NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Don't forget the O. C. S. Club meeting tonight.

The pump on Smithfield street is out of fix causing much inconvenience to persons in the neighborhood.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. Whiting Bros., in this issue.

Last night a rain set in with the wind from the south west, and, this morning early, it turned into a storm which, for awhile, seemed to threaten a hurricane. It bordered on the fearful for a short time, and no mistake.

In our notice yesterday of the illness of Dr. Broughton, of Reidsville, N. C., the type made us refer to him as the uncle of our esteemed townsman N. B. Broughton; the relationship is the reverse. He is the nephew of Mr. N. B. Broughton.

The death of Dr. R. W. King, of Wilson, which took place at his home in Wilson county, last Sunday night, is a source of deep regret to his many friends throughout North Carolina. He was a physician of much eminence and a gentleman of the highest character in the private walks of life.

We are sorry to see that no arrangements are apparent for extending the new system of street Railway. We notice, that on Hillsboro street, the post holes are dug only as far as the city limits. The sooner the Agricultural College, Pullen Park, and the Fair grounds are reached, the more certain will the scheme become a remunerative one. Expansion in this matter, is the key to success. It is so in all other towns, and this will prove no exception.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge No. 64, I. O. O. F. tonight at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Second Degree will be conferred and other business of importance will be brought before the lodge. Candidates entitled to receive the Second Degree will be on hand at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Every Odd Fellow cordially invited.

Personal Mention.

Col. Thos. B. Keogh, of Greensboro, is in the city.

We regret to learn that our venerable citizen, Mr. Sylvester Smith, continues very ill.

Mr. J. C. L. Harris has gone to Washington City on business.

We are pleased to see Mr. Chas. W. Lambeth, our city clerk, who has been quite sick, at his post again.

O. C. S. Club.

At a meeting last Tuesday night of the young men of this city the above club was organized, with the following officers: President, Manager, Secretary and Treasurer.

There will be an important meeting tonight and all members are earnestly requested to be present, as business of importance will be transacted. Place of meeting will be known personally.

Don't Fail.

We hardly deem it necessary to remind our people of the necessity for a full turn out at the Mass Meeting tonight at Metropolitan Hall. Remember it is called for the purpose of taking steps to secure for Raleigh the permanent location of the Southern Exposition and Immigration Bureau. If we can succeed in this matter we will have the co-operation of the Southern States, in an annual exposition, and will besides be the means of bringing from time to time large sums of money and thousands of visitors among us.

Surely such an opportunity as this should not be allowed to go by default. It is one of these matters that admit of no delay, and we should push it with all the energy at command. Let there be a large turnout.

All Quiet.

Outside of the Legislature there is very little of interest now occupying the attention of our people. We are as quiet as it is possible for a town the size of Raleigh to be. It will not be long, however, before the cauldron will be burning away again in the shape of a contest for municipal honors. We already hear of many who are trimming their sails to serve the dear people, and before the leaves are full grown in the coming May their name will be "legion." In the meantime, it will be well for our folks to scan the field so that the best timber may be selected at the proper time. Wonder if we can't trim this matter down so that the old adage will come in. It reads thus: "Let the office rather seek the man, than the man seek the office." When we can manage to get down to that plane, all of us will be better for it. However, the time is a considerable distance off yet, and we should remember that "all's well that ends well."

Miss Alberta Gallatin.

The people of Raleigh will have the pleasure of witnessing a dramatic treat tomorrow night of rare excellence. It has been frequently asserted as a reason for non-attendance at shows in Raleigh, that they lack merit. This surely is not the case in this instance. Miss Gallatin bears a reputation as an emotional actress second to no lady now on the American Stage, and this is attested by notices from the press wherever she has appeared. Tomorrow night she will appear in Shakespeare's beautiful play of "As You Like It," one of the finest and most classic productions of the immortal bard. It is a play in which the ladies always take delight and we hope to see Metropolitan Hall crowded. Reserved seats are on sale at MacRae's drug store. Call and make your selections.

Cubit Concealed in an Egg.

A proposal come to a pretty Maine school teacher in a very novel manner. While at her father's home in Sidney, a few years ago, she wrote her name and address upon an egg, which she had secured in all its warm freshness from the maternal nest. The egg went to market, and the fact that it bore an inscription was forgotten. In the course of weeks a letter came to the schoolma'm, and to her amazement she learned that that particular egg had hatched strange results. The son of a big commission merchant in a Massachusetts city had seen the name and had written to say that "if the young lady was as pretty as her name he would like to form more intimate acquaintance." With the characteristic modesty of the Maine schoolma'm our heroine discouraged the advances of the strangely acquired admirer. However, he was persistent, and came down to Maine. It is to be supposed that he found his ideal, for an engagement and wedding followed in quick succession.—Philadelphia Enquirer.

NORRIS' DRY GOODS STORE.

Mantee Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F.

You are again reminded that you are most earnestly requested to meet the officers of your lodge tonight at 7 o'clock sharp at the store of Mr. T. W. Blake on Fayetteville street.

TWO VERY HAPPY MEN.

C. E. Cross and S. C. White Pardoned by The Governor.

His Excellency, Gov. D. G. Fowle pardoned Messrs Cross and White, the President and Cashier of the wrecked State National Bank, this morning. He did it on the recommendation of a large number of the best people of the State, including the judge, jurors and solicitor, and a large majority of the General Assembly now in session; also upon the recommendation of Senators Ransom and Vance. There is no doubt that this merciful act of Gov. Fowle will meet the approbation of the public generally. The demands of justice have been amply met.

The following is the order for pardon:

In these cases there was no preconceived purpose to defraud or to obtain personal advantage, but it was an attempt to sustain a sinking bank by unwarranted means, and unlawful practices. In a fit of desperation and failure, they succumbed to the temptation and fled carrying money with them belonging to others almost all of which was afterwards surrendered by them. The former character of these men and their action after the offences were committed show that they do not belong to the criminal class in the ordinary acceptance of the term, and considering the punishment already suffered and the recommendations of so many of the members of both co-ordinate branches of the Government as well as of my associates in the Executive Department and of very excellent citizens, I think it right to order the pardons to issue.

DANIEL G. FOWLE,
Governor.

Register of Deeds.

Correspondence of the VISITOR

It will be remembered that at the Wake County Democratic Convention there were two prominent candidates before the convention for the position of Register of Deeds. Mr. W. N. Snelling was one of them, and a plea being made for Mr. S. M. Dunn, who was nominated, Mr. Snelling withdrew in his favor. Mr. Snelling is now a candidate for the place again, with the right of that convention in his favor expressed at the time, which is the strongest endorsement that can be presented before the county commissioners, we should think.

The track of the Georgia, Carolina and Northern railroad has now been laid across the Savannah river and track laying is now progressing on the Georgia side towards Atlanta.—The bridge just completed across the Savannah is a handsome iron structure of the most modern kind. Trains will soon run clear through from Monroe, N. C., to Pittsburg, Ga., near the confluence of the Broad and Savannah rivers.—Wilmington Messenger.

Herman Puntleaf, a young wood-chopper employed in a camp near Clintonville, Wis., cut one of his feet badly. A companion assisted him part of the way home and then went ahead to get assistance. When he returned only blood and pieces of cloth were to be seen. The young man had been devoured by wolves.

Your Boy.

Your boy, not your big boy, but your little boy has been seen on the streets with a cigarette in his mouth, puffing away. Would you thank a body for coming before your face and telling you of it? Death from cigarette smoking is not rare, and even when the practice does not prove fatal it is often times the cause of life long infirmity. Your little boy is on the track.

Supervisor McMackin will soon commence work on the Fayetteville road and says he will put it in splendid condition.

CHARGED WITH ARSON.

A Manufacturer Accused of Burning His Own Factory.

TROY, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Ernst Beansiger of Union Hill, N. J., made affidavit charging Nathwn Klein with burning his own collar factory in this city in November, 1890. Klein was insured for $75,000 on a doctored inventory. The insurance companies refused to pay the amount, as Klein's factory had also been burned in February, 1883, under suspicious circumstances. A month ago a compromise was effected, the insurance companies agreeing to pay $12,500. The payment was just about to be made when Beansiger brought up the accusation. A motion was made to reopen the case, on which Judge Edwards reserved his decision. Other affidavits will be produced and rich developments are expected.

THE GREAT REDUCTION OF OUR

JANUARY SALE

has made many of our departments fairly glow with bargains. We do not consider profits when we are making such reductions in prices as we are this month, but there are times when we consider it better to sell a line of goods rather than carry them over.

Nothing has yet equalled our unsurpassed offerings in

W-R-A-P-S!

We have not postponed making these low prices until the warmth of spring is upon us, but are giving our patrons the benefit of these unheard of reductions right in mid winter when such goods are of most use. Only two weeks now remain before we take our
