NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. J. Hal. Bobbitt, one of our leading druggists. He asks an important question.

Mr. T. H. Collins, of Oxford, paid us a call today. We are pleased to learn that he will locate in Raleigh.

Farmers in many sections are so much encouraged with farming from last years experience that they are beginning the years farm work earlier and more vigorously than usual. This is a capital sign to begin with.

Messrs. Jones & Powell are as nicely fixed as any business firm we know of. The move they have made and the change in the presentation of the ir business at No. 107 Fayetteville street, is a great improvement on the old way. Dr. Jacobs has his office in the same room and here he is pushing the Electric Street Railway work ahead, and to an early completion we trust.

The city is full of members, elect, of the Legislature and those seeking positions. Many of them have been here before in the same capacities. We welcome them all to our city and shall be glad to welcome them to the VISITOR office. They need not hesitate on the ground that we may be seeking something at their hands; not at all. We want nothing in particular, but everything in general. Come and see us gentlemen, and subscribe for the VISITOR.

Railway Commission.

The Railway Commission Club of Buncombe county have resolved pretty extensively. It seems that this subject is being agitated very generally in Central and Western North Carolina.

Died.

At her residence in this city, yesterday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, Mrs. Ida Pauli, wife of Prof. A. Pauli, in the 36th year of her age. She leaves a most devoted husband and many other relatives to mourn their loss. The funeral took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Durham Boys Strike.

At Durham yesterday morning the boys in the Medicated Cigarette factory went out on a disagreement. It seems that the company proposed to reduce their pay. They have been working for 50 and 85 cents per thousand and refused to work for less. Two of the boys, Thos. Clements and Thos. Smith, went back to work, but the others, some 10 or 12 in number, refused to do so.

Death of Mrs. Mary Morehead.

This well known lady died in Philadelphia, on Sunday night last, where she had been for some years under treatment for mental derangement. She was a daughter and only child of the late Richard Smith, who was a well known citizen of Raleigh many years ago. Mrs. Morehead was the owner of large real estate property in Raleigh and vicinity, which has for a long time been under guardian control owing to her mental incapacity.

We Would if we Could.

We would be more than pleased to have you come to our store and see some of the grand bargains which we have selected for you while taking account of stock this week; many thousands of dollars worth of goods are to be disposed of at an under-value price, or in other words and more plainly defined, we will say at a sacrifice price. Do yourself the justice to see what we have at

SWINDELL'S.

Apples will not freeze if covered with a linen cloth, nor a pie or custard burn if in the oven with a dish of water.

Georgia Minstrels.

Of this splendid Minstrel Company, the Springfield Herald says:

A crowded house greeted the Georgia Minstrels at Perkin's Grand Opera House last night, and a genuine success was scored. The troupe is composed of genuine colored people, and in many features were equal to, and in some superior to many of the more pretentious companies which have visited our city in past seasons. The old part was especially good, and introduced many new things that kept the audience in a roar.

"Fabio Romani."

This splendid dramatic representation will be presented at Metropolitan Hall on Thursday night next. The Pittsburg Dispatch says:

The most meritorious performance that has been given in Pittsburg for a long while is that of "Fabio Romani," by Aiden Benedict's Company this week. Large audiences witnessed both representations yesterday, and went away delighted. The play is a very good one, and the company fully able to render a pleasing version of it. Walter Lawrence in the double role of Fabio Romani and Conte Cesare Oliva, has a manly presence and powerful voice, which is well modulated. He is an excellent hero, while Miss Frances Field's Nina is the weak, faithless woman the author intended. John Fay Palmer as the false friend, Guido Ferrari, leaves an unpleasant impression on one's mind, he is so true to nature, and plays the insidious and illegal lover so well. The rest of the company is well chosen, and the scenic and mechanical apparatus very pretentious and well worth seeing.

Death of Paul C. Cameron, Esq.

Intelligence was received today of the death of this well known gentleman which took place this morning at 4 o'clock, at his temporary residence in Hillsboro.

Mr. Cameron had reached a ripe old age, we believe over eighty years, and was perhaps as extensively known in North Carolina as any other citizen. During many years he has been considered one of the wealthiest men in the State, and, at the time of his decease, he can safely be estimated as a millionaire. While Mr. Cameron has been usually a resident of Hillsboro, during the past few years he has been a citizen of Raleigh, residing at the well known Mordecai residence, which he inherited from his sister, the late Mrs. Geo. W. Mordecai.

He has long been known as a Trustee of the University of North Carolina, in which institution he took a great interest. He was also in ante bellum days, President of the North Carolina Railroad of which he is a large stockholder.

To others better acquainted with the deceased we leave the task of a more extended notice.

Practical Hints to Housekeepers.

Tallow, applied warm, will soften and finally cure corns and also bunions.

Purify clothes that have been kept from the air by laying pieces of charcoal (wrapped in paper) in the folds. Try the open air first.

To preserve apples, spread them on a grating, but not in contact with each other, as one bad apple will spoil the others by starting decay.

It is said that to drink sweet milk after eating onions will purify the breath so that no odor will remain. A cupful of strong coffee is also recommended.

Two apples kept in the cake box will cause moderately rich cake to remain moist for a great length of time, if the apples are renewed when withered.

Home.

Wherever we are at rest, and at peace; wherever the thought of love, or dreams of love visit, that is home. For since the cold, sleet tipped fingers of science have crushed space into a nutshell, and since the deep mouthed, capacious present has swallowed time out of sight, there is no landmark left but love, no home but the home of loving, no home but where one's love is.—De Claudius.

Alliances Appointing Lobbyists.

It is reported that a number of the Alliance Representatives at Topeka Kan., will refuse to take their seats. The reason assigned for this action is that they do not propose to have spies and lobbyists continually on their track to see that they keep straight on the Senatorial question. A number of Alliances have chosen committees to do this it seems.

The New York World, of December 31, says: The report of the sale of the World sent out from this city by some fabricator of falsehoods is absolutely without any foundation in fact. The rumor was so absurd in its terms that it did not seem to call for a formal denial; but inasmuch as inquiries reach this office from remote parts of the country it may be said once for all that the World has not been sold; that it is not for sale, and that the question of a change in its ownership was never considered by its proprietor.

Papa Getting in His Work.

Pittsburg Dispatch.
"Ethelinda, darling," murmured the enraptured young man, "this is the happiest moment of my life. I came here this evening hoping, yet fearing. I could not put it off any longer. I felt that I must know my fate. The suspense was killing me. But now—I swear it by this lovely head resting so confidently on my shoulder, by the kiss on your sweet lips, I—but what was that clicking noise I heard just then?"
"Nothing, Walter, nothing but papa. He's a lawyer, you know, but amuses himself with all sorts of queer fads. He's practicing on us with his kodak. Go on, Walter. What were you about to swear?"

The arbitration between Portugal, Great Britain and the United States, relative to the forfeiture of the Delagoa railway concession will commence at Berne early in January before a commission of three Swiss Jurists.

AUGUSTA IN CLOVER.

The Empress Made an Offer Which Proved Entirely Too Liberal.

London Court Journal.

A pretty story is told of an incident which occurred during the visit of the Empress Augusta to the military maneuvers in Silesia at the end of September.

While she was sitting in her six horse coach watching the cavalrymen she chanced to notice a four leaved clover a few yards off.

She beckoned to a little girl standing near Her Majesty in open mouthed admiration, and asked her to pick the lucky leaf for her. When the child had done this she told her to pick a bright, new thaler out of a heap of pieces of silver which she had in a little basket at her side.

The child was not slow in doing so, and clasping her bright treasure, shrieked with delight. Thereupon a number of her little companions came running up, and when they heard the news looked on wistfully and with envy.

The Empress then said she would give a new thaler to each child who found a four-leaved clover, and within ten minutes her basket of silver was nearly empty, though it was nearly all three and not four-leaved clover.

Upon this the Empress beat a laughing retreat, saying to Count Eulenberg, her attendant: "We had better hurry away; these little rogues would impoverish a Rothschild himself."

OUR ANNUAL CLEARING SALE.

—ON—

MONDAY, JAN. 5,

We begin our annual clearing sale. Now, we do not mean by this, that every piece of stuff we have is marked down, but carrying the quantity of stock we do, the amount of goods included in this sale will probably amount to $50,000.

The goods included in this sale we wish placed before Feb. 1st as then we take our Annual Inventory, and we had rather have these goods sold at even greatly reduced prices than have them upon our shelves at that time. This is a golden opportunity for economical buyers, and when shopping at the different departments, ask for the goods included in this sale, because we have lots of stuff that will be turned into money by Feb. 1st.
