NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The Governor has forwarded to Senator Vance his commission for the next six years from March 4th, 1891.

The matter of a new opera house is gaining in popularity and there now seems to be some chance for its accomplishment. We must think the investment will be a paying one.

Mr. James W. Allison, of Portsmouth, Va., has accepted a position as telegraph operator to general Manager Winder, and will make his headquarters at Raleigh.

The work on the round-house at the Raleigh and Gaston Depot still continues, and all traces of the recent fire will soon disappear. All the locomotives, but three, have been repaired and are now as good as ever. The loss by the fire will be small in comparison with the first reports.

All men are most cordially invited to attend the young men's prayer meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock which will be held in the Bible class rooms in rear basement of Edenton Street M. E. Church. The subject—The Sin of Omission The Sin of Commission will be studied by the brethren. A hearty welcome to all.

A complete outfit of the rolling stock, &c., for the Egypt Coal Mining and Railway Company has arrived at the depot of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. One of the locomotives—the Carthage—is a beauty and is of a curious design. It has four driving wheels, but only two wheels in front. Although small in design it is said to possess drawing powers equal to much larger engines.

Notice, D. of R.

There will be a called meeting of Ruth Lodge, No. 4, D. of R., I. O. O. F. to night, (Friday) January 30th, 1891, for the purpose of conferring the degrees and voting on amendments to the By-laws. Every member is earnestly urged to be on hand.

Whose Is It?

This morning a colored man named McIlhane who stays about the stall of Mr. W. R. Crawford in the market picked up a set of good buggy harness on the Hillsboro road opposite St. Mary's school. The harness is almost complete and seems not to have been much worn. The finder left it at Mr. Crawford's stall for identification.

The Weldon Farms.

The penal institution committee, of the General Assembly which left here yesterday afternoon for Weldon, consists of ten members. They go for the purpose of examining into the workings of the State farms on the Roanoke river, which are operated by convicts from the penitentiary. The committee, on their return, will no doubt present a most interesting report of their trip, with such information as will be of the utmost value to the Legislature and the public generally.

Committee Appointed.

Mrs. J. B. Batchelor, President of the Ladies Memorial Association, has appointed the following committee to assist in regard to the bill now pending in the General Assembly concerning the Soldiers Home.

Mrs. Gov. Jarvis, Mrs. Judge Shephard, Mrs. Judge Clark, Mrs. E. E. Moffit, Mrs. R. D. Gilmer, Mrs. Col. Olds, Mrs. Col. Kenan, Mrs. Garland Jones, Mrs. Ayer, Mrs. Wm. Cram, Mrs. William Boylan, Jr., Mrs. Armistead Jones.

Where, Oh, Where, is the Union Depot?

Every now and then fresh calls are made upon us to know, "when did you hear anything about the New Union Depot or Station?" We go down to Nash Square and look over at the mournful looking vacant ground, cleared off about one year ago. We turn back and remember that it was in July 1889 that the movement for a Union Station began. And then! Well, then we look over the newspaper files and find traces at long intervals, and then!

We stop. Talk about a Southern Exposition, a new Opera House, a Great Hotel, Electric Cars, etc. But where, oh, where, is the Union Depot?

Personal Mention.

Attorney General Davidson has returned to the city from Washington, D. C.

Dr. Geo. A. Foote, of Warrenton, is in the city.

We are glad to learn that Dr. L. G. Broughton, of Reidsville, sick with typhoid fever, is thought to be improving.

Col. Fred A. Olds left this afternoon for the eastern part of the State on official business.

Mr. J. N. Hubbard, steward of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, who has been quite sick, is at his post again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Busbee have arrived in the city, from their bridal trip. They will receive their friends on tomorrow afternoon from three until six o'clock. No cards.

Dr. W. J. Courts, Senator from Rockingham, has returned to his seat much improved.

Mr. James S. Battle from Rocky Mount, is in the city looking in fine health.

Mr. P. Pond, of Southern Pines, came in this morning. He says there is a larger number of northern people at the Pines at this time than at anytime before.

Col. W. F. Green, of Franklin county, is in the city.

A Police Wagon.

Raleigh needs a Police Wagon so that an urgent call day or night might be quickly answered. As it is now the police must either be delayed or hire the first conveyance they can find. The horse to draw this wagon could be taken from some one of those belonging to the fire department. In addition to the use of answering urgent calls, in our judgment this wagon should be used by the Mayor and Chief of Police and Chair man of Street Committee in riding over the city at least once or twice each week for general observation. We mean no reflection upon either of these worthy officers when we ask how can they know much about the city from their offices.

They cannot afford to neglect their offices for the length of time it would take to walk over the city, and hence they are seldom seen in and around the highways and hedges.

Rev. J. P. Barrett.

We see by the Norfolk Ledger, of Jan. 28th, that Rev. J. Presley Barrett, D. D., of the Christian Sun of this city, preached in the People's Tabernacle in that city that night.

Col. F. H. Cameron.

The Richmond Dispatch, in publishing the annual meeting of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, chronicles the election of Col. F. H. Cameron, of Raleigh, as one of the directors of that company for the ensuing year. This is a vigorous Southern corporation and Col. Cameron is its very efficient representative in North Carolina.

Secured.

It can almost be said within the bounds of certainty that the proposed subscription of $10,000 towards securing the location of the Southern Immigration Bureau in Raleigh, and the consequent advantages accruing from it will be obtained. To the sum of $6,000 heretofore subscribed the Seaboard Air Line have added $2,000, making the total thus far $8,000. This leaves only $2,000 more, which we have no doubt will be subscribed in a day or so, if it has not been already pledged. This is splendid news for our people. It is a lift for our city of which we should all feel proud.

Idle Boys.

Mayor Thompson has determined to put an end to the crowds of idle half grown boys loafing around town and more particularly around the market, creating a nuisance by congregating around whatever excites their curiosity or invites their sportive proclivities. If these boys have nothing to do the street is no place for them, and if they continue street loafing they are almost certain to become criminals, if they are not already such. The mayor sent one to the work house for 30 days this morning, and others will follow. He is determined to break it up.

Shocking Accident.

This morning about 1 o'clock, a colored man named Henry Jackson was killed near the round house of the Raleigh and Gaston Depot. He had attempted to step from the tender to the locomotive and, in doing so, fell beneath them. The strangest part of the affair is that the man was not injured to all external appearances, except that three of his fingers were badly crushed. It is thought, however, that he sustained such internal injuries as were the cause of death. Jackson was about 40 years of age and was from Pittsboro. Capt. Horton says he was a most faithful hand.

Don Caesar de Bazan.

A large and highly appreciative audience greeted the appearance of Salvini last night in this splendid dramatic production, and all were enthusiastic in praise. Salvini is undoubtedly one of the finest actors now on the American stage. Aside from his dramatic powers of a tragic character he can insert at intervals such veins of humor as to produce even merriment among his hearers. In a word, his rendition last night was a most complete success.

Tonight Salvini will appear in the beautiful drama of "A Child of Naples," a cast which displays his great artistic powers to a high degree.

It goes without saying that Metropolitan Hall will be crowded. Reserved seats on sale at MacRae's drug store.

"TO THE YOUNG MEN." We have got just the thing you want, dancing shoes, they are the nicest that you have seen in this town. We have one with patent leather vamps, and the quarters of black undressed kid. Another pretty dancing shoe, is the bright Dongola Oxford, also stainless black half hose, either silk or cotton.
W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

The Rustler's Refrain.

Tell me not in mournful numbers that the town is full of gloom, for the man's a crank who slumbers in these bursting days of boom. Life is real, life is earnest, and the grave is not its goal, every dollar that thou turnest helps to make our Raleigh roll. But enjoyment and not sorrow is our destined end or way; if you have no money, borrow—buy a corner lot each day. Lives of great men all remind us, we can win immortal fame; let us leave the chumps behind us and we'll get there all the same. In this world's broad field of battle, in the bivouac of life, let us make the dry bones rattle—buy a corner lot for wife. Let us then be up and doing, with a heart for any fate; still achieving, still pursuing, booming early, booming late.

A Simple Story.

The success of some people is wonderful. They seem to get on in life much better than their neighbors. All their efforts are successful; and say, oh my, if I could succeed like they do. Some people fail at all things. Nothing succeeds with them; the story is simple. It is not LUCK, but it is brains, PUSH and pluck. Such people are decided when they go at a thing. They don't say, well, I don't know; but they seize it at once. When they come in Swindell's store they don't say, I will not get a shirt now, will wait, but take all they want at once. The other fellow who is undecided says, well, I will wait. You know people who never succeed and you know people who do succeed in all their undertakings. We are now having special sales of white shirts, ladies felt hats, handkerchiefs and hosiery, at D. T. SWINDELL'S.
