NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The Baptist Tabernacle has just had put in a large and perfectly working furnace.

The Grand Jury has adjourned to meet again on Tuesday morning the 13th at 10 o'clock.

Rev. F. L. Reid will fill the pulpit at the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning. Rev. Dr. Watkins being absent.

The cotton receipts in Raleigh, thus far, this season, have been 29,304 bales, against 16,494, last year, this is a fine showing.

A meeting of the directors of the Oxford Orphan Asylum was held in this city yesterday. It was called for the purpose of making a settlement of the administration of Dr. Dixon, prior to the meeting of the Grand Lodge.

A lecture will be delivered in the House of Representatives next Monday night by Rev. Dr. R. L. Abernethy, on the "Mind and the Soul." The public invited.

Dr. Abernethy will use an original diagram showing all the powers and faculties of the human mind, and their operation in the production of thought.

We learn that work will now be pushed on the Electric Street Railway with all possible dispatch, and, unless a very bad spell of weather should set in, the next few weeks will find the line in operation. We have heard nothing definite as to what course the route will take, but we most sincerely hope that the present lines will be extended so as to meet the wants of those living in the suburbs. In fact, we believe that upon this will mainly depend the success of the enterprise.

Mary Jones, the successful southern mocking bird singer will appear at Metropolitan Hall Monday night for the benefit of St. Johns Hospital. The body of the house will be for the white people. Come and enjoy your selves and help St. Johns Hospital. Members of the Legislature are invited. Admission 25c; Reserved seats 35c; Gallery 15c. Doors open at 7 o'clock, performance at 7:30.

Alfred Williams & Co.

Have you examined their stock recently? If not, it might pay you to do so. They have on hand a very extensive assortment in the book and stationery line, and are constantly adding whatever comes out new.

Appointment.

Mr. Van B. Fleming, who for some time has been in a railroad position at Birmingham, Ala., and who recently married Miss Lizzie Allen, of this city, has been appointed private secretary to Superintendent R. R. Bridgers. "Van" is a Raleigh "boy," and as such, we tender him particular congratulations.

Death of Rev. W. C. Cannon.

The Rev. W. C. Cannon, an honored member of the Western North Carolina Conference, died at the residence of his son-in-law in Winston, N. C., yesterday evening at 5 o'clock. He was, we suppose, between 55 and 60 years of age. His last charge was the Pineville circuit. He was not well enough to take work this year, and was at his own request left without an appointment. He has filled many important pulpits in the State, being pastor at New Berne, N. C., at one time. He was an alumnus of Trinity College, a member of its Board of Trustees and a warm friend of the college. He was buried at Trinity College this afternoon. The church of his choice and the State of his nativity lose one of its purest, best men in the death of this excellent man of God.

Meeting of the Grand Lodge.

For rates to the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons, the Richmond & Danville Railroad Co. will sell tickets to Raleigh and return at the following rates from points named. Tickets on sale January 12, and 13, good returning until and including Jan. 22nd, 1891: From

Greensboro, 4.30
Durham, 1.65
Oxford, 3.15
Salem, 1.65
Goldsboro, 3.75
Rates from intermediate points in same proportion.

Personal Mention.

Mr. M. Michaux, of Greensboro, is in the city.

Dr. R. H. Stancill, of Northampton, was unable to occupy his seat in the General Assembly yesterday, on account of sickness.

Rev. R. L. Abernethy, D.D., of Rutherford College, who has given free tuition to 2,200 pupils, and whose college building was burned last year, called upon us this morning. We were glad to see him looking so well and in such good spirits.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Oscar L. Bailey is quite sick at his mother's Mrs. Julia A. Bailey's residence 213 North McDowell street.

Webster's Weekly says, Mr. Joseph Broughton, of Raleigh, paid a visit to his brother, Dr. Broughton, in this place, during the holidays. He is a genial young gentleman, and made many friends while here.

Rev. Dr. Watkins is out of the city. He will spend tomorrow at Birmingham, Ala.

Dress Goods and Furs.

Now, don't say this is only an advertisement and not finish it. This advertisement is of as much importance to you as to me. If you need these goods it is your duty to see what there is in this simple advertisement. We are now offering our dress goods in plaids and stripes at a greatly reduced price, and we have a very fine stock of plaids and stripes in worsteds, suitings, serges, flannels, tricots, and we will sell you these goods much cheaper than will any one else. Our nicer grade of furs and muffs we are now offering at about what the goods actually cost; and we can show you as handsome a line of fine capes and muffs as you ever saw in this market. We have a big lot of cheap 50c muffs and capes which are not being sold at cost.

D. T. SWINDELL.

Special attention is directed to the advertisement of the Oak City Steam Laundry. The members of the Legislature and public are invited to call next Wednesday morning to see the operations of the plant.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

FOURTH DAY.

SENATE.

Met at 11 o'clock with Lieut. Gov. Holt presiding.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, of the Baptist Tabernacle.

Journals read and approved. Senator Turner made a report from the committee on rules which were ordered to be printed.

The following standing committees were announced: Judiciary, Turner, chairman; Finance, Morgan, chairman; Education, Ardrey, chairman; Agricultural, Mechanical and Mining, Williams, chairman; Propositions and Grievances, Aycock, chairman; Internal Improvement, Butler, chairman; Insurance, Gilman, chairman; Salaries and fees, Avery, chairman; Banks and currency, Brooks, chairman; Privileges and Elections, Reid, chairman; Claims, Rose, chairman; enrolled bills, Grigsby, chairman; engrossed bills, Speight, chairman; corporations, Bellamy, chairman.

The following committees were announced:

Justice of Peace, Lucas, chairman; Public Buildings, Mitchell, chairman; Library, Bryan, chairman; Federal Relations, Ardrey, chairman; Rules, Turner, chairman.

INTRODUCED.

A bill, to regulate fees relating to claims of personal property.

A bill to prevent giving or accepting free transportation.

A resolution of instructions to the members of Congress (to secure a geological survey for N. C.)

A bill to amend the Constitution of North Carolina.

A bill to authorize the city of Wilmington to purchase ground for a public park.

A bill to regulate the registration of chattel mortgages.

CALENDAR & C.

A message was received from the House announcing the concurrence of that body in the resolution proposing to redistrict &c., with amendments; the Senate refused to concur, and authorized a committee of conference.

The resolution of instruction to members of Congress, for the purpose of securing a geological survey, was referred to the committee on Federal Relations.

A resolution proposing that the Senate meet at 10 o'clock a. m., Saturday and Monday at 3 p. m., caused a wide discussion, and was finally tabled.

A bill to amend the charter of Henderson water works company was referred.

A resolution of instruction to the members of Congress to vote for financial reform as demanded by the recent farmers' meeting at Okala, Fla., was taken up but as it required a suspension of the rules to put it on its passage, it was referred to the committee on Federal relations. Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

After an opening prayer by Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon, the House began its work.

Chairman Holman, of the finance committee, reported favorably a bill to empower Mecklenburg county to refund bonded indebtedness. It then passed.

Mr. Holman introduced a resolution of instruction to our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

Among bills introduced the following were the most important:

Amend the Code relative to sheriffs' fees and those of constables in the service of roads.

Regulate liabilities of employers to make compensation for personal injuries to employees in their service.

Increase the public school revenues.

To regulate the sale of corn in certain counties.

To regulate dower and in regard to the probate of deeds.

To prohibit labor agents from carrying farm laborers from this State.

To amend the charter of Trinity College.

To incorporate the Bank of Cumberland, at Fayetteville

To compensate judges and canvassers of elections.

To tax incomes.

To regulate the sale of liquor in North Carolina.

To amend the divorce laws.

Committees were announced as follows:

Agriculture and mining, Phillips, of Nash, chairman; judiciary, Sutton, chairman; rules, Peebles, chairman; propositions and grievances, Ray, chairman.

The first debate of the session arose as soon as Mr. Holman's resolution of instruction was read. It covers the matters agreed on at the Alliance caucus last night.

It says: Resolved, That our Senators in the 51st and 52d Congress be and they are hereby instructed and our representatives requested to vote for and use all honorable means to secure the objects of the financial reforms as contemplated in the platform adopted at the Ocala meeting of the National Farmers' Alliance held in December, 1890.

After nearly two hours' discussion the resolution was adopted, 98 to 18.

A message from the Governor was read stating the urgent necessity for immediate action to protect the State's oyster interests.
