NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Many members of both Houses of the General Assembly are still absent, caused from sickness.

Yesterday, Sheriff J. Rowan Rogers settled his taxes in full with the State Treasurer, amounting to $27,566.81. This is ahead of any other county in North Carolina.

Do you wear a No. 15 men's shoes? If not do you know who does? If you do, tell him Whiting Bros can fit him now as they have just received a big lot of shoes.

The cotton receipts in this city, for the season up to date are 30,925 bales. For the same time last year they were 17,229. This is a fine showing and looks well for the predicted 40,000 bales.

Things begin to look like business on the electric railroad. The motors have arrived and other arrangements being perfected look as if the scheme is to be rapidly pushed to completion.

Large numbers of mules are being brought to Raleigh, and we learn that the prices realized are very good. The fine crops the past season has enabled our farmers generally to lay in fresh supplies of live stock.

We hear that the new movement for the early closing of our stores is working like a charm, both as to sellers and purchasers. It gives all a chance for recreation and works no harm to any one.

The Colored Odd Fellow have in view the building of a temple on a lot purchased on Cabarrus between Wilmington and Blount streets. The site is an eligible one, and the prospects, we hear, are good for the early commencement of the work.

It is reported that stock companies are being organized in various parts of the State. Another cotton mill at Hickory; a stock company to manufacture building material at Greensboro; a stock company to make and operate electric and gas lights at Henderson; a broom factory at Marion; foundry and machine shops at Maxton; spring bed company at Raleigh; cigar factory at Rocky Mount.

Register of Deeds.

At the called meeting of the Board of County Commissioners held today Mr. Millard Mial, of Mark's Creek township, was chosen Register of Deeds for Wake county to fill the vacancy caused by the death of S. M. Dunn, Esq. The ballot stood 4 for Mr. Mial and 1 against.

Ingomar.

The lovers of the drama have a chance of witnessing tonight one of the most popular productions on the stage. Ingomar has a fine run wherever presented in the great centers of the country, and the plot of the play is such as to render it of much interest throughout. Miss Gallatin will be in her proper sphere and the public can be expected to see a fine piece of acting.

A Boy Gets a Ducking.

A small boy the other day, while the rain was falling and the gutters were pretty well filled, went trudging along wading, boy like, in the water, stepped into one of the many holes dug along the lines of the street railway and but for throwing out his arms, would have been immersed if not drowned. As he crawled out he exclaimed to a gentleman passing:—"Look at me." Hurry up, gentlemen, and put your poles in those holes so as to keep the boys out.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

We would like to sell between now and February 1st every fur cape, and fur muff that we have. If we do not sell every single one by that time we will not be surprised, but we do expect to sell nearly every one, because they have been marked down to wholesale cost, and most of them greatly below cost. We haven't got a big stock of either, but what we have now will be offered cheap, and very cheap at that.

Mass Meeting.

At a meeting of the citizens of Raleigh held at Metropolitan Hall January 22nd, the undersigned committee was appointed to present to those citizens who were not present, the outlook for holding at Raleigh an Exposition, representing the resources of the entire south. The Exposition will be held under the auspices of the Southern Immigration Bureau. This Bureau is now located at Austin, Texas.

The first object to be attained, in order to secure the Exposition, is to induce the General Manager to remove his headquarters to Raleigh.

The plan which this committee submits, and which it heartily and thoroughly endorses, is, that the citizens of Raleigh subscribe ten thousand dollars, placing this amount in the hands of five gentlemen, as Trustees—whom the meeting to be held Monday night next will select.

These gentlemen agreeing to accept the trust, and to disburse the funds entrusted to their keeping, as the progress of the Exposition may warrant.

Your committee believes that this proposition may secure the Bureau and the Exposition, provided the amount indicated is tendered by the 27th of January. The benefit to be derived by the State, County, and City from such an Exposition, are so obvious that it is not necessary here to enlarge upon them.

The suggestion is, that the exhibit be free to our citizens for ten months in the year, with arrangements for excursions to and from Raleigh, twice a month, (oftener if necessary) from all parts of the country, to enable immigrants to see the products of our section of the Union.

In the fall, a general Exposition will be opened, to hold sixty days—the State Fair being held at the usual time—for admission to which the regular charge will be made. During this Exposition special daily excursions will be run at very low rates, and it will be safe to say that an Exposition on such a scale will bring to Raleigh, during October and November, 100,000 visitors, an average expenditure of FIVE dollars each while here, would leave in Raleigh half million dollars which would quicken the pulse of trade, benefit every profession, every manufacturer, and add materially to the prosperity of every citizen.

Under the plan proposed we have much to gain and little to lose. Such an opportunity comes but once in a life time, and we earnestly appeal to EVERY citizen of Raleigh to come to a mass meeting to be held at Metropolitan Hall, Monday, Jan. 26th, at 8 o'clock p. m., and aid in securing this great prize, which will redound to the benefit, not only of the people of Raleigh, but to the whole State.

War Preparations.

In response to a request from Gov. Fowle, Gov. McKinney, of Virginia, has sent to Elizabeth City, a howitzer to be used, if necessary in carrying out the provisions of the oyster law recently passed. The Richmond State says:

"Gov. McKinney was informed by some one here that there is not an artillery company in the old North State. This is probably a mistake."

It is more probable that our Executive was called upon for the loan of a piece of ordnance because Norfolk is nearer the scene of the oyster conflict than Raleigh or any other section of North Carolina where there is an artillery organization."

For Rent.

STREET CAR DIPLOMACY.

How a Pretty Southern Girl Got Seats for Herself and Friend.

New York Herald.

It was about 11 o'clock on the elevated road—and elsewhere

At Twenty third street two pretty young women in good clothes came aboard.

The morning rush was past, but still the car was full of comfortable business men studiously devoted to their newspapers.

Not a seat was vacant and not one was offered. One of the young women hitched herself onto a strap with an air of familiarity with the process; the other looked on and at the men with an expression of intellectual curiosity, not unmixed with scorn.

"You'll see Wall street running up against old Trinity," said she of the strap, as if continuing a previous conversation; "then I want to take you through one of the big office buildings, but we'll have to wait till papa—"

"Will we have to stand all the way down there?" asked her friend and evident guest irrelevantly, in soft, clear tones, and unmistakable Southern accent.

"No, not all the way," replied the New York girl, and then chaperoning her sex instead of her section, she added sotto voce, "some of these brutes will have to get out before Rector street—they'll have to give us a seat whether they want to or not."

"No, I don't think they will," said the Southerner in the same soft, audible tone, and casting a meditative look about her. "I think by their looks they'll stay aboard and lose money to keep us out of one."

A gentleman sitting on one of the cross seats with his back to them, now rose with an amused expression, saying:

"No, no, we're not so bad as that," and surrendered his seat, whereupon his vis-a-vis succumbed ruefully to moral suasion and gave up his. When the girls, with smiling thanks, were seated, the Southerner winked merrily at her friend and said:

"If you Nawthin gyps understood managing yah men they'd behave better. The iron hand in the velvet glove; that's a Southern women's forte."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Are You Aware

That one of the largest and most complete stocks of ladies fine shoes and gents hand made shoes are to be found in the store of D. T. Swindle? We have never said much about our shoe department, but we tell you now that you can get most any kind of shoe you may want at our store. Our shoe department is the largest department we have, and I think we sell more pairs of shoes than any house in the city. Why? The answer is simple. We sell a fine shoe for just as small a profit as we do on a pair of common shoes, while most merchants want from one dollar to two dollars profit on fine shoes. We are satisfied with our small profit—Get a pair of shoes at SWINDELL'S.

THE GREAT REDUCTION OF OUR

JANUARY SALE

has made many of our departments fairly glow with bargains. We do not consider profits when we are making such reductions in prices as we are this month, but there are times when we consider it better to sell a line of goods rather than carry them over.

Nothing has yet equalled our unsurpassed offerings in

W-R-A-P-S!

We have not postponed making these low prices until the warmth of spring is upon us, but are giving our patrons the benefit of these unheard of reductions right in mid winter when such goods are of most use.

Only two weeks now remain before we take our

and during this time we intend disposing of many lines of winter goods, and the opportunity is offered to get wonderful bargains from our fancy departments.
