office, a small one story brick building, is used as a storage room for a patent medicine company.

Clothing and Millinery.

In these two departments we feel that we have been more than successful this season. Our millinery especially is on a big boom. We shall have this evening, a new trimmer from Baltimore, a necessary addition to our millinery business, and now you can rely on prompt service when you give an order for a hat in our millinery department; it will be executed in a stylish manner and given to you at time promised.

In our clothing department the trade is simply immense all day. Each day our clothing salesmen are busy, and we think we are selling more clothing than any other clothing house in Raleigh. Why? because we sell cheaper than any clothing house in Raleigh. At SWINDELL'S.

In order to test the comparative merits of the various newspaper advertising mediums, and at the same time benefit the readers thereof, we shall consider this advertisement for one dollar in payment toward purchase of $20 or more worth of goods, if cut out and presented at time of purchase either in person or by mail. SWINDELL'S.
