RALEIGH, OCTOBER 23, 1890.

THE OLD NORTH STATE.

J. M. Gerrill, of Craven county, while out hunting Tuesday, killed a 400 pound bear.

Mount Holly News: We have it from a reliable source that the talk of a spoke and handle factory for Mt. Holly, is an assured fact.

Lincolnton Courier: Bishop Lyman confirmed 18 persons at the Episcopal church here last Sunday week, and 10 others in Rev. W. R. Wetmore's charge.

The congregation of the First Baptist church at Fayetteville on Sunday increased the salary of their pastor, Rev. W. B. Olevier, from $900 to $1,200 per annum.

Goldsboro Argus: The delightful bird show that was such a pleasure to visitors to our fair last year, which is conducted by Prof. Dughi, is again one of the features of the Floral Hall this year, and it has lost nothing of its merit.

Rutherford Banner. One potato weighing 5 1/2 pounds sent to us by Mr. I. P. Guffy, we thought was about the top of the market, and enjoyed it immensely. Mr. Billy Hampton now comes to the front with one weighing 10 1/2 pounds, and measuring 27 inches in circumference.

Concord Standard: Jerry Caldwell, a colored man living on Dr. Young's place, has a novel way of cleaning out cobwebs in a potato house. He set a match to them on Friday, and about one hour afterwards his "tater" house was reduced to about one bushel of ashes.

West Schenk, who runs a government distillery in Rowan county, on Friday evening, captured a five year old colored boy and forced him under threats of death to drink four glasses of mean new corn whiskey. The boy after drinking it, was thrown into violent convulsions, from which he soon died.

Marshall Halsey, of Alleghany county, after becoming on more than friendly terms with his neighbor's wife, persuaded her to elope with him Friday while her husband, John Dixon was away from home. Dixon met the couple on the public road and without a moment's notice shot and killed Halsey. On Monday Bud Halsey met Dixon and tried to avenge his brother's death, but the latter was too quiet for him and shot and killed him also. Dixon made his escape, but the public sentiment is in his favor.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

From yesterday's Dispatches

A disastrous collision occurred at 4:45 yesterday morning on the Cincinnati Southern railroad in a tunnel a quarter of a mile north of Sloan's Valley Station. The killed were fireman Gould, Welch, the brakeman, J. E. Montgomery, express messenger and Edward Raffner, mail agent, and others badly hurt.

The Secretary of the Treasury has awarded a gold life saving medal to Thomas M. Webb, of Wilmington, N. C., for rescuing Miss J. J. Hayes and Miss Irene Jackson from drowning at Wrightsville beach in August last.

A very serious accident happened yesterday near Birmingham, Ala., in which three men were killed and a great many were seriously injured from a collision on the Kansas City and Memphis railroad.

The Utica Herald was sold yesterday in Utica, N. Y., and brought fifty thousand dollars.

Yesterday at Darlington, S. C., J. H. Witherspoon shot and killed in self defense his uncle, J. H. Raines. The difficulty was about some cotton.

Representatives of thirty labor organizations of the Nationalist and Socialist societies attended a meeting of the United Labor Alliance Tuesday night at Boston Mass., pledging themselves to endorse the aim and object of the Alliance and promising to support the measures adopted.

A Chicago morning paper says: "Discontent and murmuring prevail in the local offices of the Western Union Telegraph Company."

Advice from Quebec from the village of St. Anne DesMonte, Quebec, near the mouth of the St. Lawrence river report two feet of snow on the ground yesterday.

A Florence Ala., special says: much excitement prevails over the discovery of natural gas seven miles from Nashville, Tenn., found by H. O. Waller and others

His Last Words.

"Help! Help!" cried a man who was floundering in the water.

"Can't you swim?" frantically cried a man on the bank.

"D'ye think I'd call for help if I could swim, you blamed fool!" exclaimed the man in disgust as he sank for the last time—Cape Cod Item.

We Might Be Astonished.

'Tis just as we cannot know— And better too we may suppose— What thoughts through woman's brains may go When, with her two hands in the dough, And powerless to strike a blow A fly his weight drags to and fro Across her tickled nose. —Chicago Post.

An Emperor's Earache.

Referring to the chronic earache from which the Emperor of Germany suffers, Harold Frederic says in the New York Times: "Just what the affection is no one as yet been able to determine. It grows worse in cold and wet weather, and that is about all that is known of it."

ANDREWS & GRIMES, Coal Dealers.

We call special attention to the Coal we propose to handle this season, and which we are receiving daily. Kanawha, West Virginia, Splint.

Superior to any in the United States for grates and open fire places. NEW RIVER LUMP for grates and stoves. It is the equal of any and surpassed by no other (save Kanawha Splint), be it under any name whatever. It has been upon the market for the last ten years, this is the first season for Raleigh and North Carolina. We have the New River for steam also, which we will put by the side of any other coal and guarantee equal, if not better results.

We are the agents for this coal and can ship for domestic and steam users to Charlotte, Henderson, Durham, Winston, Oxford and other points direct from the mines. Give it a trial, is what we ask.

HARD COAL. We have also a very choice lot of Red and White Ash for grates and stoves, which we screen before sending to our customers. Buy now and save money. Write for prices. Oak, Hickory and pine WOOD. ANDREWS & GRIMES.
