NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers-News in Brief.

We call attention to the advertisement of J. W. F. Rogers, mortgagee to be found in this issue

I The Oxford Day of the 26th, says: "A number of boys ran away from the Orphan Asylum this morning."

The stockholders of the Raleigh cotton mills will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight, at the office of the company, 135 Fayetteville street.

Attention is called to the new grocery store just opened by Mr. E. G. Horton, on south side of market, in M. T. Norris' old stand.

S. N. Manning, sheriff of New Hanover county, settled his taxes today with the State Treasurer, amounting to $21,185.44.

We regret to learn that Josie, an interesting little daughter of Capt. S. A. Ashe, had the misfortune to break her left arm by falling from a fence yesterday afternoon.

The sheriffs are settling with the Treasurer of the State with unusual promptness, which shows that the financial condition of our people is on a sound basis.

Large droves of mules from Kentucky and Tennessee are being the largest amount to Rutherford brought to this city, and find ready sale at good prices. This is a sign that our farmers are in a prosperous condition. Another successful crop year will put us entirely on our feet.

The Exposition Committee are putting in some splendid work, and it may now be said that success is in sight. Let everybody put their shoulders to the wheel. Along pull and a pull altogether will ensure the object in view.

The legislative committee on nominations for justices of the peace have fully organized and are ready for business. Parties interested in the coun ty government system will do well to be governed accordingly.

is important to hold expositions but the great need of the city is another hotel. The extension of the Albemarle and Raleigh Railroad is important. but all these things increase the need for another hotel, The building of the new depot is important, but an other hotel is indispensible. What are you going to do about it?

Yesterday two little boys who had left the Orphan Asylum at Oxford walked all the way to this city. They put in their appearance at the Mayor's office and were taken in charge by Maj. Heartt who gave them lodging in the station house and otherwise took good care of them. The little fellows were this morning put in charge of a gentleman to be returned to Oxford.

Street Dentistry.

In the little squib that appeared in the Visitor yesterday with the above heading Mr. Goodwin thinks injustice was done him. No injustice was t hought of by the party who furnish. ed us with the item, and indeed the whole thing was only a little piece of pleasantry and nothing more. No reflection was intended. Mr. Goodwin is a clever straight forward gentleman and has our kind esteem.

The Mass Meeting.

Another meeting of citizens will be held tonight for the purpose of further considering the matter of the Inter State Exposition. There should be a large turnout of our people as matters of the utmost importance in connection with the object in view will be discussed.

The committee appointed at the meeting last Monday night are meet. ing with much success in the way of soliciting subscriptions, and a report from them can be expected tonight. Let Metropolitan Hall be filled to its atmost capacity.

Big Pigs.

Mr. L. R. Wyatt is good at raising pork as well as at the laundry business. He had two hogs on the market this morning weighing respectively 528 pounds and 549 pounds. Good size pigs.

Important Meeting Tonight.

Dont fail to attend the meeting of the citizens tonight at Metropolitan Hall. The committee appointed to raise the necessary money to secure the establishment of the Inter-States Immigration Bureau at Raleigh will be ready to report, and you should be there to hear it and to show your interest in this very important enterprise.

Personal Mention.

Capt. W. F. Dortch, of Goldsboro, is in the city.

Capt. Jno. A. Williams, of Oxford, is in the city.

Hon. David Schenck, of Greensboro, is in the city. He is looking remarkably well and wears the same ever genial smile.

We had a pleasant call from Rev. J F. W. Rogers, of Apex this evening.

The Rutherford College.

Prof. J. S. Leonard, of Statesville, says he will give one of his fine parlar organs to the person who donates College between February 1st and July 1st 1891.

This should be an incentive towards the cause and we hope it will meet with the greatest success.

Salvini.

Our amusement loving people have a rich treat in store for them on Thursday and Friday nights of this week, when the great actor Alexander Salvini will appear in two of his most successful roles. Tomorrow night will be presented the ever popular and splendid play of "Don Caesar de Bazan, which never fails to draw when presented with a good cast. In every city where Salvini has What about the hotel question. It appeared he has won laurels of triumph and he has been greeted with tremendous audiences. All who desire to witness the performance of this great actor should secure their seats at once as the selections are be ing rapidly made. Remember that no extra prices are placed for the entertainment. Call at MacRae's drug store and have your seats reserved.

The King's Daughters.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the King's Daughters was held at Edenton Street Methodist Church last night. Eight different circles were represented and there was a large delegation from each. Miss Emmie McVea was chosen chairman, and Mrs. Foster, Secretary. An executive committee was appointed, consisting of the presidents of the various circles of this city, and this committee was empowered to make all necessary arrangements for the entertainment of the State Convention which will be held in this city next May. For the purpose of securing funds, the executive committee have decided to give a concert on the 9th of February, the programme for which will be prepared and announce ed in a few days.

Norris' Dry Goods Store.

Just received the "advance styles" of Dress Ginghams-a handsome line of Embroidered and Hemstiched Flouncings, Hamburg Edges and Insertings in patterns entirely new Linen Cambric Handkerchiefs, plain, embroidered and fancy, lower than ever. Also the best 5 cent lawn handkerchief we have seen. Spring styles of Parasols, a new line of Umbrellas. All of the above were received on Wednesday of this week. Can't you come right down and see

NORRIS' DRY GOODS STORE.

WANTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Arrested and Returned to Va.

A few days since Chief of Police Heartt arrested in this city a man named Barker who was wanted in Petersburg, on a charge of larceny. Today Capt. W. H. Eanes, Chief of Police of Petersburg, Va., was in the city and Barker was promptly turned over to him to be carried back to Virginia. Baker voluntarily agreed to return and therefore no rendition papers were necessary. The prompt action of Maj. Heartt in the premises is but another proof of the efficiency of the Raleigh Police system.

The report of the joint committee on rules was read and adopted.

The report of the joint committee appointed to examine the books an 1 vouchers of the State Treasurer and Auditor, was submitted.

The special order was taken up,being the bill to charter the Bank of Cumberland, at Fayetteville. Majority and minority reports were submitted.

Mr. Sutton spoke in favor of the bill, saying it was well guarded. The savings bank feature was important and was needed. He alluded to the unprecedented success of the Raleigh Savings Bank. The chief objection to the bill was as to the right of married women to deposit their own money and to draw it. They had that right in any bank at present.

Mr. Peebles said he yielded to no man in his regard for the rights of married women and minors. He expected to show that the bill as it came before the committee was not drawn to carry out this purpose. It gave an opportunity to put trust funds in the bank. The present law gave every protection to married women in the matter of bank deposits. He said that in the Kirkman case the Supreme Court say married women have no right to transfer the money in bank; they have a right to draw the money themselves. He objects to the bank's having no guarantee fund; the whole security being the honesty of the officers. He opposed power being given women to convey their money

Mr. Skinner said the Dortch act should be made applicable to this

We Keep in View the importance of giving a better ar ticle for the price than any other merchant, and to this one thing we attribute a great deal of our popularity as merchants. Now we have been working hard and earnest to get a ladies' corset to sell at 50c that we knew to be better than any one else had or could get. At last we have secured this corset by having it made; and these corsets came in on yesterday and are now on sale at Swindell's, and we know we are offering the best corset for 50c to be had in the State. Remember, we have any kind of a corset you may want, and we believe we are selling all kinds much cheaper than any one else; but this special corset at 50c we are making a special feature of the business. For corsets it will pay you to see our stock. Our special sale of ladies relt week to buy fine garments at prices hats at 6c, and men's white shirts at less than the cost of manufacture. 60c is still progressing, at
