RALEIGH, TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1891.

NO. 93

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The celebrated actress Miss Alberta Gallatin will appear in Metropolitan Hall on 23 and 24.

Messrs. Crowder & Rand have disposed of their splendid pair of grays, and have gotten a pair of fine mules in their stead.

The store room formerly occupied by Messrs. M. T. Norris & Bro., is being fitted up for the office of the Postal Telegraph Company.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. T. Emory Cole, of Washington City, the son of our friend and townsman Mr. Jno. W. Cole, to Miss Carrie Rhem, of New Berne, N. C. The marriage will take place on the 4th of February.

Don't say you can't do it. It is as easy as falling off a log when you know how. The boys are just rushing to Messrs Whiting Bros with their answers. If you don't get the prize, let them know you can work it right. In tomorrow's issue Messrs Whiting Bros will publish the name of the winner.

We learn from good authority that there is a family consisting of a father and six children who are in very destitute circumstances, living at the south west corner of Cabarrus and Person streets. The father is confined to his bed and has been for several weeks and has been visited by some of the good people of our city and provided for. The oldest child a daughter, upon whom all of the household duties devolved (11 years old) is now confined with a severe case of measles. We know that all that is necessary is to let some of our christian ladies know of this unfortunate case.

The Argonaut.

We are glad to see the Argonaut of Rocky Mount, again among our exchanges, looking about as bright as before its fire by which it was said to have been cremated.

St. John's Hospital.

A chance is given all who desire to aid this noble charity on application to Mr. A. P. Bryan at the Express office. He will furnish cards prepared for the purpose, upon which contributions can be written. It is earnestly desired that all who can do so, should help out this great institution.

Preparations For War.

Gov. Fowle yesterday telegraphed to the Governor of South Carolina for the use of cannon in case of need. The Governor is in earnest. Our oyster interest should be protected from the wanton destruction of the oyster beds, by the outside world, and indeed by those of our own people who so dredge as to destroy vastly more than they catch.

Personal Mention.

Rev. O. O. DuRant and Rev. B. C. Aldred are both confined to their rooms with grippe.

Mr. Joseph A. Creech has returned to the city from an extended trip to Texas.

C. M. Busbee, Esq., has gone to Washington City on particular business.

We are glad to see Capt. W. J. White, of Warrenton in the city, looking well and in good spirits.

Mr. J. D. Lee, continues quite ill at his home, 109 South Wilmington street.

Nice dinner and toilet sets just received at Hughes'.

Died.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. S. M. Dunn, the Register of Deeds for Wake County, which took place this morning at the residence of Mr. E. A. Carver, on New Berne Avenue. Mr. Dunn was about 52 years old, and was born and raised in Wake Forest Township this county. He was a member of Manly's Battery that went from this county and in the service of which he lost a leg. Mr. Dunn stood well in Wake County as his nomination and election to the office of Register of Deeds attests.

Vick's Floral Guide for 1891.

No lover of a fine plant or garden can afford to be without a copy. It is an elegant book of over 100 pages good size, beautiful colored illustrations of Sunrise Amaranthus, Hydrangea and Potatoes. Instructions for planting, cultivating, etc. Full list of everything that can be desired in the way of Vegetable and Flower Seeds, Plants, Clubs, etc. Also full particulars regarding the cash prizes of $1,000 and $200. The novelties have been tested and found worthy of cultivation. We advise our friends to secure a copy of James Vick Seedsman, Rochester, N. Y.

Normal and Industrial School.

The prospects for the establishment of this much needed Institution seem to be favorable. The Educational Senate and House Committees yesterday afternoon held a meeting at which Superintendent Finger, Prof. Melver and Prof. Alderman delivered addresses. Dr. J. L. M. Curry, agent of the Peabody Fund made a most eloquent appeal in behalf of the young women of North Carolina.

We most earnestly hope that the General Assembly will take early and favorable action in the premises. It is a matter of the utmost importance.

This Morning When

We opened our store we had a dead rush for those white laundried shirts at 60 cents. We advertised the shirts in yesterday's papers, and we told the people what a good opportunity it was to get a dollar shirt for 60c, and this morning they came to see for themselves and they found a much better thing than we represented it to be. Many were surprised and some admitted it was the most honest goods and the best value for the piece ever offered in the town. Some would ask why we sold these shirts for 60 cents when we could get a dollar quite as easy for them, but we are satisfied with a small profit and we want quick sales. We feel delighted when we see a man buy one of the shirts at 60c, for we know we have made a friend and will keep him and get his friends. Now, we have a big lot of these shirts, and we want you to get one or two. We don't want you to buy them in lots. See them if you do no more. Men's sizes 60c; boys' sizes, 50c, at

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

TWELFTH DAY.

SENATE.

Met at 11 o'clock with Lieut. Gov. Holt presiding.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshal, of Christ Church.

Journal read and approved. Several unimportant petitions were presented.

The clerk announced the ratification of several bills, among them a resolution to establish State Banks with power to issue bills.

The following are among the bills introduced:

To consolidate and revise the charter of Salem.

To form Salem Township in Granville.

Relating to the Norfolk and Southern Railroad.

To provide for a State Supervision by the State over railroads, steamboats, telegraph companies, etc.

To provide passenger transportation for officers of the State of North Carolina.

To prevent playing of games on premises where liquor is sold.

To provide a Normal and Industrial School for the white girls of the State.

The bill to amend the code making 6 per cent the legal rate of interest was taken up and passed its 2d reading.

Bill to encourage mechanical industry, etc, passed its 3d reading.

Bill to license dealing in futures in North Carolina; lost.

The hour of 12 having arrived the Senate proceeded to vote for a United States Senator for the next six years. Senator Lucas placed in nomination the name of Z. B. Vance paying him a most beautiful tribute? The nomination was warmly seconded by Senator Bellamy and others. Senator Walser, of Davidson, placed in nomination in a glowing speech, J. C. Pritchard, of Madison. This nomination was seconded by the Senator from Craven. The Senate proceeded to vote with the following result: Vance 40; Pritchard 7.

Bill to validate certain wills and probations; passed 3d reading.

The Senate concurred in a resolution of the House to appoint a joint committee to nominate Trustees of the University. The president appointed the following committee: Bellamy, chairman; Riggsbee and Davis of Franklin.

Bill to amend charter of Reidsville; passed 2d reading.

Bill to amend charter of Jonesboro; passed over informally.

Bill relating to tax on fertilizers, was taken up—the bill imposes a tax of 25 cents per ton.

An amendment proposing to reduce the tax to 15 cents was offered. This caused a wide discussion. The amendment was lost and the bill passed its 2nd and 3rd readings. The Senate concurred in a resolution to meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives tomorrow at 10 o'clock to hear an address from Hon. Mr. Curry, on the subject of education.

After passing a few unimportant bills of a private character, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter, of Raleigh offered the opening prayer.

A petition was presented, asking for the establishment of an industrial school for girls.

The following bills were introduced:

To establish a training school at Trinity College, and to authorize a uniform system of cancellation of county scrip after payment.

To repeal the law in regard to the sale of seed cotton.

To amend the charter of Wadesboro.

To regulate the discharge of convicts.

The House concurred in the Senate's proposition to ballot at noon for United States Senator. The speaker appointed Messrs. Skinner and Hendricks, tellers on the part of the House.

The bill to tax dogs $1.00, entitled.

A bill for the protection of sheep husbandry, was taken up. The yeas and nays were demanded on a motion to table it, (the report of the committee being adverse to the bill). The result was yeas 82, nays 9, so the bill went to the table.

Upon motion of Mr. Jones, Dr. J. L. M. Curry, agent of the Peabody Fund, was invited to a seat on the floor of the House.

The bill to incorporate the town of New Wilksboro, passed its third reading.

Mr. Jones offered a resolution that the Legislature should meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to hear Dr. Curry deliver his address. The resolution was adopted.

The special order, the nomination of a United States Senator, was announced.

Mr. Greer, of Mecklenburg, in an appropriate speech nominated Senator Vance.

Mr. Hendricks nominated Jeter C. Pritchard, of Madison county, and eulogized him as a typical young republican.

Senator Vance's nomination was seconded by Messrs. Jones, Ray, Skinner and Lowry.

Mr. Cobb seconded Pritchard's nomination.

The balloting then began, under the direction of tellers Skinner and Hendricks. The result was: Vance, 88; Pritchard, 13; Dockery, 1.

During the balloting, &c., the lobbies and galleries were packed with people, who manifested the greatest interest in the proceedings.

The House then took up the pending bill, in regard to the protection of the board of pharmacy. Mr. Holman's amendment that it should not apply to towns of less than 500 population.

Mr. Sutton said the object of the bill was to protect people from incompetent druggists, therefore a bill to protect human life. He heartily favored the bill. It then passed its third reading, after the adoption of an amendment by Mr. Currie making it apply only to towns of over 800 population.

The resolution instructing the committee on public printing to award the contract for it at 15 per cent less than the present price was referred to the committee on public printing, as was also a bill to provide for the printing of an additional number of copies of the report of the State board of health.

A bill to amend the charter of Asheville, so as to allow the people to vote upon the issue of bonds to secure the location of the Bingham school there, passed its second reading.

Norris' Dry Goods Store.

Gents fine hand-sewed shoes, from now until February 1st at $3.75 Hanans & Dorch's make. The regular prices were $4.89 and $5.00 a pair. This reduction does not effect the quality but to the wearer means a considerable saving of money. They are perfectly good, regular stock, but remnants of lots, with all a great bargain—for beauty, style and fits. Our $3.00 congress gaiters and lace shoes for gentlemen's wear are unequaled. Rubber shoes and umbrellas with us are "quick sellers," the prices we ask, for the qualities we sell, has something to do with this. We sell a handsome gossamer for only $1.25. Our Stock of Blankets at Cost to Close.

THE GREAT REDUCTION OF OUR

JANUARY SALE

has made many of our departments fairly glow with bargains. We do not consider profits when we are making such reductions in prices as we are this month, but there are times when we consider it better to sell a line of goods rather than carry them over.

Nothing has yet equalled our unsurpassed offerings in

W-R-A-P-S!

We have not postponed making these low prices until the warmth of spring is upon us, but are giving our patrons the benefit of these unheard of reductions right in mid winter when such goods are of most use.

Only two weeks now remain before we take our

ANNUAL INVENTORY

and during this time we intend disposing of many lines of winter goods, and the opportunity is offered to gether wonderful bargains from our fancy departments.
