NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

We call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Jones & Powell to be found in our columns today.

Court convenes in Goldsboro next Monday with Judge Winston presiding.

Valentine Day is only one month off from today, being the 14th of February.

A big revival of religion is in progress in the Bladen Street M. E. Church at Wilmington.

Quinine, it is said, is a sure cure for "la-grippe." Try it, those of you who are suffering with this dreadful disease.

We see it stated that "Peg Leg" Williams is in some of the eastern counties seeking whom he may devour.

It will be well for everybody to be on the lookout for counterfeit coins. Imitations in both silver and gold are going the rounds.

Be sure and attend the sale of valuable real estate, by W. N. Jones, attorney for mortgagees at the courthouse door at 12 o'clock tomorrow.

Litchford Encampment 26th meets tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Every Patriarch is requested to be present. Refreshments will be served.

We learn through President R. H. Battle, that the Executive Committee of the North Carolina State Agricultural Society have fixed upon the 13th of October, 1891, as the date for the opening of the next State Fair, which will be continued four days.

The circulation of the Daily and Weekly Messenger of Wilmington, is over 9,000. That is a good circulation. The Messenger is a good paper and deserves a better circulation than even that.

The Grand Lodge of Masons now in session by as fine a body of gentlemen as can be found anywhere in the State, for intelligence and fine looks and the number is larger than at any Grand Lodge that has assembled here for many years; every Lodge being represented either by representatives or proxy.

Col. R. F. Webb, a prominent citizen of Durham, aged about 66 years, died in that place on Sunday last. He served in the Mexican war and also in the late war between the States. In the latter he was Captain of Co. B, 6th North Carolina Infantry, and at its close had been promoted to Colonel of the same regiment. At the time of his death and for several years had been engaged in the leaf tobacco business in copartnership with Mr. Albert Kramer. He was a good citizen, and will be missed in Durham.

Quarterly Meeting.

There will be a quarterly meeting of the Christian Church, tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Lost.

Sissie Margaret has lost her doll cap; any one finding it will leave it at the VISITOR office. Please bring it; Sissie is in trouble, her doll is bare-headed.

I. O. O. F.

Personal Mention.

Miss Rosa, daughter of Mr. N. B. Broughton has been sick, confined at home for several days.

Mr. Oscar L. Bailey is supposed to be somewhat better, though quite sick yet at his mothers. He has been quite ill for several days.

Rev. W. S. Black, D. D., of the Oxford Orphan Asylum is in the city.

We were pleased to meet Hon W. R. Cox, at the Governor's reception last night.

We were pleased to meet Mr. D. E. McKinney of Princeton, Johnson county, at the Governor's Reception last night.

Rev. E. Pope, is in the city today, looking as fat and happy as usual.

Mr. S. M. Dunn, Register of Deeds is quite sick, and confined to his room. We hope he will soon be at his post of duty.

Maj. Blanton, the handsome mayor of Asheville, has been in the city several days.

Rev. W. S. Creeey, D. D., is in the city in attendance upon the Grand Lodge.

The Grand Lodge.

The one hundred and fourth annual Communication of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masonry of North Carolina convened in this city last night with the most Worshipful Grand Master, Samuel H. Smith, of Winston, with the other Grand Officers opened the Grand Lodge.

The worshipful Grand Master read his report, which was referred to a committee. The Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer also read their reports which was also referred.

Gov. Fowle tendered through the Grand Secretary, an invitation to the Grand Lodge to be present at his reception, which was accepted, and the Grand Lodge marched down in a body numbering about two or three hundred. The Grand Lodge met this morning at 10 o'clock.

Election of Officers of the National Bank of Raleigh.

The stockholders of the National Bank of Raleigh held their annual meeting at their banking house yesterday. After hearing the reports of the officers and directors and after transacting the usual business elected the following named gentlemen directors: Hon. E. G. Reade, R. T. Gray, James A. Briggs, Hon. Joseph B. Batchelor, Chas. E. Johnson, W. G. Upchurch, F. O. Moring, Julius Lewis, Charles H. Belvin.

All the present officers were continued as follows: Hon. E. G. Reade, President; W. G. Upchurch, Vice President; Charles H. Belvin, Cashier; F. H. Briggs, Teller; F. L. Mahler, W. T. Womble and J. B. Timberlake, Book-keeper; J. W. Harden, Clerk; D. D. Upchurch, Collector.

The Governor's Reception.

The Governor's Reception last night was a very brilliant occasion. We had good opportunity to become a judge of crowds 30 years ago, but that training was all in open field, we cant judge by the house full, especially so large a one as the Governor's residence. For hours the stream of attendants arriving and departing was undiminished and the spacious mansion was crowded in every part. The Governor and his very accomplished daughter, Miss Hellen, seemed just as fresh and hearty in their congratulations after having received for hours, as if you alone were being cordially greeted, when their attention was unexpectedly called to the approach of another just behind you. The Governor and his fair daughter did the honors of the new mansion with the dignity and grace fully becoming the occasion; and the large number of persons in attendance upon this the first occasion of the kind in this grand old commonwealth for nearly a generation, fully attest the endorsement of the people of our Governor, and of the establishment of his new home.

Card of Thanks.

MR. EDITOR:—I beg leave through the columns of your paper to thank the good people of Raleigh and elsewhere for the great sympathy and substantial aid that has been extended me and my family in my late misfortunes. I hardly know how to express my feelings, my heart is too full of honest, sincere gratitude for utterance. Taken as I was, suddenly from my home and family, it is impossible for me to tell you, dear friends, how anxious I felt about the condition of my dear wife and little babies; but what could I do except trust God the Father of us all, and when a jury of my country said I was "not guilty" I went in great haste to these loved ones and they told me with their eyes filled with tears of joy for me and gratitude to you how much the good people of Raleigh and elsewhere had done for them. I realized then that my prayers had been answered, and the good Lord had sent in you the good Samaritan. May God bless you, one and all my friends, and may He so direct me that I may always prove worthy of your confidence and respect. W. E. HOGUE.

The Meeting Last Night.

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry, quite a number of citizens, not members, were present and became interested in the subjects brought up for the consideration of the Chamber.

Mr. W. N. Jones offered a resolution looking to the extension of the city limits one fourth of a mile west, north and east.

The resolution after considerable discussion was not adopted.

The reports of Committees were called for by the President, Mr. Latta, and the only one prepared to make a report, was the Committee on the new depot, etc, who through their Chairman, Mayor Thompson reported negotiations in progress with the gentlemen in charge of the work on the new depot for the railroads. It is to be hoped that this committee will not let the subject be forgotten, and at a proper time will press the paving of Martin street entire, from Fayetteville street to and in front of the new depot.

Officers and Stockholders of the Citizen's National Bank Elected.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Citizens' National Bank was held yesterday. The following Board of Directors for the ensuing year were elected:

Dr. W. J. Hawkins, Col. A. B. Andrews, Dr. R. H. Lewis, R. H. Battle, Esq., and C. M. Hawkins, Esq.

The officers of the bank were re-elected as follows:

Dr. W. J. Hawkins, President; Col. A. B. Andrews, Vice President; Joseph G. Brown, Cashier; B. S. Jerman, Teller; Henry E. Litchford, F. P. Hayward, Jr., Book-keeper; W. W. Roberts, Corresponding Clerk; W. H. Bain, Clerk; Henry J. Young, Collector.

Cash and Credit.

Oh that awful word credit, how many men have had their wealth scattered to the wind, and many of them their souls ushered into eternity by the use of credit? Ninety-nine out of one hundred will abuse it, and when abused often destroys the soul with it. This is no idle word but facts. We could point you to many instances that come under your own observation who lost their property, if not their souls by this awful thing called credit. You had better when you leave your home with a memorandum made out for $20 worth of goods and with only $10 to pay on same, you had better stop and reflect and remember that you can buy more good at D. T. Swindell's than anywhere else for $10. Remember we buy for cash and leave no stone unturned to take all the advantages of cash which you all know is powerful and will prevail. We sell for the self-same musical stuff called cash. D. T. SWINDELL.

Wake Superior Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday by His Honor Judge Winston in the Wake Superior Court: State vs Frank Perry and Sam'l H. Perry, sci. fa.; discharged upon payment of cost.

State vs Fabius Womack, assault with deadly weapon; pleaded guilty. Fined a penny and cost.

State vs T. O. Faucett, assault with deadly weapon; pleaded guilty. Fined five dollars and cost.

State vs Bennett Cook, assault with deadly weapon; verdict guilty. Fined one penny and cost.

State vs Calvin Rogers (Jack the Grabber), verdict guilty. Sentenced to three years at hard labor on the public roads.

State vs Frank Penny, trespass; appeal—nol pros.

State vs Alex Weathers, forgery; verdict, guilty. Sentenced to six months hard labor on the public roads.

State vs W. H. Chappell enticing servants; verdict guilty. Fined six pence and cost.

State vs Nat Fort, larceny; verdict, not guilty.

State vs Frank Busbee (3 cases) larceny and receiving; pleaded guilty. Sentenced to five years on the public roads.

State vs Julius Johnston, indictment, murder. Verdict, not guilty of murder, but guilty of felonious slaying. Sentenced to two years in the county jail.

Both the grand and petit jurors are discharged for the term, and court having finished all the business of the term adjourned sine die.
