SOUTHERN IMMIGRATION BUREAU.

It is of much importance to Raleigh that the final location of the Southern Inter-States Immigration Bureau be secured. Mr. John T. Patrick, who has been at work in its interest from its inception, has made Raleigh his headquarters, while Gen. Chilton, who is the President and head of the organization, has been located in Austin, Texas. Up to the present, it has been seeking to supply a felt need, but somewhat being led by developments in in adopting a course of action or plan of organization, which plan or course was clearly indicated at the Asheville Convention and is now being consummated by arranging for opening up a central headquarters, which headquarters of course will be not only the location of the central office, but the home of the organization. In connection with the central office will be a collection of specimens from each of the Southern States on permanent exhibition for the inspection of all those who visit the central office for information as to the best points at which to locate South. Of course this feature will be its most striking attraction. Each State, it is presumed, will be sufficiently interested to furnish a fair exhibit of its resources, so that a constantly growing museum of the Southern States will furnish an attraction not only to persons interested in selecting Southern homes, but to sightseers of all sorts from all sections as well. In addition to the establishment of this permanent exhibit from the Southern States, and as the first step to secure it, a Southern Inter-States exposition is contemplated to be held at the headquarters of this bureau in the near future. This, of course, would be a big thing for Raleigh—one that it cannot afford to let slip. A State exposition to continue for 30 days, has proven a big thing, but that would be small in importance compared to an exhibition of the 16 Southern States, say for 60 days. Such an exhibition would draw thousands from the North and Northwest to see it, as well as bring about right here in Raleigh a general interchange among the people of the Southern States themselves such as has never taken place in all time before.

To secure the location of the headquarters of this bureau at Raleigh, a meeting has been held and a committee appointed to make an appeal to the citizens for such financial aid as may be necessary. There are other points that want it and are willing to bid high for it, but as this has been Mr. Patrick's headquarters, and he has already established a foundation upon which to build, Raleigh has the best showing if the people will respond at all cheerfully in keeping with the merits of the object to be accomplished.

With the headquarters here, all the advertising done would necessarily place Raleigh first, and we all know something of Mr. Patrick's ability as an advertiser. With a grand museum of the products and attractions of the Southern States located at Raleigh, and Raleigh by that time or at an early date, on a great through trunk line from North to South, would not only need, but be obliged to furnish greater hotel accommodations. It is to be hoped that the people will appreciate this matter properly and respond liberally.

TO PREVENT BALDNESS.

Men Who sit in the Front row
Should Paste This in Their Hats.

N. Y. World.

"The preservation of the hair and the prevention of baldness is a matter to which I have given considerable attention and thought," said a barber the other day, "and I have come to the conclusion that all the patent tonics that were ever compounded by my craft are not half as good as a few simple and natural remedies which a child can make and use. It is, of course, impossible to prevent baldness where it is hereditary, but it can, however, be warded off.

"The hair, like every other portion of the human frame, if uncared for will go to waste and eventually drop out. This is due to a splitting of the ends of the hair, so that the interior oil duct, which nourishes the hair, is exposed and the natural nourishment of the hair runs to waste, overflows upon the head, forming dandruff, which impedes the growth of the hair just as much as the tares among wheat. The best means to prevent this is a strengthening of the hair, and this can be easily accomplished by frequent cutting and the use of salt and water and a little vaseline. Have you ever noticed what bushy hair seafaring men have? I followed the sea for a number of years: I don't remember ever having seen a bald sailor. It is because their hair is in constant contact with the invigorating salt air and is often wet with salt water. A good tonic of salt water should contain a teaspoonful of salt to a tumbler of water, and should be applied to the hair two of three times a week. The effect at the end of a month will be surprising. If the hair is thoroughly washed once a week with castile soap and the scalp rubbed with vaseline, the hair will not only cease to fall out, and the dandruff disappear, but will actually thicken. Having once got the hair in good condition, vigorous dry brushing and a resort occasionally to the treatment I have described will keep it so. Balzac, the famous French novelist, was a great stickler for brushing and rubbing the hair, and claimed to have warded off baldness for a long time, though he inherited it from both his father and mother. It is alarming how prevalent baldness now is among young men, and I attributed it entirely to the stiff Derby hat now in vogue. The hat impedes the circulation of the blood on the crown of the head and thus shuts off from the hair a large portion of its nourishment. The soft hat is far the best. Now for the next."

A Bridegroom's Hard Luck.

Fall River Globe.

There was a wedding at Westport yesterday, and the wedded couple started in one of Perry's landaus to take the 5:45 train from New Bedford. When near Bliss' corner one of the horses was affected with paralysis, and a message was sent to the stable for a relay. On the arrival of a fresh horse the disabled animal was left by the roadside and the journey was resumed. In order to accommodate the party the train was held for a few minutes and when the bridegroom alighted, in his agitation, he put his elbow through one of the plate glass windows of the carriage.

Summons by Publication.

Sarah Cooper v Silas Cooper. Proceedings for divorce from the bonds of matrimony.

A summons in the case having been issued for the defendant Silas Cooper, and the sheriff after using due diligence having returned the summons with the endorsement that the defendant is not to be found in Wake County, and it appearing by the affidavit of Sarah that the defendant Silas Cooper is in the State of Virginia and that personal service of the summons issued in the case cannot be had on the said Silas Cooper, it is therefore adjudged and ordered that service of the summons by publication once a week in the Daily Evening Visitor be made for six successive weeks, notifying said Silas Cooper that an action has been brought against him by his wife Sarah Cooper from the bonds of matrimony and that he appear at the next term of Wake Superior Court for the trial of civil causes which meets in the city of Raleigh on 23d day of February, 1891, and answer or demur to the complaint that will be filed during the first three days of the term; and if he does not appear and answer or demur that the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in her complaint. We call special attention to the Coal we propose to handle this sea and which we are receiving daily.

Kanawha, West Virginia, Splint.

Superior to any in the United States for grates and open fire places.

NEW RIVER LUMP for grates and stoves. It is the equal of any and surpassed by no other (save Kanawha Splint), be it under any name whatever. It has been upon the market for the last ten years, this is the first season for Raleigh and North Carolina. We have the New River for steam also, which we will put by the side of any other coal and guarantee equal, if not better results.

We are the agents for this coal and can ship for domestic and steam users to Charlotte, Henderson, Durham, Winston, Oxford and other points direct from the mines. Give it a trial, is what we ask.

HARD COAL. We have also a very choice lot of Red and White Ash for grates and stoves, which we screen before sending to our customers. Buy now and save money. Write for prices. Oak, hickory and pine wood, long or cut, on hand all the time.

TOXIC TOPICS

THE JOURNAL OF SOCIETY.

E. D. MANN, Proprietor.

PUBLISHED (NEW YORK) EVERY THURSDAY.

"Between the lines of railway and cynicism to read great lessons of life, morality and hope."

The newest, brightest, witliest, wisest, cleverest, most original, and most entertaining paper ever published.

A complete and perfect journal for cultivated men and women, being a topical and outspoken critic and chronicle of the events, doings, interests, and tastes of the fashionable world. It is always up to date, and carries with it the atmosphere of the metropolis.

In purity and power of literary style it has no equal on this continent.

A veritable symposium of well-bred satire; deftness and daintiness of touch; strength, independence and originality of thought; refined humor; caustic comment; piquancy of jest; short stories; musical, dramatic, literary and art criticisms; and topical sketches.

The fame of its Financial Department, as the most reliable authority on financial subjects, investments and speculation, is world-wide.

Its interest is by no means local; being the recognized journal of American society, it is equally entertaining in all parts of the country.

For sale each week by all first-class newsdealers in America and Europe. Every newsdealer will keep and supply it if requested. Newsdealers supplied by the American News Co., 39 Chambers Street, New York, and by all other news companies.
