NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

See notice of proceedings for divorce.

Next week will be all bustle in Raleigh. The people's sovereigns will be upon us, to whom we say "all hail."

The Board of County Commissioners will meet next Monday. It will be one of the most important meetings of the year.

Warrenton, N. C., is growing as a tobacco market. About three million pounds were sold there last year.

Chas. D. Heartt, Chief of Police, has been busily engaged today in arranging licenses for those who have secured licenses to retail liquor.

Workmen are progressing rapidly on the Electric Railway on Blount street. The weather is fine for the business and we may expect that rapid headway will be made.

All the State officers have finished their reports and are now waiting on their oars for the representatives of the people to review them. We hope the verdict of "well done, good and faithful servants," may be awarded.

In our notice of the death of Gen. P. B. Hawkins yesterday, we stated that he was supervisor of the census in this district; this was an error. Mr. Madison Hawkins, of Henderson was the supervisor.

The report for the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind shows the number of pupils since last report to be as follows:

Deaf mutes (male)	82
Deaf mutes (females)	82
Blind (males)	71
Blind (females)	58

Total number, 293
Of this number 88 were colored.

A plea is made in the report for enlarged facilities for the care of these unfortunates, not one half of whom in the State are being cared for in the institution. It is now filled to its utmost capacity.

The Board of Trustees recommend the erection of buildings for the institution on the one hundred acres of land appropriated to it by the last Legislature which adjoins the Agricultural and Mechanical College lands, and suggest that the said lands could be worked to advantage by the combined pupils and both be instructed in agricultural arts by the A. and M. College.

The expense of the institution per capita is moderate compared with other institutions.

They say an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars a year will be required to run the institution.

The terms of office of Messrs. Jas. A. Briggs and J. M. Betts, as trustees, expired Jan. 1st this year. Trustees will necessarily be chosen to fill the vacancies. The report makes a good showing for the management.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Madison Hawkins, of Henderson, came in this morning with the body of his brother, Gen. P. B. Hawkins.

Mr. Walter B. Boyd, of Warrenton, is in the city in attendance upon the funeral of Gen. Philemon B. Hawkins, his father in law.

Captains C. M. Cook and Richard Yarborough, Mr. T. S. Spruill, Mr. W. J. Hawkins, Jr., and Mr. Thos. White, of Louisville, came in this morning on the R. & G. R. R. accompanying the remains of Gen. P. B. Hawkins.

Miss Birdie, the only daughter of Dr. W. S. Black, after spending a few days with her parents at Oxford, will enter Greensboro Female College.

A late dispatch from Shanghai announces the death of Prince Chun, the father of the Emperor of C

A Cordial Invitation.

The Tabernacle Baptist Sunday School of this city extends a cordial invitation to all persons not connected with any other school to join with them in their work for 1891. Parents and children, young men and ladies will find opportunity for mental, social and spiritual enjoyment, and while receiving benefit may do good to others. The exercises begin at 9:15 a. m. and close at 10:30 a. m. The school is divided into Primary, Intermediate and Advanced Classes. I believe we have one of the most consecrated and efficient corps of teachers to be found anywhere, and the fact that we have one of the largest Sunday Schools in the State is the evidence of interest that our members find there.

"Come with us and we will do thee good."
N. B. BROUGHTON,
Superintendent.

The check girls at the Valley street bleachery in Providence, R. I., have a serious grievance, according to the Washington Star, against their unfeeling employer. This grievance is nothing less than the fact that an unfeeling, unromantic, soulless, misanthropic employer has had the audacity of putting a stop to their flirtations with young men across the way by painting the windows of the rooms in which they worked! The girls declared they could have tolerated any other kind of painting but one, and with rising anger and elevated noses they indignantly left the premises, swearing—beg pardon, vowing—never to return until again accorded what they claim is a prerogative of their sex.

The Old Swallowed Thirteen Watches.

Pittsburg Dispatch.

James McFadden, of Ben Springs, Cal., once captured a beautiful specimen of a snow owl which measured four and one half feet from tip to tip of wing. He sold him to a jeweler, who exhibited him in his show window. Everything went well until one day when the jeweler missed a tray of watches.

A thorough search failed to reveal where the missing watches were. While the jeweler was excitedly hunting for the timepieces he heard a muffled ticking. Putting his ear to the breast of the owl the ticking was distinctly heard. In his anger the jeweler decapitated the bird, and on opening its stomach discovered thirteen gold and silver watches.

Six of the watches were in an excellent state of preservation, while seven of the number were in various stages of simulation. On opening the gizzard a fourteenth watch was found! The sides of the watch had been digested, but the hands and face were still intact. The hand indicated 11:45. This was the identical time when Mr. Fadden captured the owl.

The Insuperable, of London, the organ of the McCarthyite faction of the Irish party, says: "Mr. Parnell wants no vindication resulting in the annulment of the O'Shea divorce. He intends to marry Mrs. O'Shea when the divorce is made absolute."

The True Test.

Judge Henderson M. Somerville, of the Supreme Court of Alabama, addressed an important meeting of the New York Medical Legal Society recently, on "The True Test of the Legal Culpability of the criminal insane." He said a silent resolution was going on that the contest being waged over the subject was the same old fight of science against the prejudice of error and ignorance. The wards of insane hospitals are crowded with inmates who are capable of distinguishing right from wrong, and who yet through the influence of brain disease, are rendered powerless to choose the one and refrain from the other. He, with Dr. Roy of England, regarded the true test to be in the word power. "Has the defendant in a criminal case the power to distinguish right from wrong, and the power to adhere to the right and avoid the wrong?"

Cheaper by Wholesale.

The municipal government of London, which has a population of 4,500,000, costs the taxpayers $25,000,000. The population of New York City is 1,500,000, and its municipal government costs the taxpayers $37,000,000. The London government costs $5.56 per capita, while the New York government costs $24.67. New York can beat the world on a good many things.

OUR ANNUAL CLEARING SALE.

—ON—

MONDAY, JAN. 5,

We begin our annual clearing sale.

Now, we do not mean by this, that every piece of stuff we have is marked down, but carrying the quantity of stock we do, the amount of goods included in this sale will probably amount to $50,000.

The goods included in this sale we wish placed before Feb. 1st as then we take our Annual Inventory, and we had rather have these goods sold at even greatly reduced prices than have them upon our shelves at that time. This is a golden opportunity for economical buyers, and when shopping at the different departments, ask for the goods included in this sale, because we have lots of stuff that will be turned into money by Feb. 1st.
