LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

In and Around the City.

Weather threatening.
Goblers roosting high.
Plum pudding is all the rage for Thanksgiving.

Al Henderson's minstrels are booked for Raleigh on the 18th inst.

It is reported that a poultry farm on an extensive scale, is to be started near Auburn in this county.

Our town clock seems to be seriously demoralized. It is about time for a new one anyhow, and we hope our city Fathers will get it.

All the county officers are expected to file their bonds and enter on the duties of their position the first Monday in next month.

And now it seems we are to be connected with Durham by telephone. We are glad of it. We love our sister and want to be in hearing distance all the time.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the "Southern Inter-State Immigration Convention" to be held at Asheville, December 17th next.

We hope the sidewalk question will not be allowed to slumber. A city the size of ours should have first class pavements and being once put down, they should be properly kept up.

Married.

CHEATHAM—ALSTON—On Wednesday afternoon last, at 2 o'clock at the residence of the bride's father in Warren county, Mr. Frank H. Cheatham was united in marriage to Miss Cornelia K. Alston, daughter of Mr. Edward Alston. There was a large crowd of friends to witness the ceremony, after which a most sumptuous entertainment was enjoyed.

Stockholders Meeting.

A meeting of the Stockholders of the Raleigh and Gaston and Raleigh and Augusta Air Line Railroads took place at the office of the companies in this city, yesterday. A large majority of the stock was represented. Mr. John M. Robinson was unanimously re-elected president as were also all of the old directors. The various officials submitted their reports which were in the highest degree satisfactory.

The Hospital Fair.

The chrysanthemum show now in progress at the Henry Building for the benefit of St. John's Hospital, is a splendid success, as it well deserves to be. We regret that our space is too contracted to give such an extended notice as the show merits. The ladies have done their duty nobly, and we are glad to know that their efforts have been appreciated.

At 9:30 o'clock tonight there will be an auction sale when the choice flowers will be disposed of.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Henry E. Fries, of Salem, is in the city.

Mr. J. P. Caldwell, the talented editor of the Statesville Landmark, is in the city.

Mr. H. H. Carroll and son, Jas. D. Carroll, went west this morning on business.

Mr. Rufus K. Ferrell, former sheriff of Wake county, but now of Durham was in the city today.

Mrs. Wm. M. Brown, Jr., and little daughter, Fannie, returned from Berkeley, Va., this evening, where they have been visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Robert Starke, a young man, committed suicide at West Point yesterday.

An Important Movement.

There was a joint meeting held at the Yarrow House yesterday, composed of representatives of the three Insane Asylums of the State, the State Medical Society and the Board of Health. This gathering was brought about by a resolution adopted at a meeting held at Oxford in May last by the State Medical Society looking to the better care of the insane of the State and the treatment of inebriates. The following gentlemen were present yesterday:

Dr. W. K. Wood, Superintendent, and R. N. Smith, Esq., and Capt. Octavius Coke, directors of the North Carolina Insane Asylum; Dr. P. L. Murphy, Superintendent, and Director J. P. Caldwell, of the Western North Carolina Insane Asylum; Dr. J. F. Miller, Superintendent of the Eastern Insane Asylum; Drs. J. A. Hodges, of Fayetteville, and J. M. Baker, of Tarboro, representing the State Board of Health, and Dr. J. M. Hays, of Oxford, representing the State Medical Society. Dr. Frank Duffy, of New Berne, sat with the committee and Dr. E. Burke Haywood was present for a short time.

Dr. Hodges presided and Dr. Hays acted as secretary.

In the discussion of the matters under consideration it was stated that all of the asylums of the State are full, and some of them crowded. It was resolved that the next Legislature be asked to make an appropriation for the enlargement of these institutions so as to admit moving those who are now confined in county jails and poor houses. It was proposed to change the name of the Western North Carolina Insane Asylum to "The State Hospital at Morganton," and that the Institution be permitted to receive inebriates for treatment to a number not exceeding twelve of each sex.

Dr. J. M. Baker for the Eastern district, and Mr. J. P. Caldwell for the Western, were appointed a committee to collect statistics of inebriety, idiosyncrasy and imbecility and also of the number of insane in the State outside of the Asylums.

It was further resolved to ask the legislature to amend section 2255 of the Code so that criminals, ordered committed by criminal judges, may not have precedence of the innocent insane, but be admitted under the same regulations that govern all other cases.

A committee to be composed of Capt. Octavius Coke, of the North Carolina Insane Asylum as chairman; the chairmen of the board of directors of the other two asylums; a representative besides of each of the three asylums; Dr. J. A. Hodges of the State Board of Health; Dr. J. M. Hays of the State Medical Society, and Dr. E. Burke Haywood, chairman of the State Board of Charities, was appointed by the conference to go before the legislative committees and ask for the special appropriation for enlargement, for the changes in existing law and for the new provisions of law outlined above.

Our Dead Heroes.

We notice from the list of contributions thus far made that over $200 is yet needed for the purpose of marking the graves of the North Carolina Confederate dead, at the Fredericksburg Va., cemetery. Surely this small sum ought to be forth coming at once. It is a patriotic duty to which all should respond. Amounts can be sent to J. G. Brown Esq., cashier of the Citizens National Bank in this city.

Norris' Dry Goods Store.

Our nobby styles of hats are the latest out, and our prices recommend themselves to the thoughtful. Hats that we retail at $2.50 were sold by "jobbers" to others in this city for $36.00 per dozen. Spot cash buys the best at the lowest prices all the time; and we give our customers the benefit.

Baptist State Convention.

Special Cor. EVENING VISITOR.
SHELBY, N. C., Nov. 12.

The train leaving Raleigh Tuesday morning for Shelby took a large delegation for the Convention. At many stations on the way other persons joined the number, so that when the train reached Shelby the Baptists of North Carolina seemed well represented. Homes had been previously assigned, and at the depot hacks and carriages were in waiting to take the delegates to their respective places. Some of the Raleigh brethren including Dr. Bailey, W. N. Jones, Hon. G. W. Sanderlin and the writer, were soon comfortably located at Cleveland Springs, a deservedly famous and beautiful resort.

At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning Col. L. L. Polk called the Convention to order, and after singing by the choir of the church, Rev. H. W. Battle conducted the devotional exercises. The committee on credentials reported the attendance of 116 delegates, being twice the number in attendance at the beginning of the Convention in Henderson one year ago.

The Convention at once went into the election of its officers, and although no nominations were made, it was soon evident that L. L. Polk, G. W. Sanderlin, Dr. Pritchard and W. A. Graham were on the minds of the brethren for that honor. It took the fourth ballot to decide the question, when Col. L. L. Polk was the choice of the Convention, and his election was made unanimous.

Upon taking the chair Col. Polk made a few appropriate remarks, which were well received.

The other officers of the Convention are: Vice-Presidents, Hon. G. W. Sanderlin, W. A. Graham and Dr. Pritchard; Recording Secretaries, N. B. Broughton and Rev. G. W. Green; Treasurer, J. D. Boushall; Auditor, W. N. Jones; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. C. Durham, D. D.; Trustees, Dr. Durham, C. M. Cooke, W. H. Pace, T. H. Briggs and L. R. Mills.

After the election of the officers Rev. T. P. Bell, of Richmond, Va., was introduced to the Convention; also Drs. Nelson and Mitchell.

The pastor of the Baptist church of Shelby, Rev. G. P. Hamrick, in a happy speech, extended a cordial invitation to the Convention, and Prof. J. B. Carlyle, of Wake Forest College, in behalf of the Convention, made a fitting response. This was followed by the reading of the report of the Corresponding Secretary covering the work during the year in State Missions, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Sunday Schools and also the Woman's Central Committee. The report was one of great encouragement, showing large gains and great advances in all departments of the work.

As Dr. Durham's report is the most important of any presented to the Convention, we may in another letter call attention to a few important matters and of general interest mentioned therein.

After the announcement of several committees the Convention adjourned until 7 o'clock at night.

Tuesday night the church was filled to its utmost capacity, many persons standing, not being able to find seats. The Convention sermon was preached by the Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., who selected for his text Isaiah 43:10, "Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord." The sermon set forth the importance of God's people bearing faithful witness to divine truth and the spirit in which it should be done.

The first day closes exceedingly well for the Convention, each train having brought large accessions to the body, and all present seem united in pressing forward the good work of extending the kingdom of our Lord throughout every part of our beloved State and to the lands afar off. J. J. H.
