In and Around the City.

Lovely weather.
Hustling in real estate.
Politicians still on the rampage.
Possum and taters all the rage now.
Senator Ramsom is booked to speak here next Monday night.
Several grand projects talked about.
See notice of sale of land by Armistead Jones, commissioner.

The Lecture of Rev. Thos. Dixon, in Durham on Tuesday night last was well attended.

A tramp through the woods these autumnal days is a rare treat. Everything looks beautiful.

Efforts are being made to induce Francis Murphy, the celebrated temperance orator, to lecture in Raleigh.

Mr. W. C. Stronach desires winners at the guessing match to communicate with him, with directions about forwarding their prizes.

The Sheriff has taken possession of the works of the Auburn, N. J. Wagon Company on executions amounting to $50,000.

Thirty-five business and dwelling houses were destroyed by fire in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, yesterday. Loss, $100,000; insurance $7,000.

Two little daughters of Dennis Finneran, of Boston, have been missing since October 16 on which date they started home alone from their grandfather's at 11 o'clock at night.

The new double ended screw propeller ferry boat built for the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad Company by Neafe & Levy will be launched from their yard this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The shipments of cotton from Raleigh to foreign ports, so far, this season have been over 12,000 bales. This is a most brilliant outlook.

There will be speaking tomorrow night at the court house by the Prohibitionists. Go and hear their side of the question.

Dr. J. M. Templeton, of Cary, and James H. Southgate, of Durham, will address the citizens of Wake county on prohibition on tomorrow night at the court house.

Rev. Thos. Dixon is lecturing in different portions of North Carolina, and, of course, is attracting large crowds. He is a genius of whom North Carolina may well be proud. By the way, how would it work to engage him for a lecture here in the interest of the Soldiers' Home. It seems to us a good idea. What does our friend W. C. Stronach think of it?

Notice.

There will be a special meeting of the Board of Magistrates for Raleigh township held at the Mayor's office, Friday, October, 31st, at 4 o'clock, p. m. A full and prompt attendance is desired.

By order of
J. C. MARCOM, R. G. DUNN,
Secretary. Chairman.

Legitimate News.

The Durham Sun give the following astounding information:

Some industrious statistician has discovered that ninety per cent of the men put the left leg into their trousers first. About seven per cent start with their right leg, and the remaining three per cent sit on a chair or the edge of the bed and ram both legs in at once. It seems singular that the projectors of the eleventh census took no note of this.

Wake Superior Court.

The following business was transacted in the Superior Court today, His Honor, E. T. Boykin, judge presiding:

Larkin Smith, by his next friend, et al vs Chas. H. Smith occupied the attention of the court. It commenced last Tuesday. There are many witnesses and some important legal points are involved.

Bitten by a Mad Dog.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Mary Medlin, wife of Mr. John Medlin, residing near Apex, was bitten in a most shocking manner by a mad dog. The infuriated animal bit Mrs. Medlin's nose, face and each of her hands, lacerating them in a most shocking manner.

Mrs. Medlin seized the dog while he had her by her cheek and choked him so that he was disabled. She threw him to the floor, seized an axe and cut the infuriated animal's head off.

Married.

At the bride's residence in Greensboro, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, Mr. J. M. Wood was united in marriage to Miss Gracie V. Vaughan. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. W. Crawford in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

On Wednesday, the 29th inst., at the residence of the bride, Mr. Michael Doyle was united in marriage to Mrs. Ida Morris of this city. The ceremony took place in the presence of a few friends. The Visitor extends most cordial wishes for their future happiness.

The Exposition.

It is not too early for an earnest agitation of the subject, if we intend to hold an exposition next year and that we should hold one is the general sentiment. It will be an off year entirely in politics, and so far there will be little or nothing to agitate the people. We hope the matter will be pushed to the fullest extent, and that the General Assembly will aid as far as may be deemed practicable. The Exposition of 1884 did perhaps more to make the resources of North Carolina known to the world than any event that has heretofore transpired in our limits. Since then our resources have greatly increased, and anything to place them before the world will inure to our advantage.

Baldwin Theatre Company.

A fine audience greeted the rendition of the "Queen's Evidence" last night which was one of the most decided hits of the season. The piece was performed in the most admirable manner each and every one of the company performing their parts to perfection. "Little Lillian," a child actress only four years old made her first appearance and she has indeed become a first class favorite. Her performance, for one so young was truly astonishing. Tonight "The Danites" will be performed and we hope to see a crowded house. A set of furniture or $20 in gold will be awarded to the person holding the lucky number.

The C. F. & Y. V. Railroad.

The secretary of this most admirable system has just issued his report, from which it is gathered that the company now has completed and in operation 119.52 miles of road besides that from Fayetteville to Mt. Airy, which, including the Bennettsville branch, makes a total length of track of 361.80 miles. The net earnings for the year were $281,625.23.

The total numbers of passengers was 151,444 and the total number of tons of freight handled 240,216.

This is an excellent showing for a new road and its future success cannot be a matter of doubt.

NORRIS' DRY GOODS STORE.

Takes the Cake.

Mr. Neil A. Spence, has just returned from a two days hunting trip in Harnett county, where he succeeded in bagging 6 wild turkeys, the average weight being 12½ pounds each.

Barnum Circus Will Come.

We received the following special from Barnum & Bailey this afternoon from Augusta, Ga.: The wreck only damaged the cooking apparatus and killed eight work horses. The entire shows—menagerie and Nero—will visit your city.

Notice to I. O. O. F.

Seaton Gales Lodge meets tonight 30th. The Third Degree will be conferred and other business of importance will be transacted. Candidates will present themselves without fail at 7:30 o'clock. Every Odd Fellow cordially invited to attend.

THIEM, Rec. Sec.

Skipped.

The Durham Globe has the following:

W. F. Sutts, who was to be tried in the federal court at Greensboro upon the charge of robbing the mails while assistant postmaster at Carthage, borrowed a few dollars from friends in Greensboro and skipped, leaving his bondsmen to the tune of $1,000.

Personal Mention.

Mr. J. D. Boushall is attending the Atlanta Exposition.

Bishop Lyman and family will return to Raleigh from Hillsboro tomorrow.

The genial Dr. Blacknall has returned from Atlanta, Ga., where he has been attending the Exposition.

Miss Mattie Smith, of Durham, is visiting friends and relatives in this city.

The Children's Friends.

After charming the little princesses of England daughters of the Prince of Wales, and hosts of the children of the nobility of Europe, Barnum & Bailey are going to cause a flutter in the hearts of the little folks in this city, by bringing their European Show here, and what a wealth of wonders and embarrassment of features Barnum & Bailey have collected for exhibition in their Greatest Show on earth this year! The wonder is, not that they exist, but that they can crowd so much into their tents and show them all in one day. Cages, steam musical chariots and others, wild beasts, horses in the horse fair, trained animals, herds of elephants, hippodrome races, three circus companies, two menageries, aviary, 1,200 performers, an army of employees, and, in fact, everything that money can buy. Besides all this, the Imre Kiralfy's "Nero, or the Destruction of Rome," undoubtedly the most instructive, as well as the grandest spectacle, ever produced; familiarizing the mind of the youth of the country with the customs of old Rome; with Arabian horses, arms, dancing girls, religious articles, and all accoutrements and paraphernalia belonging to the days of glorious Rome. Four trains of railroad cars, etc.; more in reality than was ever exhibited before in any country at one time, all of it new, bright, rich, and grand, and the tone of the whole pure, moral and conspicuously clean. Barnum & Bailey have certainly a great show, and they are both great men, as well as being the benefactors of the public and the teachers of the children.

Their whole undivided Shows will be here on November 6th and the great free street parade take place in the morning at 9 o'clock.

Mens' Undershirts.

A nicer or more complete stock of mens' undershirts has never found its way in Raleigh, than is now kept at Swindell's. We have all kind; white, all wool; red, all wool; white and Gray, all wool; plaid, all wool, and down to the all cotton goods and drawers to match, and as in all other lines kept by us the prices are much lower than can be had elsewhere.

Sometimes.

Sometimes I think you will be glad to know
That I have kept you ever in my heart,
And that my love has only deeper grown
In all that time that we have lived apart.

Some day when you have slipped away from care,
And idly fall to dreaming of the past
And idly think of all your life has missed,
You will remember my true love at last.

Or it may come to pass some dreary night,
After a day that has been hard to bear,
When you are weary, heart sick and forlorn,
And there is none to comfort or to care.

That you will close your tired eyes to dream
Of tender kisses falling soft and light,
Or restful touches smoothing back your hair,
And sweet words spoken for your heart's delight.

Oh! then you will remember and be glad
That I have kept you in my heart,
And that your heart's true home will still be there,
Although we wander silent and apart.
