

REDS BADLY SCARED.

A Dispatch From Fort Bennett Says the War is Over.

Capt. Norville, special agent, has just returned from Fort Bennett and reports the Indian war there over.

It seems now that the Indians have been the most scared of anybody. They have been afraid that they would be massacred, or they would have come in before.

After the Indians arrived at Bennett several councils of war were held to determine whether they would give up their arms or not. Finally they agreed to when General Miles asked them. Agent Palmer said: "No arms, no rations or blankets." This soon brought them to time and all arms are now stacked up at the agency.

Captain Hearst, commanding officer at Fort Sully, has received the capitulation of 174 Uncompagans, including 70 of Sitting Bull's band and 50 from Rosebud Agency. Narcisse Narcelle, boss farmer, brought in 412 of Big Foot's Indians. Out of these 98 stand of arms were collected. They were nearly all Winchesters of every description and of very antiquated pattern.

Sitting Bull's men want to remain at the Cheyenne, and say they are afraid to return to Standing Rock. All have surrendered, and the teams at the agency have been started to Dupree to bring in the sick women and children. Many of the leaders among the Indians acted very ugly in making final settlements, and there was a great deal of quarreling among themselves.

Driven by a Dead Man.

A singularly pathetic incident occurred last Tuesday on the high road between Canterbury and Dover, in England. The night was intensely cold, and the snow lay thick and hard on the frozen earth, but the driver of the mail cart set out from Canterbury as usual. At the several stopping places it was noticed by the people who received the mail that the driver had not his usual cheery word of greeting for them, but sat still and silent on his box. His conduct was attributed to ill humor, although he was not surly in his general demeanor. On the arrival of the mail cart at the Dover postoffice it was discovered that the man was dead, and frozen stiff in his seat. The horse had made all his accustomed halts, while the reins were held in the dead man's grasp.

Horrible Holocaust—Four Unknown Persons Roasted Alive in a Burning Hotel at Corsicana, Texas.

A horrible account is given in the Delta of the burning of a hotel at Corsicana, Texas on the morning of January 2nd in which there were four unknown persons burned to death. Their presence in the burning building was not known, and the people were horrified to find the charred remains of a man, two women and a 15 year old boy, burned beyond recognition.

Just the Opposite.

"To save my life," she said, "I can't form the remotest idea of what heaven is like."

"You've been in New York, haven't you?"

"Yes."

"Well, then, try to imagine a place the entire opposite of New York; where the people are unlike anybody you ever see there, and the nearer you get to a complete contrast the closer will you come to the idea of heaven."

Executor's Notice.

Having this day qualified as executor of the estate of Mrs. T. A. B. Scarborough, deceased, this is to notify all parties having claims against said estate to present the same to me on or before the 31 day of November, 1891, or this notice will be placed in bar of their recovery, and all persons indebted to the estate must present them to me.

Their Peaceful Haven.

A special from Topeka, Kansas, says: Rev. B. T. Foster, colored, who was candidate for Auditor of State on the People's Party ticket, has come from Kansas City with twenty families of colored people from Kemper county, Miss., en route to Hennesy, Oklahoma. These families number about 100 people. Foster says:

"This is the beginning of a tremendous exodus of colored people from the South. Thousands will leave Southern States within the next 60 days. We look upon Oklahoma as our peaceful haven, where political ostracism is unknown, and where every man can cast the ballot of his choice without fear from any source. Many colored people of Mississippi are refusing to enter into labor contracts, and those that have property are disposing of it."

Foster said further that the opening of the Cheyenne Indian lands, which is to occur in February, is attracting many of his people to the territory.—Durham Sun.

Russia is becoming more intolerant toward Jews every year it seems. The Czar claims they are impoverishing the Russian peasantry.

ANDREWS & GRIMES Coal Dealers.

We call special attention to the Coal we propose to handle this season, and which we are receiving daily. Kanawha, West Virginia, Splint.

Superior to any in the United States for grates and open fire places.

NEW RIVER LUMP for grates and stoves. It is the equal of any and surpassed by no other (save Kanawha Splint), be it under any name whatever. It has been upon the market for the last ten years, this is the first season for Raleigh and North Carolina. We have the New River for steam also, which we will put by the side of any other coal and guarantee equal, if not better results.

We are the agents for this coal and can ship for domestic and steam users to Charlotte, Henderson, Durham, Winston, Oxford and other points direct from the mines. Give it a trial, is what we ask.

HARD COAL. We have also a very choice lot of Red and White Ash for grates and stoves, which we screen before sending to our customers. Buy now and save money. Write for prices. Oak, hickory and pine wood, long or cut, on hand all the time.

An Important Question

WHERE ARE YOU GOING TO BUY YOUR DRUGS THIS YEAR?

BEFORE answering, there are several things for you to consider. First of all, satisfy your mind that you are dealing with a man

WHO THOROUGHLY UNDERSTANDS HIS BUSINESS?

Next, you should be convinced that you are getting medicine of standard strength and purity; and, last, is it not to your interest to when an opportunity is offered you to do so?
