

Baptist State Convention.

Special Cor. EVENING VISITOR.

SHELBY, N. C., Nov. 15.

The body was called to order by the Vice President W. H. Graham, who by-the-way is an excellent parliamentarian.

The report on publications recommended the Biblical Recorder and all our southern papers. Dr Bailey was called upon for a speech and in his usual felicitous way addressed the convention.

Rev. J. T. Tichenor, D.D., of Georgia, Corresponding Secretary of the Home Mission Board made a speech of great power. He devoted a large part of the address to the work in Cuba, the imprisonment of Diaz and his impending trial. He mentioned how Diaz had said "I was never so happy in my life as when I was in prison suffering for my Lord. I never seemed so near to Him and He to me." Brethren, said Dr. Tichenor, when I go to Cuba and get among our converts there I seem to be getting back to primitive christianity. All the work of our Home Missions is dear to me. I am like the man who when the Indians were ready to attack his household first thought to save his dearest child and escape with him; but when the trial came which one he could not say, so resolved to stand by them all and die if need be in the struggle. Think of what this south land is destined to be. The world's market, and thousands of persons will come and settle with us and we must meet them with christian ideas.

Dr. Carter said, "the subject of Home Missions is one of the most important that can be brought before us whether we consider it as patriots or as christians. Birmingham has grown to a great city in a few years but in the western part of this State we shall have another Birmingham. Do you want to be great, be identified with a great cause."

The report on Sunday Schools recommends that a Sunday School convention be held with the First Baptist church at Raleigh, March 5th.

Saturday night was devoted to the Female University. After the reading of the report of the Trustees speeches were made by Drs. Carter, Hufham and Skinner. Dr. Carter said: "I plead for justice for woman. I do not say they are angels and perfectly beautiful, but I say give them justice. They do not have it now in wages for the same kind of work as done by the men. They do not have it in education. Female schools should be endowed. We have put our hands to a great work. and it means struggle and sacrifice."

Dr. Hufham said, I am glad I have lived to see this great work begin. We must succeed in it. We have succeeded in the past. There are no graves of buried hopes and abortive efforts in the past. Dr. Skinner pleaded for a practical education to be given our daughters.

The pulpits of the town were all occupied on Sunday by delegates to the convention, the pastors from Raleigh preaching in the Baptist church to large congregations. At the close of the preaching service at night the farewell exercises of the convention took place. The scene will never be forgotten by those who were present. Drs. Overby, Sanderlin, Hufham, and the presiding officer made brief remarks, but what they said reached every heart and brought tears to the eyes of many. The people of Shelby cannot be excelled for hospitality, and the convention was entertained with thoughtfulness and a large-hearted liberality. It was declared to be the best convention by some of the oldest men in it; not a ripple of discord, but brotherly love prevailed in every session. Many eyes already turn to Raleigh, where the next convention is to be held. J. J. H.
