NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

See advertisement of D. S. Waitt.

Don't fail to attend the meeting of citizens tonight at 8 o'clock.

G. Viola and family arrived here last Saturday and will make Raleigh their home.

Wm G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, A. F. and A. M. will meet in regular communication this evening at 7:30. Visiting brethren invited.

Attention is directed to the notice of Mr. L. R. Wyatt, proprietor of the Oak City Steam Laundry. The public generally are invited to call and examine the plant. It will prove an interesting visit.

The carpentering work on the main auditorium of Central M. E. Church is progressing, and when this building is completed it will be one of the handsomest churches in this State for its cost.

Mayor's Court.

Geo. Baldwin, colored, ex convict, was found in the house of Mr. D. H. Crawford last night, and sent to jail by the Mayor today.

Sion Blake for larceny was sent to jail. As the officer was putting him in, a negro prisoner who was near the door escaped but was recaptured.

The Epworth League.

The Epworth League of Edenton Street Methodist church will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock, in the Bible class rooms. It is earnestly hoped that every member will be present promptly at the appointed hour, and all members of the church or congregation, not under 15 years of age, are cordially invited to attend and become members of the league.

Sneak Thieves.

Last Saturday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock a gentleman went into a residence on Saunders street and left his umbrella in the piazza just outside of the door, it raining hard at the time. He remained in the house not exceeding three minutes when he started out. To his astonishment the front gate was wide open and the umbrella gone. During his short absence the sneak thief had done the work. We hear that several instances of the kind have happened of late. Look out for the rascals.

Capt. Dunn's Death.

We briefly noticed a few days since the statement that Capt. E. C. Dunn had been killed near Newport, Tenn. The following United Press dispatch from Newport dated the 23d inst. gives the following particulars:

"Captain E. C. Dunn was shot and killed at his home near here early this morning by W. A. Moore, Jr., Peyton Dunn, son of the murdered man, then shot and fatally wounded the murderer.

Young Dunn and Moore quarreled yesterday, and late last night Moore went to Dunn's home, armed with a shotgun. Calling young Dunn out, Moore said that he had come to kill him. Captain Dunn came out and tried to pacify Moore, and asked him to come in and spend the night. Moore did this, but this morning he again became enraged and emptied his shotgun into Captain Dunn's body killing him instantly. Peyton then shot Moore.

As both families are prominent, the affair has created a good deal of excitement."

Lost.

A setter dog, black and white, with smaller spots of brown and blue; two years old. Had collar on with black and chain attached when lost.

JAMES MOORE,

The Meeting Tonight.

We cannot too earnestly urge upon our people the necessity of a full turnout at the mass meeting tonight at Metropolitan Hall, suggested by Messrs Alf. A. Thompson and others of the committee. It is one of those occasions that requires the promptest action if we would secure the good results so desired by all. Let it be remembered, that the sum of $10,000 is needed, if the location of the Southern Immigration Bureau is to be in Raleigh. This is a small sum in comparison with the immense advantages likely to accrue to our city if success should be attained. It must be remembered, too, that whatever is done must be done quickly, as only a day or so remains in which the tender is to be made.

The weather tonight will, to all appearances be good, and there being no other meeting or amusement in the city, no reason whatever exists why Metropolitan Hall should not be packed to its utmost capacity with the solid men of Raleigh. Let it go forth, that we will spare no pains to secure an object which is well calculated to make Raleigh one of the foremost Southern cities.

Memorial.

It is with feelings of the deepest regret and sympathy that we announce the death of Mr. W. E. Emery, which sad event occurred at his home in Brooklyn, near our city on Sunday morning at half past five o'clock, Jan. 18th, 1891, after lingering long with consumption. Mr. Emery for some years has been an employee in the R. & G. R. R. Shops, also a member of the R. R. Association. It has been our privilege to visit him during the thirteen months of his sickness and it is with no ordinary feelings we attempt to pay this last tribute to his memory. He was a conductor, and on leaving that position he joined the southern army, a true and faithful soldier. For several years the disease claimed him as its victim. He worked as a carpenter in the shops and enjoyed the confidence and respect of all his fellow employees and a large circle of friends. We believe that in the death of our brother of the association and as a mechanic taken from our midst we feel assured that our loss is his eternal gain. That he has reached his Heavenly home as he often talked to us expressing his belief in his Saviour's love and felt his transgressions all forgiven and was resting his soul, on the Lord. We deposited the mortal remains of our brother in the tomb and now we think of him as an immortal and glorified spirit receiving the reward of a blissful, eternal life which Jesus has prepared for all who trust in Him. To the grief-stricken widow and children we tender our profound sympathy and commend them to the God of Heaven and Earth who rules all things with tender sovereignty and who only can give to the widow and orphan that true and lasting consolation that they now so sorely need. The funeral took place from Brooklyn church on Monday afternoon the 19th conducted by Dr. L. L. Nash of Central M. E. Church. His text was, "He that is dead shall live again." It was ably presented to a large congregation. The remains were attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends to his last resting place in our city cemetery. A FRIEND.

IMPORTANT MEETING!

TONIGHT AT METROPOLITAN HALL!

AT 8 O'CLOCK.

Don't fail to attend.

It is very important.

Drop everything else for the meeting tonight.

Our Churches Yesterday

EDENTON ST. M. E. CHURCH.
At Edenton Street M. E. Church yesterday morning services, conducted by the pastor, Dr. J. H. Cordon, one person was received into the church by certificate. The sermon was very edifying, and preached with much earnestness. The congregation was large and appreciative.

At 4 p. m., in the Sabbath School room, there were special services, for the young folks and the Sabbath School, was addressed by Messrs. Perry and Bryan, members of the Legislature and by Dr. F. L. Reid. The speeches were listened to with much attention, especially the one by Dr. Reid. His mode of training the young was a new idea to some, and had a powerful effect. He is a fine speaker and knows how to draw the attention of his hearers.

At 7:30 Dr. Cordon preached on love, and it was pronounced by all who heard him as one of his finest efforts to his large congregations.

BROOKLYN M. E. CHURCH.
At Brooklyn M. E. Church on last night, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., Rev. J. A. Cunningham, Presiding Elder of the Raleigh district, preached a most powerful sermon from the 6th chapter of Matthew, and 33rd verse, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of Heaven, and all these things shall be added unto you." It was impressive, instructive and edifying. After the sermon the Holy Communion was administered. The Sabbath School is in a prosperous condition. Bro. John H. Porter is the Superintendent.

CENTRAL M. E. CHURCH.
Dr. Nash preached two strong sermons, morning and evening to interested congregations. The congregations at both services were larger than usual. The Stewards of this church are making special effort to get the people to pay weekly to the pastors salary fund and they are succeeding some. The Sunday School was rather better attended than usual for the weather and very interesting. A number of new scholars were added.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
The services at the Christian Church yesterday were very interesting, and the congregations good. The morning service was opened with a beautiful solo by Miss Mamie Stedman, and the pastor gave a fine sermon from the text, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." At the evening hour, Rev. J. L. Foster, under the influence of a good congregation, rather outdid himself in delivering a grand sermon, which was listened to with rapt attention by all present.

BAPTIST TABERNACLE.
It was a day of much enjoyment to all who attended the services. In the Sunday School 325 were present, with 6 new scholars. Mr. Mewborn, of Kinston, Senator Durham and Mr. Wilkerson, of Shelby, and Mr. E. S. Lougee, of Philadelphia, made interesting talks at the close of the lesson. The pastor Rev. Dr. Hall preached on Christ as our Shepherd, both morning and night, and so unfolded the Saviour's character in the analogies that he drew as to greatly interest the large audiences. At close of morning sermon Mr. N. B. Broughton sang, "The old and new home." At night a young lady received the ordinance of baptism.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.
At the First Baptist Church on Sunday morning, Dr. Carter preached his second sermon on the Ten Commandments, taking the Second Commandment for his text, which is found in Exodus 20:4, 5, 6. The sermon was interesting and instructive and was listened to patiently by a large and appreciative congregation. At the evening service he preached his closing sermon on the "Sayings of Christ on the Cross." Subject, "It is finished." In this sermon he reviewed the life of Christ; the fulfilling of the prophecies of the Bible, &c., made a pathetic appeal to the unconverted and gave advice and good counsel to the Christians. This sermon was an unusual good one, and we trust it will bring forth good results.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
Very interesting services at First Presbyterian Church yesterday, Prof. Dinwiddie was reinstated as Elder and Mr. C. W. Wharton was ordained and installed to the office of Elder. Prof. D. H. Hill and Mr. Geo. W. Thompson were ordained deacons. The ordination services were impressive.

The pastor preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion, showing the relation of private members and officers to the church. Full attendance in the Sunday school and interesting exercises.

Witnessed a Ghost Tragedy

LOWELL, Mass., Jan. 25.—James Largee, who has been a watchman in the Merrimac Mills for the past five years, has resigned because, as he says, the mill is haunted.

He was in the carding room in the fifth story of No 1 mill about 11 o'clock last Friday night, when he saw the figure of a man and a woman facing each other. The man held a smoking revolver in his hand. As Largee approached the man the latter fired several shots at the female figure. Largee rushed to protect the woman, but grasped only thin air. He tried to seize the man but again found nothing.

Both figures then disappeared, but Largee says he saw them again twice afterwards.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.
We would like to sell between now and February 1st every fur cape, and fur muff that we have. If we do not sell every single one by that time we will not be surprised, but we do expect to sell nearly every one, because they have been marked down to wholesale cost, and most of them greatly below cost. We haven't got a big stock of either, but what we have now will be offered cheap, and very cheap at that.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

For Rent.
A two story house and lot on east side of McDowell street, between Hargett and Morgan. For terms, address Mrs. W. W. Holden. j23 6tp

Sister Lucy, have you seen those ladies felt hats at 6 cents each. Swindell's special sale.

Our Special Sale
Of ladies felt hats at 6 (cts) six cents is going to raise a breeze in this town. Think for moment: A ladies nice felt hat for 6 cents. Some of these hats are worth a dollar. All kinds are in the lot and all shapes. This special sale does not last many days. Now a few words about those white laundry shirts at 60c. As we have told you before, these are the same shirts as you must pay a dollar for in any store anywhere at any time. We think we have said quite enough about these shirts and shall say but little more about them. We have eight or nine hundred of them now and you can get one or two if you will. All who have seen them praise them, and no one has said they are not cheap. Even the chronic grumblers praise them. Men's sizes 60c; boy's sizes 50c at SWINDELL'S.
